The Future of Asylum in the European Union Flora A.N.J. Goudappel,Helena S. Raulus,2011-08-31 This book is based on a conference on the future of the European asylum policy at Erasmus School of Law in Rotterdam the Netherlands After a challenge set by the Dutch State Secretary for Justice Ms Nebahat Albayrak the contributions to this book focus on human rights aspects of the European asylum policy and the way the EU Member States need to cooperate in the future in order to reach results The authors are scholars policy makers and representatives of NGOs In this way many different aspects of the problems are put forward In the introduction and the conclusion the editors evaluate the results of this broad cooperation Valuable for academics practitioners policymakers and NGO s involved with European asylum policy issues

Transformation of Civil Justice Alan Uzelac,Cornelis Hendrik (Remco) van Rhee,2018-09-03 National civil justice systems are deeply rooted in national legal cultures and traditions However in the past few decades they have been increasingly influenced by integration processes at the regional supra national and international level As a by product of the emergence of economic and political unions and globalisation processes there is pressure to harmonise or even unify the way in which national civil justice systems operate In an attempt to create a genuine area of justice new unified procedures are being developed which operate in parallel with national civil procedures and sometimes even strive to replace them As a reaction to the forces that endeavour to harmonise and unify procedural laws and practices an opposing trend is gaining momentum one that insists on diversity and pluralism of national civil procedures This book focuses on the evolution of procedural reforms in various jurisdictions and the ongoing transformation of national civil justice systems The Caribbean Social Justice Agenda Marlon Anatol, Mark Kirton, Ashaki L. Dore, 2023-04-04 This book is committed to the issues related to social justice in the Caribbean and seeks to increase dialogue among practitioners unions labor activists academics policy makers and other individuals from across the social sciences and humanities It is purposely multidisciplinary in orientation intending to cover issues related to work workers labor and related topics as well as social organizational and institutional aspects of work and industrial relations It aims to set the tone for discourse on a wide range of issues related to the future of work and sustainable Caribbean development social justice industrial relations governance systems social protection social dialogue cooperatives and community empowerment the future of education migration and security among others nationally and regionally This work represents contemporary scholarly contributions from researchers presenting original and innovative research that contribute to the theory practice and public policy dimensions of work migration labor industrial relations and related issues Christianity and the Law of Migration Silas W. Allard, Kristin Heyer, Raj Nadella, 2021-09-05 This collection brings together legal scholars and Christian theologians for an interdisciplinary conversation responding to the challenges of global migration Gathering 14 leading scholars from both law and Christian theology the book covers legal perspectives theological perspectives and key concepts in migration studies In Part 1 scholars of migration law and policy discuss the legal landscape of migration at both the domestic and international level In Part 2 Christian theologians ethicists and biblical scholars draw on the resources of the Christian tradition to think about migration In Part 3 each chapter is co authored by a scholar of law and a scholar of Christian theology who bring their respective resources and perspectives into conversation on key themes within migration studies The work provides a truly interdisciplinary introduction to the topic of migration for those who are new to the subject an opportunity for immigration lawyers and legal scholars to engage Christian theology an opportunity for pastors and Christian theologians to engage law and new insights on key frameworks for scholars who are already committed to the study of migration
