Bitter Harvest John Hayman, 2017-02-01 Bitter Harvest traces the development of Richmond Flowers a colorful politician who began his career as a segregationist but who as attorney general of Alabama fought bitterly against Governor George Wallace in trying to support the Constitution In the process he sacrificed his political career Flowers was elected attorney general in 1962 A likable story teller who had served in the state senate Flowers came into office promising like his fellow politicians to send the Yankees a message He did not seem the stuff of which heroes or martyrs are made But faced with the choice of upholding the law or of taking the popular course he chose to uphold the law Events thereafter made him a central figure in the most violent years of the civil rights revolution The book sets this story against the background of the white South's war against civil rights a savage contest motivated by hatred and fear It advances the thesis that during this period Alabama suffered a fundamental failure in leadership which determined the state's response to the demand for social change Alabama's leaders encouraged lawlessness with their statements and actions They took the state down a self destructive course which has had lasting and damaging consequences from Saturday E. L. Konigsburg, 1999-05 Four students with their own individual stories develop a special bond and attract the attention of their teacher a paraplegic who chooses them to represent their sixth grade class in the Academic Bowl competition Mrs Eva Marie Olinski always gave good answers Whenever she was asked how she had selected her team for the Academic Bowl she chose one of several good answers Most often she said that the four members of her team had skills that balanced one another That was reasonable Sometimes she said that she knew her team would practice That was accurate To the district superintendent of schools she gave a bad answer but she did that only once only to him and if that answer was not good her reason for giving it was The fact was that Mrs Olinski did not know how she had chosen her team and the further fact was that she didn't know that she didn't know until she did know Of course that is true of most things you do not know up to and including the very last second before you do And for Mrs Olinski that was not until Bowl Day was over and so was the work of her four sixth graders They called themselves The Souls They told Mrs Olinski that they were The Souls long before they were a team but she told them that they were a team as soon as they became The Souls Then after a while teacher and team agreed that they were arguing chicken or egg Whichever way it began chicken or egg team or The Souls it definitely ended with an egg Definitely an egg
