civil rights Black American artists intellectuals and travelers envision literal and figurative flight back to Africa as a means by which to heal the dispossession caused by the slave trade Through ethnographic historical literary and filmic analyses Commander shows the ways that cultural producers such as Octavia Butler Thomas Allen Harris and Saidiya Hartman engage with speculative thought about slavery the spiritual realm and Africa thereby structuring the imaginary that propels future return flights She goes on to examine Black Americans cultural heritage tourism in and migration to Ghana Bahia Brazil and various sites of slavery in the US South to interrogate the ways that a cadre of actors produces Africa and contests master narratives Compellingly these material flights do not always satisfy Black Americans individualistic desires for homecoming and liberation leading Commander to focus on the revolutionary possibilities inherent in psychic speculative returns and to argue for the development of a Pan Africanist stance that works to more effectively address the contemporary resonances of slavery that exist across the Afro Atlantic

Early Years and Late Reflections Clement Carlyon,1858 Psychoanalytic Reflections on Politics Eszter Salgó,2013-11-07 Psychoanalytic Reflections on Politics Fatherlands in mothers hands is a playful exploration of how people s desires fantasies and emotions shape political events and social phenomena It highlights the mythical sources of today's political projects the power of political imagination and the function of symbolism in political thought Eszter Salg argues that the driving force for the formation of political communities is fantasy illusions in a Winnicottian sense phantasies in a Lacanian sense phantoms as described by Nicolas Abraham and Maria Torok and dreams as interpreted by Sándor Ferenczi She introduces the metaphor of the fantastic family as a symbolic representation of political communities both to reflect on people's deeply felt desire to find in public life the resolution love and wholeness of early childhood and to unveil the political elite's readiness to don the mask of the ideal parent The book is divided into two parts The first part of the book explores the theories of Donald Winnicott and Jacques Lacan the matrimony on the stage of politics between the good enough mother and the Symbolic Father which inaugurates the story of democracy's fantastic family The second part presents the fantastic families of selected countries such as Hungary Italy and the world community to explain the proliferation of cosmogony projects and to document the failure of the political elites to offer a satisfactory performance of their maternal and paternal functions Psychoanalytic Reflections on Politics Fatherlands in mothers hands presents a new way of considering the art of politics based on the understanding that people perceive reality through imagination and unconscious fantasy It will be of interest to psychoanalysts and academics from across the disciplines of politics psychology anthropology sociology philosophy literature and art Kafka's Contextuality Alan

Reflections on Paradise, 1989 The Heart of Islam Seyyed Hossein Nasr, 2009-03-17 As the specter of religious extremism has become a fact of life today the temptation is great to allow the evil actions and perspectives of a minority to represent an entire tradition In the case of Islam there has been much recent confusion in the Western world centered on distorted portrayals of its core values Born of ignorance such confusion feeds the very problem at hand In The Heart of Islam one of the great intellectual figures in Islamic history offers a timely presentation of the core spiritual and social values of Islam peace compassion social justice and respect for the other Seizing this unique moment in history to reflect on the essence of his tradition Seyyed Hossein Nasr seeks to open a spiritual and intellectual space for mutual understanding Exploring Islamic values in scripture traditional sources and history he also shows their clear counterparts in the Jewish and Christian traditions revealing the common ground of the Abrahamic faiths Nasr challenges members of the world's civilizations to stop demonizing others while identifying themselves with pure goodness and to turn instead to a deeper understanding of those shared values that can solve the acute problems facing humanity today Muslims must ask themselves what went wrong within their own societies he writes but the West must also pose the same question about itself whether we are Muslims Jews Christians or even secularists whether we live in the Islamic world or in the West we are in need of meaning in our lives of ethical norms to guide our actions of a vision that would allow us to live at peace with each other and with the rest of God's creation Such help he believes lies at the heart of every religion and can lead the followers of the Abrahamic religions Judaism Christianity and Islam as well as other religious and spiritual traditions to a new future of mutual respect and common global purpose The Heart of Islam is a landmark presentation of enduring value that offers hope to humanity and a compelling portrait of the beauty and appeal of the faith of 1.2 billion people
