Researching Identity and Interculturality Fred Dervin, Karen Risager, 2014-09-19 This volume focuses on advances in research methodology in an interdisciplinary field framed by discourses of identity and interculturality It includes a range of qualitative studies studies of interaction narrative studies conversation analysis ethnographic studies postcolonial studies and critical discourse studies and emphasizes the role of discourse and power in all studies of identity and interculturality The volume particularly focuses on critical reflexivity in every stage of research including reflections on theoretical concepts such as identity and interculturality and their relationship with methodology and analytical practice reflections on researcher identity and subjectivity reflections on local and global contexts of research and reflections on language choice and linguacultural aspects of data generation analysis and communication

Meta-Ethnographic Synthesis in Education Michalis Kakos, Bettina Fritzsche, 2020-04-22 Calls for deparochialization of educational research Lingard 2006 have directed educational ethnography from the conventional research designs and from the study of single sites and local situations to the study of the circulation of cultural meanings objects and identities in diffuse time spaces Marcus 1995 96 In response to this call and following the already established tradition of use of meta ethnography in health studies this volume explores the potentials of this method Noblit Hare 1988 to unpick the interconnectedness of different educational sites which have been and are being studied ethnographically Besides metaethnographic analyses may also offer a credible response to the lessening of opportunities for original educational ethnographic research at times of limited resources The volume examines the forms of translocal and transtemporal ethnographic synthesis currently in use by educational ethnographers as well as the challenges and the possibilities that the method offers It also addresses and attempts to respond to the question if meta ethnography might be a means to sharpen ethnographers sensitivity for each other s work and achievements in the past This book was originally published as a special issue of Ethnography and Education The Social Science Encyclopedia Adam Kuper,2004-10-14 The Social Science Encyclopedia first published in 1985 to acclaim from social scientists librarians and students was thoroughly revised in 1996 when reviewers began to describe it as a classic This third edition has been radically recast Over half the entries are new or have been entirely rewritten and most of the balance have been substantially revised Written by an international team of contributors the Encyclopedia offers a global perspective on key issues within the social sciences Some 500 entries cover a variety of enduring and newly vital areas of study and research methods Experts review theoretical debates from neo evolutionism and rational choice theory to poststructuralism and address the great questions that cut across the social sciences What is the influence of genes on behaviour What is the nature of consciousness and cognition What are the causes of poverty and wealth What are the roots of conflict wars revolutions and genocidal violence This authoritative reference work is aimed at anyone with a serious interest in contemporary academic thinking about the individual in society

Authoring the Dialogic Self Gergana Vitanova,2010-07-29 This book offers a truly interdisciplinary perspective on key socio cultural aspects of second language learning Building on Bakhtin s philosophy of language and the self it examines the complex intersections among gender culture and agency in the everyday discursive practices of immigrants Bakhtin s dialogic framework still remains on the periphery of second language acquisition research The book embraces not only Bakhtin s well known notion of dialogue but also his core concepts of responsibility and ethics in the analysis of immigrants narrative samples The significance of narratives is underscored throughout the book and a dialogic discourse centered approach to narrative as a genre is suggested Authoring the Dialogical Self targets a range of disciplines Scholars in applied linguistics narrative studies cultural psychology and communication studies will find the discussed concepts relevant The rich data samples and detailed analysis make the book appropriate for graduate courses in TESOL language and identity or language and gender Methodological Innovations in Research and Academic Writing Zimmerman, Aaron Samuel,2021-10-08 Innovative methodological approaches are vital for experienced researchers and early career researchers alike to conduct research In order to provide them with the best possible resources the methodologies must be comprehensive and describe the data sources approaches to data collection and approaches to data analysis that are typically employed within the given methodological approach Methodological Innovations in Research and Academic Writing serves as a resource for graduate students and higher education faculty and presents a number of methodological innovations in research as well as applied examples of these methodologies in practice The chapters focus on the application of methodological approaches through the presentation of real world examples and descriptions of the epistemological foundations of the given methodologies so that researchers can fully articulate and justify their methodological choices in the context of their research design It is a crucial guide for graduate students who are designing and writing their doctoral dissertations as it introduces them to the best practices related to rigorous research design and academic writing This book is ideal for graduate students higher education faculty researchers and academicians Social Research Sotirios Sarantakos,2017-09-16 From question development and research design to data collection and statistical analysis this text guides the reader through every aspect of social research Encouraging a critical approach in each chapter this 4th edition includes enhanced coverage of internet sampling mixed methods conversation analysis and feminist research

