The Regional Distribution of Foreign Manufacturing Investment in the UK Stephen Hill, Max Munday, 2016-07-27
The book considers the determinants of the regional distribution of foreign manufacturing investment in the UK The core theme of the book is that foreign firms coming to the UK seek in their location decision to minimise their costs of production This minimisation of production costs is constrained by the need to ensure that they are adjacent to their key markets whether these be in the UK or wider EC Moody's Manual of Investments: American and Foreign, 1923 Moody's Manual of Investments John Sherman Porter, 1929 American government securities 1928 53 in 5 annual vols v 1 Railroad securities 1952 53 Transportation v 2 Industrial securities v 3 Public utility securities v 4 Government securities 1928 54 v 5 Banks insurance companies investment trusts real estate finance and credit companies 1928 54 Moody's Analyses of Railroad Investments John Sherman Porter, 1927 American government securities 1928 53 in 5 annual vols v 1 Railroad securities 1952 53 Transportation v 2 Industrial securities v 3 Public utility securities v 4 Government securities 1928 54 v 5 Banks insurance companies investment trusts real estate finance and credit companies 1928 54 Moody's Manual of Investments, American and Foreign, 1951 The Geography of Multinationals (RLE International Business) Michael Taylor, Nigel Thrift, 2013-04-02 Through a series of international case studies the nature and the geographical implications of the development of multinational corporations is examined The volume concentrates on the latter Post War period of corporate restructuring and readjustment in response to world wide recession in the mid 1980s The volume is divided into two parts In the first each of the chapters considers a particular aspect of the problem of how multinational corporations have developed In the second part the chapters consider different aspects of the economic and social impacts of these corporations The common theme that links all the papers is their emphasis on careful historical analysis of different forms of spatial organisation and their transformation into other different forms The Geography of Multinationals Michael Taylor, 2012-11-26 Through a series of international case studies the nature and the geographical implications of the development of multinational corporations is examined The volume concentrates on the latter Post War period of corporate restructuring and readjustment in response to world wide recession in the mid 1980s The volume is divided into two parts In the first each of the chapters considers a particular aspect of the problem of how multinational corporations have developed In the second part the chapters consider different aspects of the economic and social impacts of these corporations The common theme that links all the papers is their emphasis on careful historical analysis of different forms of spatial organisation and their transformation into other different forms International Direct Investment, 1984 The Chancellor Offshore Funds Manual, 1999 The offshore funds industry has gone from strength to strength in recent years and shows little sign of slowing in a global investment environment characterized by high levels of liquidity and increasing numbers of high net worth individuals In this growth environment funds managers administrators and investors alike are
