They Only Wear Black Hats Edward Izzi, 2021-11-11 Detective Mike Palazzola of Detroit's Third Precinct is good at catching the bad guys especially those who commit brutal heinous crimes But after several mishandled criminal cases he becomes increasingly frustrated with the judicial system and its prosecutors The alleged murderers he worked so hard to capture and indict are either dismissed on a legal technicality exonerated or given lenient sentences by the court system While having dinner with a friend at Detroit's Roma Caf he stumbles upon a secret gathering of members who have been passing out their own brand of justice since 1927 members who always wear black bowler hats The Malizia Society of Detroit or The Archangels as they like to call themselves have their own stable of executioners They meet decide and pass out their own private brand of justice against those malicious criminals whom the judicial system can no longer indict He later learns that one of the county prosecutors Kevin Scanlon is a member of this secret society As Detective Palazzola and his reporter friend Justine Cahill begin to investigate these Black Bowler Hat murders the FBI steps in They now have a society member who has become a government informant and the Feds are confident that they can get an indictment against this secret society They ask the cops and the media to back off not wanting anyone to jeopardize their investigation But the Archangels are now out of control and are eliminating any disgruntled society members lawyers and even reporters who threaten to make public and expose their secret manifesto of mortal redemption Victims are now showing up dead by strangulation or by self inflicted suicide Palazzola knows exactly who these killers are but there isn't anything he can do And with every Archangels murder at every crime scene there lays a black bowler hat

The Christian world magazine (and family visitor). ,1873      The Red Wall Jane Hall,2007 Since 1977 people have asked Jane Hall over and over what it was like to have been among the first few female members in the RCMP and like so many of her peers she has avoided answering the question How could one sentence do the question justice Finally after years of thoughtful contemplation she has borrowed a phrase from the father of one of the original members of the North West Mounted Police Sub Inspector Francis Dickens It was the best of times it was the worst of times But the reason for avoiding the answer like the question itself was a little more complex than simply not having the correct words To truly tell the complete story some of the bad as well as the good must be told and that was why senior female members like Ms Hall had chosen to remain silent fearing that any abbreviated response could be misinterpreted or subverted to unfairly attack the RCMP After all it was the RCMP who broke new social and professional ground when it decided In the absence of any empirical evidence to the contrary the assumption had to be that females would be capable of performing all the diversified duties in the Force equal to the males The RCMP the embodiment of the Canadian national identity levelled the professional playing field for women and by doing so in this unprecedented leadership role the RCMP catapulted the women s movement forward impacting the lives of women throughout North America and quite possibly the world Says Jane Hall It is time to break the silence time to acknowledge our successes and our failures Time to move forward
