Reflections On Biblical Histories A Revised Chron:

The Deuteronomistic History and the Book of Chronicles Raymond F. Person, Raymond F. Person (Jr.), 2010 This volume reexamines and reconstructs the relationship between the Deuteronomistic History and the book of Chronicles building on recent developments such as the Persian period dating of the Deuteronomistic History the contribution of oral traditional studies to understanding the production of biblical texts and the reassessment of Standard Biblical Hebrew and Late Biblical Hebrew These new perspectives challenge widely held understandings of the relationship between the two scribal works and strongly suggest that they were competing historiographies during the Persian period that nevertheless descended from a common source This new reconstruction leads to new readings of the literature Bible History Old Testament New Updated Edition Alfred Edersheim, 1994-09-01 In this enduring classic Alfred Edersheim explores the broad sweep of Old Testament history He brings to his work his immense learning and familiarity with Judaism as well as his love for Scripture and his desire for every Christian to know and understand the story of God's redemptive work in history This new edition of Edersheim's classic features the following improvements Entirely reset in a modern and easy to read typeface Complete and unabridged in one volume Arabic numbers replace roman numerals New maps to provide for richer understanding In writing it Bible History Old Testament I have primarily had in view those who teach and those who learn whether in the school or in the family But my scope has also been wider I have wished to furnish what may be useful for reading in the family what indeed may in some measure serve the place of a popular exposition of the sacred history More than this I hope it may likewise prove a book to put in the hands of students to show them what the Bible really teaches Alfred Edersheim A history of the holy Bible, corrected and improved by G. Gleig Thomas Stackhouse, 1817

Empirical Models Challenging Biblical Criticism Raymond F. Person, Robert Rezetko, 2016-09-21 Cutting edge reflections on biblical text formation Empirical models based on ancient Near Eastern literature and variations between different textual traditions have been used to lend credibility to the identification of the sources behind biblical literature and the different editorial layers In this volume empirical models are used to critique the exaggerated results of identifying sources and editorial layers by demonstrating that even though much of ancient literature had such complex literary histories our methods are often inadequate for the task of precisely identifying sources and editorial layers The contributors are Maxine L Grossman B n dicte Lemmelijn Alan Lenzi Sara J Milstein Raymond F Person Jr Robert Rezetko Stefan Schorch Julio Treballe Barrera Ian Young and Joseph A Weeks Features Evidence that many ancient texts are composite texts with complex literary histories Ten essays and an introduction cover texts from Mesopotamia the Hebrew Bible the New Testament and the Dead Sea Scrolls Reflection and Refraction Robert Rezetko, Timothy Henry Lim, W. Brian Aucker, 2007 This volume of thirty articles covering a wide range of subjects related to Old Testament study is written by colleagues friends and students of A Graeme Auld to honour the occasion of his sixty fifth birthday The Liturgical Environment, Fourth Edition,

Thomas STACKHOUSE (Vicar of Beenham.), 1869 The Formation of the Hebrew Bible David M. Carr, 2011-10-12 In The Formation of the Hebrew Bible David Carr rethinks both the methods and historical orientation points for research into the growth of the Hebrew Bible into its present form Building on his prior work Writing on the Tablet of the Heart Oxford 2005 he explores both the possibilities and limits of reconstruction of pre stages of the Bible The method he advocates is a methodologically modest investigation of those pre stages utilizing criteria and models derived from his survey of documented examples of textual revision in the Ancient Near East The result is a new picture of the formation of the Hebrew Bible with insights on the initial emergence of Hebrew literary textuality the development of the first Hexateuch and the final formation of the Hebrew Bible Where some have advocated dating the bulk of the Hebrew Bible in a single period whether relatively early Neo Assyrian or late Persian or Hellenistic Carr uncovers specific evidence that the Hebrew Bible contains texts dating across Israelite history even the early pre exilic period 10th 9th centuries He traces the impact of Neo Assyrian imperialism on eighth and seventh century Israelite textuality He uses studies of collective trauma to identify marks of the reshaping and collection of traditions in response to the destruction of Jerusalem and Babylonian exile He develops a picture of varied Priestly reshaping of narrative and prophetic traditions in the Second Temple period including the move toward eschatological and apocalyptic themes and genres And he uses manuscript evidence from Qumran and the Septuagint to find clues to the final literary shaping of the proto Masoretic text likely under the Hasmonean
