Stephen Alexis Ren Depestre, Ollivier Dany Laferrière and Edwidge Danticat      The Routledge Handbook of Black Canadian Literature Andrea A. Davis, Leslie Sanders, 2024-12-09 The Routledge Handbook of Black Canadian Literature offers a comprehensive overview of the growing and increasingly significant field of Black Canadian literary studies. Including historical and contemporary analysis, this volume is an essential text that maps the field over the almost 200 years of its existence across a range of genres from slave narratives to prose fiction, poetry, theatre, and dub and spoken word. It presents Black Canadian literature as encompassing a diverse set of viewpoints, approaches, and practices touching every aspect of Canadian territory and life and as deeply influencing debates and understandings of Black peoples far beyond its borders. This Handbook employs an interdisciplinary framework that incorporates literary, historical, geographical, and cultural analysis. This book, comprising 32 chapters, is organized into five sections that chart the literature's development into a recognizable canon, trace Black literary geographies across Canada from east to west, delineate the literature's various genres and expressive forms, and honor the writers and thinkers who have influenced the growth of the field. This volume's range of subject and plurality of perspectives provide an excellent resource for teachers, researchers, and students from multiple disciplines, including Canadian studies and literature, Caribbean studies, global Black studies, hemispheric studies, diaspora studies, history, and cultural studies.

On Migration Cornelia Sieber, Alfonso de Toro, 2020-11-17 This volume is based on the section Transnationalities, Transidentities, Hybridities, Diasporization organized by the Ibero American and Francophone Research Centres of the University of Leipzig as part of the First Annual Conference of the Centre for Area Studies at the University of Leipzig. By now, already a decade has passed since our conference section took place, and it is due to various circumstances that this volume has not been published earlier. It carries along, in some sense, its own migration trace. Nevertheless, the questions examined in the contributions have reached even more relevance since then, in both the Old World and the New, due to the various political, social, economic, and ecological crisis around the globe that have led to the increased arrival of refugees to Europe and the harsh discussion about a concrete or intelligent wall to shield the USA from Latin American migrants, among others. Today, there is an urgent political and social need for concepts of living together in much more heterogeneous and much less familiar societies. The questions, notions, and cases explored in the nine contributions that comprise this publication focus on this emergency.

Participants on the volume: A Chanady, A de Toro, W Ch Dimock, D Ingenschay, J Mecke, M Rössner, G Piszcz, Ramirez C Sieber. ALFONSO DE TORO is Professor emeritus for Spanish, Portuguese, Ibero American, and Francophone Literatures and Cultures at the University of Leipzig. He is the founder and director of the Ibero American and Francophone Research Centers IAFS and FFSL. His research and publications are focused on theatre, narrative, and poetry in France, the Maghreb, Spain, Latin America, and Italy, as well as on culture, post-modern, post-colonial theories, and hybridity and diaspora theories. CORNELIA SIEBER is Professor for Spanish, Portuguese, and Latin American Culture at the Faculty of Translation Studies, Linguistics, and Cultural Studies of the Johannes Gutenberg University.

Contested Spaces, Counter-Narratives, and Culture from Below in Canada Roxanne Rimstead, Domenico A. Beneventi, 2019-02-28 Contested Spaces Counter narratives and Culture from Below in Canada and Quebec explores strategies for reading space and conflict in Canadian and Quebecois literature and cultural performances posing questions such as how do these texts and performances produce and contest spatial practices What are the roles of the nation city community and individual subject in reproducing space particularly in times of global hegemony and neocolonialism And in what ways do marginalized individuals and communities represent contest or appropriate spaces through counter narratives and expressions of culture from below Focusing on discord rather than harmony and consensus this collection disturbs the idealized space of Canadian multicultural pluralism to carry literary analysis and cultural studies into spaces often undetected and unforeseen including flophouses and slums shantytowns and urban alleyways underground spaces and peep shows and inner city urban parks as they are experienced by minorities and other marginalized groups These essays are the
