Reforming Africa's Institutions Ownership Incentives And Capabilities:

Party Politics and Economic Reform in Africa's Democracies M. Anne Pitcher, 2012-05-07 Argues that the interaction of formal institutions and the quality of democracy explain patterns of private sector development across Africa

Reforming Africa's Institutions Steve Kayizzi-Mugerwa, 2003 There is not a single African country that did not attempt public sector reforms in the 1990s Governments no longer see themselves as sole suppliers of social services frequently opting for partnerships with the private sector Efficiency and choice have entered the language of the planning and implementation units of Africa's line ministries while privatization is no longer the controversial subject it was a decade ago There have also been moves towards more open and democratic governments Reforming Africa's Institutions looks at the extent to which reforms undertaken in Sub-Saharan Africa in recent years have enhanced institutional capacities across the breadth of government To what extent have reforms been internalized and defended by governments The authors also look specifically at the impact of public sector reforms on these economies and pose the question whether ownership can be attained when countries continue to be heavily dependent on external support The volume is presented in three parts The first focuses on the issue of reform ownership on the issues of governance the political economy of reform ownership and the contradictions inherent in using aid as an instrument for enhancing domestic reform ownership Part two examines the nature of incentives in the African civil service and the reforms undertaken in recent years to raise public sector efficiency in Africa The third part discusses issues related to institutional capabilities in Africa and how they have been affected by the reforms undertaken in the 1990s including privatization and movement towards political pluralism

Sub-Saharan Africa's Development Challenges O. Kimanuka, 2009-01-05 The first analysis of the 1994 genocide written by a Rwandan national Kimanuka examines Rwanda's survival from being a failed state looking at how leaders' bold decisions and the commitment of the Rwandan people led to reform programs and economic recovery Wider conversation of Africa's general development challenges are also explored

Developmental State of Africa in Practice Steve Kayizzi-Mugerwa, Charles Leyeka Lufumpa, 2020-12-03 This book is the product of research undertaken at the African Development Bank AfDB on the lessons that the continent of Africa can draw from the role of the state in Asia's rapid economic development in the last 50 years The book applies a cross-national comparative framework to analyse Africa's performance drawing broadly on the developmental states of Asia i.e. Japan China India Vietnam etc with focus on South Korea The book argues that for Africa to replicate Asia's developmental success it may require more than just tweaking the public sector machinery Dedicated institutions and a citizenry capable of demanding accountability from governments must become key ingredients of the development strategy The book also provides insight into the learning experiences of Asia in addressing key national policy challenges i.e. land reform and quality of public administration at the federal and local levels enhancing technical skills boosting capabilities for sciences engineering and mathematics and industrialization

Rana,2019-11-12 Effective governance is one of the key challenges for both developing and developed countries Governments today are increasingly encountering complex and cross cutting issues such as economic and financial volatility internal and external conflicts growing social tensions adverse demographic trends climate change vulnerabilities weak regulatory regimes huge infrastructure and service delivery gaps state and elite capturing and sustaining rule of law Faced with growing criticism of ineffectiveness of state institutions undermining country s economic social and political development because of weakening capacity of public officials to pace up with emerging challenges there is a renewed interest in reforming the governance and reforming the civil service Institutions and Democracy in Africa Nic Cheeseman,2018-02-22 Historically African political institutions such as constitutions legislatures and judiciaries have been seen as weak and vulnerable to manipulation leading some to claim that the continent is institutionless However recent developments including the consolidation of presidential term limits in a number of countries demonstrate that this depiction is no longer tenable By drawing attention to how institutions can shape the practice of politics this book demonstrates that electoral commissions economic regulations and systems of land tenure are vital to our understanding of contemporary Africa A series of cutting edge contributions from leading scholars explain how the rules of the game shape political developments across the continent from Kenya to Nigeria and from Benin to South Africa In chapters that cover bureaucracies constitutions elections political parties the police and more the authors argue that a new research agenda is required if we are to better understand the process of democratisation African Development Report 2005 The African Development Bank,2005-12-22 The African Development Report 2005 is the seventeenth annual survey of economic and social progress in Africa The Report provides comprehensive analysis of the state of the African economy examining development policy issues affecting the economic prospects of the continent The African Development Bank Group is a regional multilateral development finance institution the members of which are all of the 53 countries in Africa and 25 countries from Asia the Middle East Europe North and South America The purpose of the Bank is to further the economic development and social progress of African countries individually and collectively To this end the Bank promotes the investment of public and private capital for development primarily by providing loans and grants for projects and programs that contribute to poverty reduction and broad based sustainable development in Africa The non concessional operations of the Bank are financed from its ordinary capital resources In addition the Bank s soft window affiliates the African Development Fund and the Nigeria Trust Fund provide concessional financing to low income countries that are not able to sustain loans on market terms Privatization and Alternative Public Sector Reform in Sub-Saharan Africa K. Bayliss,B. Fine,2007-11-12 it is increasingly apparent that the privatization experiment in sub Saharan Africa has failed This book shows that the state is set to dominate service delivery for the foreseeable future in much of the region and that the public sector must be considered as a viable policy option for the delivery of water and electricity Towards Africa's Renewal

Jeggan C. Senghor, Nana.K. Poku, 2017-11-22 Africa still finds itself in the clutches of poverty and underdevelopment. The expected benefits from economic restructuring have not been realized and the debt burden continues to weigh heavily on African economies, constraining the possibilities of growth. Problems that have existed since the 1960s remain and links with the global economy continue to increase but fall short of requirements. Against this background, it is not surprising that the vast majority of African states will not meet the Millennium Development Goals. The search for political systems that can deliver development have been categorized by cynics as old wine in old bottles with new stickers. As the dividends from globalization elude Africa in the 21st century, it becomes clear that it is a series of failed states, rogue states and even stateless states. This volume brings together leading researchers and analysts to examine issues and identify policy options which can lead to renewal in Africa. It provides an opportunity to reflect and offers a critical multidisciplinary appraisal of the future challenges facing Africa.

