Segregation in Residential Areas Amos Henry Hawley, Vincent P. Rock, 1973      Equal Opportunity in Housing: a Bibliography of Research. Revised 2nd Ed. Enlarged United States. Housing and Urban Development Department, 1974

Housing and Planning References, 1973      Research in Education, 1973      Resources in Education, 1984 Serves as an index to Eric reports microform      Housing Policy Debate, 1995      Making Our Neighborhoods, Making Our Selves George C. Galster, 2024-01-17 In Making Our Neighborhoods Making Our Selves George Galster delves deep into the question of whether American neighborhoods are as efficient and equitable as they could be socially financially and emotionally and if not what we can do to change that Galster aims to redefine the relationship between places and people promoting specific policies that reduce inequalities in housing markets and beyond Drawing on economics sociology geography and psychology Making Our Neighborhoods Making Our Selves delivers a clear sighted explanation of what neighborhoods are how they come to be and what they should be      Equal Opportunity in Housing United States. Department of Housing and Urban Development. Library, 1974      Housing and Racial/Ethnic Minority Status in the United States Jamshid A. Momeni, 1987-04-03 Momeni pulls together 1 007 citations to articles and monographs on housing for minorities Instead of brief annotations he includes an abstract or summary of each title sometimes written by the original author The descriptions are long enough to allow the reader to appraise the title Entries are classed by broad topic e g discrimination and redlining segregation desegregation rentals ownership and home value subsidies public housing regulations and the courts elderly housing homelessness There are author and subject indexes Particularly valuable is a 15 page analysis of data from the 1980 census in which Momeni studies differences in housing occupied by minorities If affords students and librarians a readable overview of the minority housing picture in 1980 no similar bibliography incorporates data from this census The foreword and preface written by two experts in the field add commentary on the subject Recommended for academic and research libraries supporting sociology and urban studies Choice The proliferation of research on minority housing in the past decade has created the need for a comprehensive bibliography that will provide a synthesis of knowledge on the subject and bring together the results of many widely dispersed studies and documents This outstanding reference work chronicles the historical patterns of change in minority housing conditions and paves the way to a greater understanding of the complexities of the market dynamics of minority housing over the past two decades Containing more than one thousand entries this expansive volume summarizes the latest research literature covering such topics as redlining fair housing the impact of various housing initiatives the problems of the elderly and the homeless      Fair Housing Amendments Act of 1987 United States. Congress. House. Committee on the Judiciary. Subcommittee on Civil and Constitutional Rights, 1987      In Lincoln's Shadow Roberta Senechal de la Roche, 2008-08-29 Winner of the Gustavus Myers Center Award for the Study of Human Rights in the United States Winner of the Illinois State Historical Society Superior

Achievement Award This detailed case study of the 1908 race riot in Springfield Illinois which began only a few blocks from Abraham Lincoln s family home explores the social origins of rioting by whites against the city s African American community after a white woman alleged that a black man had raped her Over two days rioters wrecked black owned businesses burned neighborhoods to the ground killed two black men and injured many others Author Roberta Senechal de la Roche draws from a wide range of sources to describe the riot identify the rioters and their victims and challenge previous interpretations that attribute rioting to interracial competition for jobs housing or political influence Written in a direct and clear style In Lincoln s Shadow documents a violent explosion of racial hatred that shocked the nation and reveals the complexity of white racial attitudes in the early twentieth century Women & Housing National Council of Negro Women,1976 Better Homes of South Bend: An American Story of Courage Gabrielle Robinson,2015 In 1950 a group of African American workers at the Studebaker factory in South Bend met in secret Their mission was to build homes away from the factories and slums where they were forced to live They came from the South to make a better life for themselves and their children but they found Jim Crow in the North as well The meeting gave birth to Better Homes of South Bend and a triumph against the entrenched racism of the times took all their courage intelligence and perseverance Author Gabrielle Robinson tells the story of their struggle and provides an intimate glimpse into a pan of history that all too often is forgotten Book jacket

National Academy Press ... Publications Catalog ,1985 Black Families Harold E. Cheatham,James B. Stewart,2017-10-19 The condition and characteristics of the black family have been subjects of intense debate since at least the 1960s when the Moynihan Report and the culture of poverty theses held sway Since then a consistent theme has been that black families are pathological Despite the fact that research has been inconclusive and contradictory political debate and policy have been strongly influenced by the pathology theme This volume presents alternative approaches toward understanding the special characteristics of black families Extending a special issue of The Review of Black Political Economy the book focuses on the economic circumstances and decision making of these families employing Interdisciplinary and cross cultural perspectives It examines the general responses of black families to various external factors such as economic systems and to Internal factors such as interpersonal relationships This compendium of current thinking and research will be of interest to professionals in a number of fields Including family studies counseling social work psychology and sociology It will be of practical use in training programs for service delivery systems Interested In Incorporating multicultural perspectives as well as those specifically interested in black families today LBJ's Neglected Legacy Robert H. Wilson,2015-06-15 During the five full years of his presidency 1964 1968 Lyndon Johnson initiated a breathtaking array of domestic policies and programs including such landmarks as the Civil Rights Act Head Start Food Stamps Medicare and Medicaid the Immigration Reform Act the Water Quality Act the Voting Rights Act Social Security reform and Fair Housing These and other Great Society programs reformed the federal government reshaped intergovernmental relations extended the federal government's role into new public policy arenas and redefined federally protected rights of individuals to engage in the public sphere. Indeed, to a remarkable but largely unnoticed degree, Johnson's domestic agenda continues to shape and influence current debates on major issues such as immigration, health care, higher education funding, voting rights, and clean water, even though many of his specific policies and programs have been modified or, in some cases, dismantled since his presidency. LBJ's Neglected Legacy examines the domestic policy achievements of one of America's most effective, albeit controversial, leaders. Leading contributors from the fields of history, public administration, economics, environmental engineering, sociology, and urban planning examine twelve of LBJ's key domestic accomplishments in the areas of citizenship and immigration, social and economic policy, science and technology, and public management. Their findings illustrate the enduring legacy of Johnson's determination and skill in taking advantage of overwhelming political support in the early years of his presidency to push through an extremely ambitious and innovative legislative agenda, and emphasize the extraordinary range and extent of LBJ's influence on American public policy and administration.

Without Justice For All Adolph Reed, 2018-02-12. Without Justice for All: The New Liberalism and Our Retreat from Racial Equality questions, examines, and explains the way a new orthodoxy of American leaders has contributed to the social stratification and inequality which plagues America today. By looking at the history of our social policies since the New Deal, as well as the status of specific policy arenas, essayists show how political shifts over the past fifty years have moved us away from a more egalitarian politics. Throughout the book, Reed responds critically to the now conventional argument that liberalism must be reconfigured in ways that retreat from immediate identification with the interests of labor, minorities, and the poor. From a look at federal housing policy and the failure of New Deal social programs to an examination of long-established public assistance programs and Affirmative Action, Without Justice for All is a timely and important contribution to the dialogue on race in modern America.
