The Reform of the Liturgy, 1948-1975 Annibale Bugnini (Abp. of Diocletiana.),1990      The Reform of the Liturgy, 1948-1975 Annibale Bugnini,1990      Sacred Music and Liturgical Reform Rev. Anthony Ruff, O.S.B.,2022-01-07 Anthony Ruff O S B has written a brilliant comprehensive well researched book about the treasures of the Church s musical tradition and about the transformations brought about by liturgical reform The liturgy constitution Sacrosanctum Concilium stated many revolutionary principles of liturgical reform Regarding liturgical music the Council s decrees mandated on the one hand the preservation of the inherited treasury of sacred music and on the other hand advocated adaptation and expansion of this treasury to meet the changed requirements of the reformed liturgy In clear precise language he retrieves the Council s neglected teachings on the preservation of the inherited music treasury He clearly shows that this task is not at odds with good pastoral practice but is rather an integral part of it The book proposes an alternate hermeneutic for understanding the Second Vatican Council s teachings on worship music      Understanding Sacramental Healing John C. Kasza,2007

A Companion to the Eucharist in the Reformation, 2013-10-24 By the end of the fifteenth century the Eucharist had come to encompass theology liturgy art architecture and music In the sixteenth century each of these dimensions was questioned challenged rethought as western European Christians divided over their central act of worship This volume offers an introduction to early modern thinking on the Eucharist as theology as Christology as a moment of human and divine communion as that which the faithful do as taking place and as visible and audible The scholars gathered in this volume speak from a range of disciplines liturgics history history of art history of theology philosophy musicology and literary theory The volume thus also brings different methods and approaches as well as confessional orientations to a consideration of the Eucharist in the Reformation Contributors include Gary Macy Volker Leppin Carrie Euler Nicholas Thompson Nicholas Wolterstorff John D Rempel James F Turrell Robert J Daly Isabelle Brian Thomas Schattauer Raymond A Mentzer Michele Zelinsky Hanson Jaime Lara Andrew Spicer Achim Timmermann Birgit Ulrike M nch Andreas Gormans Alexander J Fisher Regina M Schwartz and Christopher Wild

A Sociological History of Christian Worship Martin D. Stringer, 2005-07-14 In this book the 2000 year history of Christian worship is viewed from a sociological perspective Martin Stringer develops the idea of discourse as a way of understanding the place of Christian worship within its many and diverse social contexts Beginning with the Biblical material the author provides a broad survey of changes over 2000 years of the Christian church together with a series of case studies that highlight particular elements of the worship or specific theoretical applications Stringer does not simply examine the mainstream traditions of Christian worship in Europe and Byzantium but also gives space to lesser known traditions in Armenia India Ethiopia and elsewhere Offering a contribution to the ongoing debate that breaks away from a purely textual or theological study of Christian worship this book provides a greater understanding of the place of worship in its social and cultural context

Paul VI Yves Chiron, 2022-05-13 Following after brilliant authoritarian Pope Pius XII and good humored Pope John XXIII Pope Paul VI seemed hesitant anxious even tormented Yet the impact of his fifteen year long papacy was colossal not a single aspect of Church life was left untouched in the whirlwind of change unleashed by the Ecumenical Council he guided and sought to implement Who was this man Giovanni Battista Montini 1897 1978 who so altered the face the voice the bearing of Catholicism Versatile historian Yves Chiron is equal to the challenge of portraying this multifaceted and in many ways enigmatic figure who was ordained a priest without passing through the seminary and never held a simple parish assignment Taking advantage of hitherto untapped archival sources and the testimony of numerous witnesses Chiron builds up a faithful portrait of a figure controversial at every stage of his career from his anti fascist activities as university chaplain to his work in the diplomatic corps which would create tensions with Pius XII from his heavy years as Archbishop of Milan to his Janus like role at the Second Vatican Council when his interventions alternately delighted and devastated both progressives and conservatives from his intimate involvement in the recasting of the Roman Catholic liturgy to his adamant rejection of contraception which left him abandoned by bishops and theologians who held the world's willing ear Paul VI emerges as a pope torn between conflicting interpretations of aggiornamento and overwhelmed by crises in the Church as he tried to reconcile fundamental principles of dogma with pressures from modernist reformers

The Eucharist as Offering of Firstfruits Lawrence Francis Ligoeki, 2017-06-04 One of the difficulties for Protestant Evangelical Pentecostal and other Christians is how to understand the Eucharist as sacrifice offering and oblation A return to ancient Jewish and Christian sources has uncovered the category of the offering of firstfruits This is found in a lesser degree among Second Temple Judaism and to a greater degree in early Christian literature beginning with the New Testament itself This has brought renewed interest in understanding the Eucharist not only in the context of the Feast of Passover but also in light of the Feast of Pentecost and the offering of firstfruits and within the context of the Zebach t d that is the sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving This has strong implications for a theological liturgical spiritual and practical awakening in understanding the Eucharist as Sacrifice In the Eucharist the Church offers the firstfruits of creation Christ and also herself to the Father in the Holy Spirit Each member is called to actively participate in the Eucharistic sacrifice through which they themselves become a Holy and Living sacrifice for the life of the world This has implications for a renewed Eucharistic spirituality and worship the New Evangelization and new works of mercy

