

One True Friend

*As I stop to count my blessings,
There is one thing which rings true,
I'll always be so grateful,
For the friend I found in you!*

*Grateful for the special times
We've shared throughout the years,
Times that brought us closer,
Through our laughter and our tears*

*Grateful just to have someone,
As kind and good as you,
To share my finest moments with,
And share my sorrows, too.*

*And when I look upon my life,
What matters in the end,
Is that I was really lucky,
To find one, true, faithful friend!*

Reflections For A Special Friend:

Women's Best Friendships Patricia Rind, 2012-12-06 Explore the distinct relationships of close female friends Women's Best Friendships Beyond Betty Veronica Thelma and Louise gives new and comprehensive insight into the complex world of women's closest friendships Recent studies have shown that women place enormous value on best friendships and consider them to be woven tightly into the fabric of their lives Using in depth interviews along with close readings of relevant literature and theory this book focuses on the many facets of these relationships With heartfelt first person accounts and insightful commentary from the author this book examines three intertwining themes feelings of competition issues of dependence and independence and knowing understanding This book sheds light on areas of tension among women especially difficulties in communication frustration about not being entirely let into a friend's life and thought processes and the feeling that one friend may value the friendship more than the other It also discusses women's struggles to maintain closeness over increased distances and the realization that one's friends are flawed even as friends This informative book grounded in established research and theory presents stories of real friendships told by the people who live them These women talk candidly about what makes a best friend about navigating the choppy waters of friendship and much more Somehow when we started living farther apart there were ways in which we were being insensitive We recognized that there was a really strong bond but we were taking it for granted So we talked about how close we feel to one another and perhaps how that leads to some arguments or hurt feelings Liz on how distance has affected her relationship with her best friend Susan Em and I don't fight at all I don't know if that's good or bad I don't think I do well with fights I think that's probably a lot of conflict avoidance on my part And I think it does lead to some distance even though it's a best friendship I think I'm uncomfortable asserting myself And so it's easier not to have to do that So maybe my inability to deal with the problems keeps the friendship at a distance where it's safe and comfortable for me in that one respect Linda about her desire to avoid any confrontation with Emily her best friend Women's Best Friendships Beyond Betty Veronica Thelma and Louise is a fresh and exciting look at the inner workings of relationships between women Drawing upon a multitude of issues and insights this book is a must have for women's studies classes

Pat Ross,2012-12-18 Author Pat Ross explores the bonds of mother daughter relationships in Mother and Daughter Reflections The many facets of this richly embroidered theme unfold before the reader s eyes in sixty five revealing black and white images These photographs are both vintage and contemporary and include posed portraits as well as spontaneous snapshots The ages and stages of mothers and daughters are easily recognizable and familiar A timeless image captures a touching moment after a daughter s birth another shows a hair combing session where both the hair and the relationship obviously have grown somewhat more tangled yet another shows undeniable support and affection in seasoned smiles As readers pour over these rich images they will surely identify with the many moments and feelings shared between mothers and daughters of all ages both yesterday and today Pat Ross pairs engaging photographs with sensitive and often witty passages from the writings of a varied group of expressive women from little known historical pieces to selections by writers such as Anne Morrow Lindbergh Kaye Gibbons Louise Bernikow and Nancy Friday This extraordinary collection nurtures as it celebrates the powerful ties between mothers and their daughters These ties can be as varied as mothers and daughters themselves quiet dynamic highly charged playful affectionate sustaining constant offering unconditional love and searching for it still There is something in Mother and Daughter Reflections for every woman generations of mothers and daughters sisters and other loving women in one s life Interreligious Reflections, Six Volume Set Alon

Goshen-Gottstein,2018-08-08 This set includes all six volumes of Interreligious Reflections ABOUT VOLUME ONE Friendship is an outcome of as well as a condition for advancing interfaith relations However for friendship to advance there must be legitimation from within and a theory of how interreligious relations can be justified from the resources of different faith traditions Friendship Across Religions explores these very issues seeking to develop a robust theory of interreligious friendship from the resources of each of the participating traditions It also features individual cases as models and precedents for such relations in particular the friendship of Gandhi and Charlie Andrews his closest personal friend Contributors Balwant Singh Dhillon Timothy J Gianotti Alon Goshen Gottstein Maria Reis Habito Ruben L F Habito Ryan McAnnally Linz Stephen Butler Murray Eleanor Nesbitt Anantanand Rambachan Meir Sender Johann M Vento and Miroslav Volf ABOUT VOLUME TWO This book tackles the core problem of how painful historical memories between diverse religious communities continue to impact even present day relations Its operative notion is the healing of memory developed by John Paul II Chapters explore how painful memories of yesteryear can be healed and so address some of the root causes Strategies from six different faith traditions are brought together in what is in some ways a cross religious brainstorming session that identifies tools to improve present day relations At the other pole of the conceptual axis of this book is the notion of hope If memory informs our past hope sets the horizon for our future How does the healing of memory open new horizons for the future And what is the notion of hope in each of our traditions that could lead to a common vision of good Between memory and hope this book seeks to offer a vision of healing that can serve as a resource in contemporary interfaith relations Contributors Rahuldeep Singh Gill Alon Goshen Gottstein Maria Reis Habito Flora A Keshgegian Anantanand Rambachan Meir Sender Muhammad Suheyl Umar and Michael von Br ck