Vernacular Religion Deborah Dash Moore,2022-12-06 Finalist Award for Excellence in the Study of Religion Analytical Descriptive Studies given by the American Academy of Religion A comprehensive collection of the pioneering work of Leonard Norman Primiano one of the preeminent scholars in religious studies In 1995 Leonard Norman Primiano introduced the idea of vernacular religion He coined this term to overcome the denigration implied in the concept of folk religion or popular religion which was juxtaposed to elite religion This two tiered model suggested that religion existed somewhere in a pure form and that the folk version transforms it Instead Primiano urged scholars to adopt an inductive approach to the study of religion and to pay attention to experiential aspects of belief systems ultimately redressing a heritage of scholarly misinterpretation Here for the first time Leonard Norman Primiano s pioneering works have been collected into one volume providing a foundational look at one of the preeminent scholars of twentieth century religious studies Vernacular Religion makes visible the dimensions of vernacular religion in North America exemplifying the richness of its ability to explain key facets of American society including especially thorny issues around race and sexuality The volume also demonstrates a method of abiding engagement the creation of ongoing relationships with those who are studied and how the relationship between scholars and the communities they study inform an ethics of critical commitment what Primiano calls an ethnography of collaboration and reciprocity This posthumous collection edited by Deborah Dash Moore brings together key studies in vernacular religion that explore its expression among such varied groups as Catholics LGBTQ Christians and the followers of Father Divine Vernacular Religion models empathetic ethnographic engagement that embraces American religion in all its rich diversity illuminating Primiano s enduring legacy Visual Research Methods in the Social Sciences Stephen Spencer,2022-09-23 Visual Research Methods in the Social Sciences Awakening Visions is an indispensable resource for students researchers and teachers seeking to use visual sources in their research and understand how images work This fully updated edition adds questions and activities for studies and many new images and models as well as additional exploration of social and theoretical contexts and examples of current visual and multimodal research Due to the proliferation of image centric social media and the growing potential for fake news being able to critically assess media and other visual messages is more important than ever For researchers embarking on visual research this book offers useful practical guidance and real world examples from seasoned researchers exploring cultures as varied as religious cults in Venezuela the Beer Can Regatta in Darwin Mapuche Indians in Chile and graffiti artists in Sheffield It offers an integrated approach to visual research building compelling case studies using a wide range of visual forms including archive images media samples maps objects video photographs and drawings alongside traditional qualitative approaches Examples of the visual construction of place representations of social identities and different approaches to analysis are explored in the first section of the book whilst the essays in the second section highlight the creativity and innovation of four leading visual researchers This new edition will prove valuable for both experienced visual researchers and those embarking on visual research in the social sciences for the first time

Being and Becoming a Speaker of Japanese Andrea Simon-Maeda,2011 In this postmodernist addition to diary studies in SLA and applied linguistics an autoethnographic approach is used to highlight the mutually constitutive relationship of language acquisition sociocultural contexts and L2 identities The personalized account of the author s Japanese as a second language development is skilfully interwoven with ethnographic details and introspective commentary

International Students in Transnational Spaces Xi Wu,2023-08-11 Xi Wu examines how national and transnational forces and discursive logic mediate international secondary school students educational routes and life trajectories Drawing upon an ethnographic research program involving Chinese students in a Canadian international secondary school Wu employs Ong s notion of transnational cultural logics to examine students lives and how they flexibly and not so flexibly engaged in their learning and self making in their transnational spaces The book provides a comprehensive understanding of international students as agentic and socially regulated subjects in their transnational routes These insights contribute to advancing curriculum and program improvements Furthermore Wu applies theoretical notions of transnationalism and global and transnational cultural logics to the examination of specific phenomenon and analyzes how cultural logics stemming from families nations and societies govern subjectivities in their actions and aspirations This insightful book will be of interest to a wide range of education stakeholders as well as scholars and researchers in comparative and international education
