Perfect Reflection, Book 5 of the Friendship Heirlooms Series Karen Wiesner,2015-08-21 Novel Environments Jayne Hildebrand,2023-05-31 The environment concept has shaped humanity s relationship to the natural world and has drawn attention to the effects of human actions on our natural surroundings But when did we learn that we live in an environment While scholars have often located the emergence of the environment concept in twentieth century ecological and political thought Novel Environments Science Description and Victorian Fiction reconstructs a longer and a specifically literary history It was in the descriptive worldmaking of the Victorian novel that the environment was first transformed from an abstraction into a vivid object of imagination and feeling Engaging the scientific theories of their contemporaries Mary Russell Mitford George Eliot Thomas Hardy and Robert Louis Stevenson turned to detailed description from gardens and landscapes to weather and atmospheres to model interactions between life and its surroundings Far from merely furnishing static background the descriptive apparatus of the Victorian novel imagined the nonhuman environment as dynamically involved with human action feeling and development In making this argument Novel Environments recovers the scientific vocabulary the Victorians used to name the surroundings of living organisms The word environment dominates our own way of speaking about the nonhuman world but nineteenth century scientific writers and novelists availed themselves of a richer conceptual lexicon which included environment along with less familiar concepts such as milieu medium and circumstance Jayne Hildebrand traces the development of Victorian environmental thought from the earliest theorization of physical surroundings as a dynamic influence in the life sciences through the idea of a singular medium in mid century organicism to the conception of the planet as an environmental system at the fin de siècle By showing how novelistic description helped to produce the modern environment concept Hildebrand sheds new light on the relationship between Victorian literature and the life sciences and reveals how literary form has shaped the ecological ideas through which we apprehend the nonhuman world

The Reflection Hugo Wilcken,2015-09-01 Hugo Wilcken s first novel The Execution a taut psychological mystery about an average person who commits an accidental murder got the kind of rave reviews authors dream of He was compared to Camus and Hitchcock Now in his second novel The Reflection the comparisons seem even more appropriate It s a smart creepy steadily absorbing mystery about an average law abiding citizen who finds himself inexplicably caught up in a case of mistaken identities with one of his own patients When psychiatrist David Manne is asked by a friend who s a New York City Police detective to consult on an unusual case he finds himself being asked to evaluate a criminal who s the exact opposite of himself an uneducated laborer from the Midwest who seems overwhelmed by modern day Manhattan circa 1948 But when that laborer tells David that he s not who the police say he is David slowly begins to believe it may be true Unable to stop himself David begins to look into how the police handle the man and the hospital they take him to and begins to suspect that the man is caught up in some kind of secret governmental medical testing Realizing he s got to rescue his patient David quickly finds himself battling forces that seem to be even bigger than he suspected and that now have him in their sights When he suddenly finds himself caught with a patient s i d papers on him he decides on a risky course that seems his only way out To change his identity and enter even deeper into the conspiracy if he s to find out how to escape it Written in relentlessly probing prose with a delicious plot complication seemingly on every page this is one of the most thought provoking chilling and suspenseful novels you ll ever read

The Top Books of the Year Reflections A Novel Of Suspense The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous captivating novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the engaging narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. Reflections A Novel Of Suspense : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Reflections A Novel Of Suspense : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and gripping novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