Handbook for Liturgical Studies, Volume V Anscar J. Chupungco, 2016-03-24 The final volume in the Handbook for Liturgical Studies series Volume V Liturgical Time and Space contains the concluding material for an integral study of the liturgy It opens with a preliminary notion of time and space before discussing in detail three types of liturgical celebrations on which time and space have a direct and particular bearing The first of these is the Liturgy of the Hours This topic is developed in the light of the early Christian tradition until the fourth century and its subsequent forms in both East and West The second is the Liturgical Year traditionally called the anni circulas The development of the Liturgical Year during the first four centuries is reviewed This is followed by a detailed study of the Byzantine Roman and non Roman Western tradition It concludes with the theology and spirituality of the Liturgical Year wherein the mystery of Christ as a saving event is made present in time so that the faithful may lay hold of it through the Word and the sacraments The theology of liturgical space is drawn from the mutual interaction between the assembled community which gives meaning to the place of assembly and the place itself which upholds and signifies community Articles and their contributors in Part I Liturgy of the Hours are Liturgy of the Hours in the First Four Centuries by Ruben Leikam OSB Liturgy of the Hours in the East by Robert Taft SJ Liturgy of the Hours in the Roman Rite by Ruben Leikam OSB Liturgy of the Hours in the Non Roman West by Ruben Leikam OSB and Theology of the Liturgy of the Hours by Robert Taft SJ Articles and their contributors in Part II The Liturgical Year are The Liturgical Year in the East by Matias Auge CMF The Liturgical Year in the East by Elena Velkova Velkovska The Liturgical Year in the Roman Rite by Matias Auge CMF The Liturgical Year in the Non Roman West by Gabriel Ramis The Cult of Mary

Pierce, Michael Downey, 1999 Source and Summit     Sacred Treasure Joseph Peter Swain, 2012 In the discussions and debates surrounding liturgical music of the past fifty years music theorists critics and historians have contributed little and their counsel has rarely been sought Whenever the matter of liturgical music arises most often in parishes but sometimes in episcopal conferences or in the academy or in Vatican documents the nature of the music as music almost never affects the discussion With Sacred Treasure Joseph Swain a distinguished musicologist and accomplished performer attempts to change that He offers a theory for building authentic traditions of liturgical music for Roman Catholic parishes This book is an exercise in pragmatic music criticism By providing a rational basis for evaluating the essential issues Swain seeks to show how a spiritually wholesome stability might supplant the confusion Sacred Treasure shows how the hard facts of music must be taken into account in any holistic conception and any lasting form of liturgical music     Vatican II Matthew L Lamb, Matthew Levering, 2008-04-30 From 1962 to 1965 in perhaps the most important religious event of the twentieth century the Second Vatican Council met to plot a course for the future of the Roman Catholic Church After thousands of speeches resolutions and votes the Council issued sixteen official documents on topics ranging from divine revelation to relations with non Christians In many ways though the real challenges began after the council was over and Catholics began to argue over the interpretation of the documents Many analysts perceived the Council's far reaching changes as breaks with Church tradition and soon this became the dominant bias in the American and other media which lacked the theological background to approach the documents on their own terms In Vatican II Renewal Within Tradition an international team of theologians offers a different reading of the documents from Vatican II The Council was indeed putting forth a vision for the future of the Church but that vision was grounded in two millennia of tradition Taken together these essays demonstrate that Vatican II's documents are a development from an established antecedent in the Roman Catholic Church Each chapter contextualizes Vatican II teachings within that rich tradition The resulting book is an indispensable and accessible companion to the Council's developments one that focuses on theology and transcends the mass media storyline of liberal versus conservative     Liturgical Inculturation Anscar J. Chupungco, 1992 Perhaps nothing is as important to the future of the Church as continuing to make the liturgy meaningful to those who celebrate it Inculturation the dynamic translation of the typical editions into the cultures of local Churches is the key Inculturation as a branch of liturgical study has a dauntingly wide scope It covers the areas of history and theology liturgical and cultural principles process and methods sacraments and sacramentals Liturgy of the Hours liturgical year liturgical music liturgical arts and furnishings and such related topics as popular religiosity and catechesis So where does the average pastor liturgist or student begin With this volume the reader is introduced to the different technical terms expressing the relationship between liturgy and culture indigenization incarnation contextualization adaptation acculturation The subsequent discussion on the question of sacramentals popular religiosity and liturgical catechesis explains how these disparate topics share the same basic concern of inculturation Throughout the book the focus is on method Method encompasses both how one may remain true to the liturgy while also considering what culture offers the liturgy or requires of it The question of how creativity relates to inculturation is also answered For the serious student of the liturgy whether or not you serve a culturally diverse community this work provides foundations principles and methods for creating a liturgy of the people and for the people     Authentic Liturgical Renewal in Contemporary Perspective Uwe Michael Lang, 2017-07-27 The ongoing debates on the present state and the future of the Roman Catholic worship are not confined to specialists but are clearly of interest to a wider public as the responses to the Sacra Liturgia UK conference held in London in July 2016 have shown This volume contains the proceedings of the conference and raises the question of how to bring to fruition the insights and instructions of the Second Vatican Council and its key document on the liturgy Sacrosanctum Concilium in the life of the Church today The initial contribution from Robert Cardinal Sarah Prefect of the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Sacraments calls for a fuller implementation of Sacrosanctum Concilium Following on from this other leading figures and liturgical scholars such as Joris Geldhof David Fagerberg and Alcuin Reid examine Catholic worship from a variety of perspectives including historical pastoral social cultural and artistic themes Taken together these chapters present another crucial step along the route of authentic liturgical renewal in the contemporary world
