Kelly, 2016-09-15 This book explores the problem of time and immanence for phenomenology in the work of Edmund Husserl Martin Heidegger Maurice Merleau Ponty and Jacques Derrida Detailed readings of immanence in light of the more familiar problems of time consciousness and temporality provide the framework for evaluating both Husserl's efforts to break free of modern philosophy's notions of immanence and the influence Heidegger's criticism of Husserl exercised over Merleau Ponty's and Derrida's alternatives to Husserl's phenomenology Ultimately exploring various notions of intentionality these in depth analyses of immanence and temporality suggest a new perspective on themes central to phenomenology's development as a movement and raise for debate the question of where phenomenology begins and ends
