Reel Food Michael Ludera, 2021-08-29 Approached by a waitress after Ryan finishes Reiner deadpans I ll have what she s having The line was ranked 33rd on the American Film Institute s list of the Top 100 movie quotations just behind Casablanca s Round up the usual suspects The fake orgasm scene that follows the heated debate between Meg Ryan s and Billy Crystal s movie characters ends with the historical and funny line I ll have what she s having from another diner customer evoking the interest and curiosity in the audience to also have a taste from that Pastrami Sandwich which Meg Ryan was eating before giving her friend a lecture Food on Film Tom Hertweck, 2014-10-30 From early cinematic depictions of food as a symbol of ethnic and cultural identity to more complex contemporary portrayals movies have demonstrated how our ideas about food are always changing On the big and small screens representations of addiction starvation and even food as fetish reinforce how important food is in our lives and in our culture In Food on Film Bringing Something New to the Table Tom Hertweck brings together innovative viewpoints about a popular yet understudied subject in cinema This collection explores the pervasiveness of food in film from movies in which meals play a starring role to those that feature food and eating in supporting or cameo appearances The volume asks provocative questions about food and its relationship with work urban life sexual orientation the family race morality and a wide range of appetites The fourteen essays by international interdisciplinary scholars offer a wide range of perspectives on such films and television shows as The Color Purple Do the Right Thing Ratatouille The Road Sex and the City Twin Peaks and even Jaws From first course to last Food on Film will be of interest to scholars of film and television sociology anthropology and cultural history (In)digestion in Literature and Film Serena J. Rivera, Niki Kiviat, 2020-04-21 In digestion in Literature and Film A Transcultural Approach is a collection of essays spanning diverse geographic areas such as Brazil Eastern Europe France Ireland Italy Japan Mexico South Korea Taiwan and the United States Despite this geographic variance they all question disordered eating practices represented in literary and filmic works The collection ultimately redefines disorder removing the pathology and stigma assigned to acts of non normative eating In so doing the essays deem taboo practices of food consumption rejection and avoidance as expressions of resistance and defiance in the face of restrictive sociocultural political and economic normativities As a result disorder no longer equates to out of order implying a sense of brokenness but is instead envisioned as an act against the dominant of order of operations The collection therefore shifts critical focus from the eater as the embodiment of disorder to the problematic norms that defines behaviors as such Culinary Cinema Deborah R. Geis, 2024-12-15 In this book Deborah Geis offers a new approach to the evolving genre of culinary films that center on the acts of eating and cooking through close analyses of ten different films These films range from the classics like Big Night 1996 and Babette s Feast 1987 to later box office hits like Chef 2014 and to films that deserve a second look like East Side

Sushi 2014 Burnt 2015 and Mid August Lunch 2008 Throughout these analyses the book focuses on tropes including the big dinner as it connects to intercultural and transcultural communities the self destructive perfectionism of the obsessive chef and the craft of cooking in relation to aging and mortality Geis invites readers and viewers to experience food driven narrative films with an appetite for appreciating the visual ingredients and the ways in which they construct pleasure through the act of looking as a vicarious approach to consuming the actual food Drawing on the work of film theorist Christian Metz Geis ultimately poses a new paradigm for watching and understanding culinary cinema as a significant and constantly evolving genre that comes with its own conventions and contemporary filmmakers who seek to expand and transform those conventions in surprising ways

Women, Leisure and Tourism Linda J. Ingram, Klára Tarkó, Susan L. Slocum, 2021-12-03 Women Leisure and Tourism provides a comprehensive discussion of women leisure and tourism through the lens of leisure production and consumption both by women and for women Specifically this text includes a multi cultural perspective to highlight the unique attributes leisure brings to women the role of women in leisure entrepreneurship and the creation of supportive inclusive environments to enhance female well being through the examination of these activities in often overlooked populations The diversity of women s leisure and tourism practices is best perceived through the links between various leisure practices e g sport outdoor recreation travel and tourism learning crafts events family leisure as well as an understanding of leisure production across cultures and life stages These chapters bring to the forefront many of the challenges inherent in providing leisure and tourism that support the diverse needs of women as well as a look at female innovation that is also often overlooked in leisure research The book includes examples of both applied and conceptual chapters from global perspectives in academic studies
