Women in Africa Toyin Falola, Olajumoke Yacob-Haliso, 2025-05-22 This book introduces readers to the rich and diverse experiences of women across the African continent covering their socio cultural political and economic realities from the precolonial era right up to the modern day In many precolonial African societies women were empowered and considered to be important participants in the social structures and political systems that managed their communities but during the colonial era women were often marginalized Now across the continent women are reasserting their agency This book explores the various ways in which gender has been constructed in different African cultures across history and how this has impacted the lived experiences of women The book encompasses a broad range of topics including history health sexualities gender based violence motherhood education economic activities science and technology religion popular culture politics peacebuilding feminism literature social media and migration Engaging and compelling this book invites us to think again about the changing roles identities and contributions of African women across time and space It is the perfect introduction for any student of gender or African studies as well as for anyone looking for a reader friendly guide to the subject

Ibuanyidanda (complementary Reflection) and Some Basic Philosophical Problems in Africa Today Innocent Asouzu, 2013 This book gives an insightful account of how some fundamental phenomena and mechanisms control human consciousness impacting the way we think will and act The book identifies these phenomena and mechanisms as the mkpuchi anya the super maxim and the inherently tension laden ambivalent character of our experience of reality It re-examines fundamental problems of philosophy from the perspective of ibuanyidanda complementary reflection and how the problems reappear in the way philosophy is conducted in Africa today Series Studies in African Philosophy Vol 8

Media and Identity in Africa John Middleton, Kimani Njogu, 2010-01-04 What is the role of the media in Africa How do they work How do they interact with global media How do they reflect and express local culture Incorporating both African and international perspectives Media and Identity in Africa demonstrates how media outlets are used to perpetuate question or modify the unequal power relations between Africa and the rest of the world Discussions about the construction of old and new social entities which are defined by class gender ethnicity political and economic differences wealth poverty cultural behavior language and religion dominate these new assessments of communications media in Africa This volume addresses the tensions between the global and the local that have inspired creative control and use of traditional and modern forms of media

The Bible in Africa Gerald O. West, Musa W. Dube Shomanah, 2000 Africa has made the Bible its own This comprehensive volume explores the many ways in which this took place Essays by a range of African scholars provide access to resources not readily available outside of the African continent This publication has also been published in paperback please click here for details

Cultural and Heritage Tourism in the Middle East and North Africa Siamak Seyfi, C. Michael Hall, 2020-09-28 This is the first book to provide a comprehensive account of cultural and heritage tourism in the Middle East and North Africa MENA region and the many complexities that heritage sites and tourist attractions face The MENA region has long been regarded as the cradle of Western and Arab civilisation and is the home of many of the world's major religions Because of this the region is rich in heritage sites that serve as major tourist attractions and as icons of national cultural and religious identity However as this book examines heritage in the region is simultaneously highly contested and has even become a target for terrorism creating a situation that brought major challenges for heritage management and sustainable tourism development Many of the region's innumerable cultural sites are threatened in some cases by overuse in others by neglect and in many simply by the pressures of economic development This book is therefore of interest not only to heritage managers and policy makers but those academics who seek to address the delicate balance between tourism development communities and the tourists who visit such sites in a turbulent but highly significant region of the world

Assignments in Africa Per Wästberg, 1986 The History of Geophysics in Southern Africa Johan H de Beer, 2016-01-25 Geophysics is a comparatively young science which only evolved as a distinct discipline during the 19th century However its phenomena like earthquakes tsunamis volcanic eruptions and lightning had been objects of fear curiosity and speculation since ancient times In this book Johan de Beer and his research team reveal that geophysical activity in South Africa can be traced back to as early as 1488 This is a truly astonishing revelation which deserves to be firmly entrenched as part of the country's proud history. The book also discusses the history and formation of South African geophysical institutions that made a huge and seldom acknowledged contribution to the technological development of southern Africa. Petroleum Geoscience of the West Africa Margin T. Sabato Ceraldi, R. A. Hodgkinson, G. Backe, 2017-01-05. The West African margin has enjoyed a rich and varied exploration history, remaining an exciting region for hydrocarbon discovery. Fusion of traditional approaches, imaginative ideas leveraged with modern technologies, is still yielding success. This volume examines the margin from regional to pore scale, from surface processes to deep crustal levels, drawing on input from academia and industry. Truth and Reconciliation in South Africa Lyn S. Graybill, 2002. Graybill, a U of Virginia professor, provides students not only the facts about the South African Truth and Reconciliation Commission but also the broader context in which it operated. She asks whether it led to reconciliation and healing, what criteria were used to decide whether to pardon or punish, whether politics necessitated the compromise, and other questions.
