So, 2020-03-23 Prosperity signifies success in economic performance Economic performance always takes place in a spatial context And institutions matter in economic performance These three interwoven themes underlie this inquiry into the regional economy of southern Fukien province during the Sung and Yuan dynasties when the area was one of the most prosperous regions in China Through a meticulous reading of the sources the author seeks to understand the meaning of prosperity in the premodern Chinese context and argues that we have to understand economic performance as a process occurring in space and influenced by institutions which affect economic actors particularly through the means of transaction costs From Cotton Mill to Business Empire Elisabeth Köll, 2020-08-25 The demise of state owned enterprises the transformation of collectives into shareholding cooperatives and the creation of investment opportunities through stock markets indicate China s movement from a socialist state controlled economy toward a socialist market economy Yet contrary to high expectations that China s new enterprises will become like corporations in capitalist countries management often remains under the control of the onetime bureaucrats who ran the socialist enterprises The concepts definitions and interpretations of property rights corporate structures and business practices in contemporary China have historical institutional and cultural roots In tracing the development under founder Zhang Jian 1853 1926 and his successors of the Dasheng Cotton Mill in Nantong into a business group encompassing among other concerns cotton flour and oil mills land development companies and shipping firms the author documents the growth of regional enterprises as local business empires from the 1890s until the foundation of the People s Republic in 1949 She focuses on the legal and managerial evolution of limited liability firms in China particularly issues of control and accountability the introduction and management of industrial work in the countryside and the integration and interdependency of local national and international markets in Republican China Unfinished Business Haruo Iguchi, 2020-03-23 Ayukawa Yoshisuke 1880 1967 was the founder of the Nissan conglomerate and the leader of the Manchuria Industrial Development Corporation one of the linchpins of Imperial Japan s efforts to economically exploit its overseas dependencies Despite his close association with the Japanese government from the 1920s to the 1950s Ayukawa was a proponent of free trade and global economic interdependence He sought to lessen state control of Japan s economy by trying to attract foreign especially American capital and technology in the years surrounding World War II In the postwar era in particular Ayukawa actively pushed the growth of small and medium sized firms yet his efforts were ultimately unsuccessful In Unfinished Business through exploring the reasons for Ayukawa s failure Haruo Iguchi illuminates many of the economic problems of today s Japan Emotions at Work Aviad E. Raz,2020-03-23 Our work life is filled with emotions How we feel on the job what we say we feel and what feelings we display all these are important aspects of organizational behavior and workplace culture Rather than focusing on the psychology of personal emotions at work however this study concentrates on emotions as role requirements on workplace emotions that combine the private with the public the personal with the social and the authentic with the masked In this cross cultural study of emotion management the author argues that even though the goals of normative control in factories offices and shops may be similar across cultures organizational structure and the surrounding culture affect how that control is discussed and conceived Writing Margins Terry Kawashima,2020-10-26 In texts from the mid Heian to the early Kamakura periods certain figures appear to be marginal or removed from centers of power But why do we see these figures in this way This study first seeks to answer this question by examining the details of the marginalizing discourse found in these texts Who is portraying whom as marginal For what reason Is the discourse consistent The author next considers these texts in terms of the predilection of modern scholarship both Japanese and Western to label certain figures marginal She then poses the question Is this predilection a helpful tool or does it inscribe modern biases and misconceptions onto these texts Detective Fiction and the Rise of the Japanese Novel, 1880-1930 Satoru Saito,2020-03-17 In Detective Fiction and the Rise of the Japanese Novel Satoru Saito sheds light on the deep structural and conceptual similarities between detective fiction and the novel in prewar Japan Arguing that the interactions between the two genres were not marginal occurrences but instead critical moments of literary engagement Saito demonstrates how detective fiction provided Japanese authors with the necessary frameworks through which to examine and critique the nature and implications of Japan s literary formations and its modernizing society Through a series of close readings of literary texts by canonical writers of Japanese literature and detective fiction including Tsubouchi Shoyo Natsume Soseki Shimazaki Toson Sato Haruo Kuroiwa Ruiko and Edogawa Ranpo Saito explores how the detective story functioned to mediate the tenuous relationships between literature and society as well as between subject and authority that made literary texts significant as political acts By foregrounding the often implicit and contradictory strategies of literary texts choice of narrative forms symbolic mappings and intertextual evocations among others this study examines in detail the intricate interactions between detective fiction and the novel that shaped the development of modern Japanese literature Experimental Arts in Postwar Japan Miryam Sas,2020-03-17 In the years of rapid economic growth following the protest movements of the 1960s artists and intellectuals in Japan searched for a means of direct impact on the whirlwind of historical and cultural transformations of their time Yet while the artists often called for such direct encounter their works complicate this ideal with practices of interruption self reflexive mimesis and temporal discontinuity In an era known for idealism and activism some of the most cherished ideals intimacy between subjects authenticity a sense of home are limitlessly desired yet always just out of reach In this book Miryam Sas explores the theoretical and cultural implications of experimental arts in a range of media Casting light on important moments in the arts from the 1960s to the early 1980s this study focuses first on underground post shingeki theater and then on related works of experimental film and video buto dance and photography Emphasizing the complex and sophisticated theoretical grounding of these artists through their works practices and writings this book also locates Japanese experimental arts in an extensive sustained dialogue with key issues of contemporary critical theory