ABOUT VOLUME THREE The essays collected here prepared by a think tank of the Elijah Interfaith Academy explore the challenges associated with sharing wisdom learning teachings messages for good living How should religions go about sharing their wisdom These chapters representing six faith tradition Jewish Christian Muslim Hindu Sikh and Buddhist explore what wisdom means in each of these traditions why and how it should be shared internally and externally and the role of love and forgiveness in sharing This book offers a theory that can enrich ongoing encounters between members of faith traditions by suggesting a tradition based practice of sharing wisdom while preserving the integrity of the teaching and respecting the identity of anyone with whom wisdom is shared Contributors Pal Ahluwalia Timothy Gianotti Alon Goshen Gottstein Sallie B King Anantanand Rambachan Meir Sender Miroslav Volf

ABOUT VOLUME FOUR All the world s religions are experiencing rapid change due to a confluence of social and economic global forces Factors such as the pervasive intrusion of globalizing political and economic developments polarized and morally equivalent presentations seen in the media and the sense of surety demanded in and promised by a culture dominated by science are some of the factors that have placed extreme pressure on all religious traditions This has stimulated unprecedented responses by religious groups ranging from fundamentalism to the syncretistic search for meaning As religion takes on new forms the balance between individual and community is disrupted and reconfigured Religions often lose the capacity to recall their ultimate purpose or lead their adherents toward it This is the situation we call the crisis of the holy It is a confluence of threats challenges and opportunities for all religions This volume explores the contours of pressures changes and transformations and reflects on how all our religions are changing By identifying commonalities across religions as they respond to these pressures The Crisis of the Holy recommends ways religious traditions might cope with these changes and how they might join forces in doing so Contributors Vincent J Cornell Alon Goshen Gottstein Sidney H Griffith Maria Reis Habito B Barry Levy Deepak Sarma Michael von Br ck

ABOUT VOLUME FIVE The chapters collected in this book prepared by a think tank of the Elijah Interfaith Academy address the subject of religious leadership The subject is of broad relevance in the training of religious leaders and in the practice of religious leadership As such it is also germane to religious thought where reflections on religious leadership occupy an important place What does it mean to be a religious leader in today's world To what degree are the challenges that confront religious leadership today the same perennial challenges that have arrested the attention of the faithful and their leaders for generations and to what degree do we encounter challenges today that are unique to our day and age One dimension is surely unique and that is the very ability to explore these issues from an interreligious perspective and to consider challenges opportunities and strategies across religious traditions Studying the theme across six faith traditions Christianity Islam Judaism Sikhism Hinduism and Buddhism The Future of Religious Leadership World Religions in Conversation recognizes the common challenges to present day religious leadership Contributors Awet Andemicael Timothy J Gianotti Alon Goshen Gottstein Anantanand Rambachan Maria Reis Habito Meir Sender Balwant Singh Dhillon Miroslav Volf VOLUME SIX One of the biggest challenges for relations between religions is the view of the religious Other The question touches the roots of our theological views The Religious Other Hostility Hospitality and the Hope of Human Flourishing explores the views of multiple religious traditions on how to regard otherness How does one move from hostility to hospitality How can hospitality be understood not simply as social hospitality but as theological hospitality making room for the religious Other on theological grounds What is our vision for the flourishing of the Other while respecting his otherness This volume is an exercise in constructive interreligious theology By including Abrahamic and non Abrahamic traditions it approaches these challenges from multiple perspectives highlighting commonalities in approach and ways in which one tradition might inspire another Contributors Vincent J Cornell Alon Goshen Gottstein Richard P Hayes Lord Rabbi Jonathan Sacks Deepak Sarma Stephen W Sykes Dharma Master Hsin Tao Ashok Vohra Dark Reflections Kelsey Ketch, 2019-04-15 Being possessed by a vampire sucks Alana Jones's world has been completely turned upside down after being bitten by a vampire's reflection in a cursed mirror Now she's forced to stay in an abandoned Victorian inn on an isolated island off the west coast of Florida where Alana lives a double life one as herself and one as a vicious murderer Over the past year she has spilt and drunk the blood of sixteen victims The guilt of their deaths slowly eating away her sanity Sixteen dead However things become even more complicated when Alana finds Cole a surfer she felt a connection with the moment they met on the mainland locked up in the island's shed Knowing his death is inevitable she attempts to distance herself from him continually reminding herself of the monster residing underneath her skin Unfortunately it's a small island and the more she interacts with Cole the more her feelings grow for him Eventually she has to make a decision Either accept his fate or find a way to expel the vampire's spirit from within herself before she murders him as well Reflections on Romans Dr. Randy L. James, 2021-11-15 Out of the Covid 19 Pandemic something meaningful emerged Beginning at a time when people were locked in their homes while the schools businesses and most of society were under quarantine a desire emerged to do something that would encourage people who were alone This book began as a daily audible devotional message made possible by an email link to friends and family around the world hoping to provide some light during a dark time Though the virus and its variants are still with us and have taken quite a toll on the nations of the world there is hope for a day when this particular sickness will be behind us But even if it lingers or should another such crisis arise we always have the Word of God to give us comfort and provide grace to face whatever challenges may come our way Reflections on Romans will hopefully be a tool that will aid those who continue to look for direction for their lives and a connection to their God amid such times Practical Reflections for Every Day Throughout the Year Robert Bowes,1736 Reflections Thomas S. Kane,2021-09-27 Reflections By Thomas S Kane This little book is a book on Christology the presence and meaning of Jesus But it is Christology from below from the perspective of Religious experience his and ours It looks at the historical Jesus his vision his ministry its collapse and his awful death Then it shifts to What does the resurrection mean for Jesus for us for the cosmos The chapter Hints and Guesses tries to look at common human experiences that reveal the presence of the Risen One in our lives and our world Reflections of a Poetic Judge Hon. James J.