Peace and Conflict in Africa David Francis, 2009-03-15 Nowhere in the world is the demand for peace more prominent and challenging than in Africa. From state collapse and anarchy in Somalia to protracted wars and rampant corruption in the Congo, from bloody civil wars and extreme poverty in Sierra Leone to humanitarian crisis and authoritarianism in Sudan, the continent is the focus of growing political and media attention. This book presents the first comprehensive overview of conflict and peace across the continent. Bringing together a range of leading academics from Africa and beyond, Peace and Conflict in Africa is an ideal introduction to key themes of conflict resolution, peacebuilding, security and development. The book's stress on the importance of indigenous African approaches to creating peace makes it an innovative and exciting intervention in the field.

Politics Peter Ferdinand, Robert Garner, Stephanie Lawson, 2018 An unrivalled combination of exceptional clarity and analysis.

Learning to Compete in African Industry Banji Oyelaran-Oyeyinka, 2017-11-28 This book examines the institutional roots of the persistent differences in economic performance of firms, industries and countries in Africa. It draws attention to the role of institutions in supporting technical change and shows how technological progress is central to competitiveness in a global context. The role of initial conditions such as levels of literacy and natural endowment, the structure of industry and resource endowment are also emphasized. With its focus on how institutions shape systems of innovation, this book makes a unique contribution to the debate about African development.

Foreign Direct Investment Yingqi Wei, V. N. Balasubramanyam, 2004-01-01 This book consists of detailed case studies of foreign direct investment (FDI) in China, India, Ireland, Malaysia, Mexico and Sub-Saharan Africa, providing a critical review of the determinants and impact of FDI on growth and development, employment, technology transfer and trade. The expert contributors examine a range of controversial issues, including the contribution of the relatively large volume of FDI in China to its growth, whether India should fully liberalise its FDI regime and the impact of Mexico's membership of NAFTA on the volume of FDI it has attracted. Malaysia's economic policies, which appear to have attracted relatively large volumes of FDI but failed to generate the hoped-for transmission of technology and skills, are also questioned.

along with the role of corruption in limiting the contribution of FDI to achieving social goals in Sub Saharan Africa The impressive record of the Irish Republic in attracting and harnessing FDI to development objectives is examined closely and provides a detailed analysis of policies likely to promote efficient utilisation of FDI The Millennium Development Goals Fantu Cheru, Colin Bradford Jr., 2013-07-18 This volume provides an up to date and detailed tour d horizon of the exciting diversity of new proposals and mechanisms currently being discussed in order to raise the necessary financial resources to make the achievement of the Millennium Development Goals a reality by 2015 If the MDGs to halve global poverty and significantly improve the conditions of life of the world s poor are to be met on schedule putting in place the requisite funding is an essential component The economists in this volume from WIDER UNDP and other leading institutions have contributed their analyses as part of the Helsinki Process on Globalisation and Democracy a high level multi stakeholder initiative to develop new approaches to global problem solving a global economic agenda and human security Key resource flows examined include ODA foreign direct investment remittances by migrants commodity export prices and new ideas to secure sustainable debt relief including SDRs debt cancellation revaluation of IMF gold reserves debt arbitration and other proposals The statistically rich analyses are presented in the context of the complicated trends in global inequality the incidence of poverty and the impacts of globalisation The editors conclude with a thought provoking set of ideas about the political requirements for effective global economic governance aimed at achieving the MDGs that the world community set itself at the start of the new millennium The empirical data in this volume and survey of key new ideas for resource mobilisation will be invaluable to all those concerned with global economic governance including scholars diplomats NGO lobbyists and students studying development economics ENSO Signal Network Newsletter ,2003 Decentralization in Ethiopia Taye Assefa, Tegegne Gebre-Egziabher, 2007 The 1991 government change in Ethiopia ushered in a centralised system of governance aimed to bring about harmony and cooperation between different groups and to promote local self rule It has proceeded in two phases 1991 2001 centred on creating and powering National Regional Governments termed mid level decentralisation Further powers were devolved in 2001 through the District Level Decentralization Program and Urban Management Profram This volume brings together studies by the Forum for Social Studies and others with the aim of identifying knowledge gaps for further research and to generate debate on the issues in Ethiopia The study is in two parts a literature review seeking to document existing studies and highlight research gaps and field work which involved a rapid assessment of eight weredas and two kifle ketemas in Addis Ababa The other three studies are synopses of master theses submitted to the Institute of Regional and Local Development Studies of Addis Ababa University From Conflict to Recovery in Africa Tony Addison, 2003-02-13 Revitalizing private sectors 4 Transforming states Conclusions For a list of contributions go to the full text area of this record Rethinking Development Challenges for Public Policy K. Wider Angle ,2005 Regressive Leadership and Governance Chizoba "Dr Zee" Ph. D. Madueke,2010-06 At the heart of the litany of Nigeria s public sector problems is a fundamental crisis of governance The current crisis of development in Nigeria can be attributed in part to a history of poor governance characterized by corruption social injustice and political instability Effective leadership and governance are critical to a country s economic and sociopolitical development During the 1950s and 1960s Nigerian public sector was regarded as one of the best in Africa today it is ranked among the worst in the world The factors isolated include ineffective control of corruption lack of rule of law poorly articulated government policies and poor policy implementations The implications for Nigeria have been a regressive leadership poor governance and the lack of social and societal development