Tears of Longing Christine Yano,2002-07-01 Enka a sentimental ballad genre epitomizes for many the nihonjin no kokoro heart soul of Japanese To older members of the Japanese public who constitute enka s primary audience this music of parted lovers long unseen rural hometowns and self sacrificing mothers evokes a direct connection to the traditional roots of Japaneseness Overlooked in this emotional invocation of the past however are the powerful commercial forces that since the 1970s have shaped the consumption of enka and its version of national identity Informed by theories of nostalgia collective memory cultural nationalism and gender this book draws on the author s extensive fieldwork in probing the practice of identity making and the processes at work when Japan becomes Japan

The Appropriation of Cultural Capital Milena Doleželová-Velingerová,Oldřich Král,Graham Sanders,2020-03-23 For much of the twentieth century the May Fourth movement of 1919 was seen as the foundational moment of modernity in China Recent examinations of literary and cultural modernity in China have however led to a questioning of this view By approaching May Fourth from novel perspectives the authors of the eight studies in this volume seek to contribute to the ongoing critique of the movement The essays are centered on the intellectual and cultural historical motivations and practices behind May Fourth discourse and highlight issues such as strategies of discourse formation scholarly methodologies rhetorical dispositions the manipulation of historical sources and the construction of modernity by means of the reification of China s literary past

Recontextualizing Texts Atsuko Sakaki,2020-03-23 Offering the first systematic examination of five modern Japanese fictional narratives all of them available in English translations Atsuko Sakaki explores Natsume S seki s Kokoro and The Three Cornered World Ibuse Masuji s Black Rain Mori gai s Wild Geese and Tanizaki Jun ichir s Quicksand Her close reading of each text reveals a hitherto unexplored area of communication between narrator and audience as well as between implied author and implied reader By using this approach the author situates each of these works not in its historical cultural or economic contexts but in the situation the text itself produces

On Sacred Grounds Thomas A. Wilson,2020-03-23 The sacred landscape of imperial China was dotted with Buddhist monasteries Daoist temples shrines to local deities and the altars of the mandarinate Prominent among the official shrines were the temples in every capital throughout the empire devoted to the veneration of Confucius Twice a year members of the educated elite and officials in each area gathered to offer sacrifices to

Confucius his disciples and the major scholars of the Confucian tradition The worship of Confucius is one of the least understood aspects of Confucianism even though the temple and the cult were highly visible signs of Confucianism's existence in imperial China To many modern observers of traditional China the temple cult is difficult to reconcile with the image of Confucianism as an ethical humanistic rational philosophy The nine essays in this book are an attempt to recover the meaning and significance of the religious side of Confucianism Among other subjects the authors analyze the social cultural and political meaning attached to the cult its history the legends images and rituals associated with the worship of Confucius the power of the descendants of Confucius the main temple in the birthplace of Confucius and the contemporary fate of temples to Confucius A Time of Crisis Kerry Smith,2020-05-11 This study of Japan's transformation by the economic crises of the 1930s focuses on efforts to overcome the effects of the Great Depression in rural areas particularly the activities of local activists and policymakers in Tokyo The reactions of inhabitants of rural areas to the depression shed new light on how average Japanese responded to the problems of modernization and how they re created the countryside

