Redefining Higher Education Melvyn L. Fein,2022-02-26 Higher education is in trouble Commentators of all stripes bemoan escalating costs and diminishing quality Solutions have been offered from all quarters but tend to be piecemeal and all too often ideological In this tough minded look at the history current climate and future of university education in the United States Melvyn L Fein re examines the mission of higher education and outlines what institutions can do to better prepare students for an ever more complex techno commercial society Fein argues that students must have the opportunity to explore and discover what works for them and that the most important tool for institutions of higher education is self direction Professors must be allowed to teach in their own ways bringing their own experience into the classroom Since university missions differ both universities and professors need the freedom to make decisions independently The imminent need is for a democratic elite consisting of self directed leaders who possess technical and social expertise as well as personal motivation The tools for change are appropriate curricula communities of learners and a genuine marketplace of ideas While there is no magic bullet Fein contends that we can and should build on the achievements of the past so as to evolve more responsive educational institutions those that promote merit responsibility and universalism

Redefining Tandem Language and Culture Learning in Higher Education Claire Tardieu, Céline

Horgues, 2019-08-21 This book provides a comprehensive critical account of tandem learning charting its evolution from its origins in European educational settings to modern programs offering new perspectives on the approach's role within higher education. Taking stock of the ways in which increased globalization has produced new linguistic and sociocultural realities, the volume begins by looking back at the development of tandem learning over the last several decades, growing out of a need to create more opportunities for L2 learners to communicate in their target language. The book then examines the different learning objectives and learning outcomes of tandem learning arrangements, moving toward a discussion of tandem learning's potential role in shaping language policy and the unique challenges involved in implementing tandem programs at higher education institutions. The final section of the book brings the previous discussions together to consider new tools and technology and the ways in which they can better equip language educators to implement tandem learning in their own practice. Highlighting tandem learning's potential to promote multilingual and multicultural learning on a global scale, this volume will be of particular interest to students and researchers in intercultural communication, language education, multilingualism, and applied linguistics. The Shaping of Tertiary Education in the Anglophone Caribbean Vivienne

Roberts, 2003 As tertiary education in the Caribbean enters a period of expansion and maturity, this book is a timely study into how the sector should evolve if it is to meet its target of increasing enrolment from under 10 per cent to 15 per cent by 2005. It explores the issues involved in providing an optimum learning and teaching environment and presents options for policy, strategic design, and leadership to provide an accessible, responsive education system. Redefining Tertiary

Education Malcolm Skilbeck, Alan Wagner, Eric Esnault, Christy Kim, 1998 OECD Reviews of Tertiary Education

Tertiary Education for the Knowledge Society Volume 1 and Volume 2 OECD, 2008-09-16 Tertiary Education for the Knowledge Society provides a thorough international investigation of tertiary education policy across its many facets: governance, funding, quality assurance, equity, research, and innovation; academic career links to the labour market; and internationalisation. Rethinking the Academic Experience Malcolm Tight, 2025-08-11 Rethinking the Academic Experience explores the collective experiences of everyone in higher education settings, from students to those who teach and support them. Malcolm Tight presents the academy as a single but highly complex and interconnected entity, examining its individual stakeholders and elements to better understand these institutions.