China During the Great Depression Tomoko Shiroyama,2020-03-23 The Great Depression was a global phenomenon every economy linked to international financial and commodity markets suffered The aim of this book is not merely to show that China could not escape the consequences of drastic declines in financial flows and trade but also to offer a new perspective for understanding modern Chinese history The Great Depression was a watershed in modern China China was the only country on the silver standard in an international monetary system dominated by the gold standard Fluctuations in international silver prices undermined China's monetary system and destabilized its economy In response to severe deflation the state shifted its position toward the market from laissez faire to committed intervention Establishing a new monetary system with a different foreign exchange standard required deliberate government management ultimately the process of economic recovery and monetary change politicized the entire Chinese economy By analyzing the impact of the slump and the process of recovery this book examines the transformation of state market relations in light of the linkages between the Chinese and the world economy Metamorphosis of the Private Sphere Xiaoshan Yang,2020-05-11 The Chinese garden has been explored from a variety of angles Much has been written about its structural features as well as its cosmological religious philosophical moral aesthetic and economic underpinnings This book deals with the poetic configurations of the private garden in cities from the ninth to the eleventh century in relation to the development of the private sphere in Chinese literati culture It focuses on the ways in which the new values and rhetoric associated with gardens and the objects found in them helped shape the processes of self cultivation and self imaging among the literati as they searched for alternatives to conventional values at a time when traditional political moral and aesthetic norms were increasingly judged inapplicable or inadequate The garden was also an artifact and a locus for material culture and social competition Focusing on a series of anecdotes about private transactions involving objects in gardens the author dissects the intricate nexus between the exchange of poetry and the poetry of exchange In tracing the development of the private urban garden through the writings of Bai Juyi Su Shi Sima Guang and their contemporaries the author argues that this private space figured increasingly as a place of disengagement for those out of political power and hence was increasingly invaded by political forces The Book of Korean Shijo Kevin O'Rourke,2020-03-23 The Korean genre known as shijo is short song lyrics Originally meant to be sung rather than recited these short poems are light personal and very often conversational The language is simple direct and devoid of elaboration or ornamentation The shijo poet gives a firsthand account of his personal experience of life and emotion the rise and fall of dynasties friendship love parting the pleasures of wine the beauty and transience of life the inexorable advance of old age In this anthology of translations of 612 shijo Kevin O Rourke introduces the English reader to this venerable and witty style of verse The anthology covers the entire range of shijo production from the tenth century to the modern era China Made Karl Gerth,2020-05-11 Chinese people should consume Chinese products This slogan was the catchphrase of a movement in early twentieth century China that sought to link consumption and nationalism by instilling a concept of China as a modern nation with its own national products From fashions in clothing to food additives from museums to department stores from product fairs to advertising this movement influenced all aspects of China s burgeoning consumer culture Anti imperialist boycotts commemorations of national humiliations exhibitions of Chinese products the vilification of treasonous consumers and the promotion of Chinese captains of industry helped enforce nationalistic consumption and spread the message patriotic Chinese bought goods made of Chinese materials by Chinese workers in factories owned and run by Chinese In China Made Karl Gerth argues that two key forces shaping the modern world nationalism and consumerism developed in tandem in China Early in the twentieth century nationalism branded every commodity as either Chinese or foreign and consumer culture became the place where the notion of nationality was articulated institutionalized and practiced Based on Chinese Japanese and English language archives magazines newspapers and books this first exploration of the historical ties between nationalism and consumerism reinterprets fundamental aspects of modern Chinese history and suggests ways of discerning such ties in all modern nations Emperor Huizong and Late Northern Song China Patricia Buckley Ebrey,Maggie Bickford,2020-05-11 Huizong was an exceptional emperor who lived through momentous times A man of many talents he wrote poetry and created his own distinctive calligraphy style collected paintings calligraphies and antiquities on a large scale promoted Daoism and involved himself in the training of court artists the layout of gardens and reforms of music and medicine The quarter century when Huizong ruled is just as fascinating The greatly enlarged scholar official class had come into its own but was deeply divided by factional strife The long struggle between the Chinese state and its northern neighbors entered a new phase when Song proved unable to defend itself against the newly emergent Jurchen state of Jin Huizong and thousands of members of his family and court were taken captive and the Song dynasty had to recreate itself in the South Prayer and Play in Late Tokugawa Japan Nam-lin Hur,2020-03-23

The unique amalgam of prayer and play at the Sens ji temple in Edo is often cited as proof of the degenerate Buddhism of the Tokugawa period This investigation of the economy and cultural politics of Sens ji however shows that its culture of prayer and play reflected changes taking place in Tokugawa Japan particularly in the city of Edo Hur s reappraisal of prayer and play and their inherent connectedness provides a cultural critique of conventional scholarship on Tokugawa religion and shows how Edo commoners incorporated cultural politics into their daily lives through the pursuit of prayer and play

Modernity with a Cold War Face Xiaojue Wang, 2020-05-11 The year 1949 witnessed China divided into multiple political and cultural entities How did this momentous shift affect Chinese literary topography Modernity with a Cold War Face examines the competing converging and conflicting modes of envisioning a modern nation in mid twentieth century Chinese literature Bridging the 1949 divide in both literary historical periodization and political demarcation Xiaojue Wang proposes a new framework to consider Chinese literature beyond national boundaries as something arising out of the larger global geopolitical and cultural conflict of the Cold War Examining a body of heretofore understudied literary and cultural production in mainland China Taiwan Hong Kong and overseas during a crucial period after World War II Wang traces how Chinese writers collected artistic fragments blended feminist and socialist agendas constructed ambivalent stances toward colonial modernity and an imaginary homeland translated foreign literature to shape a new Chinese subjectivity and revisited the classics for a new time Reflecting historical reality in fictional terms their work forged a path toward multiple modernities as they created alternative ways of connection communication and articulation to uncover and undermine Cold War dichotomous antagonism
