animal painting was developed employing both the animals symbolic associations and homonymic puns Hou mei Sung s exciting rediscovery of some of these lost meanings has led to a full scale investigation of the evolving history of Chinese animal painting Distinct symbolic meanings were associated with individual motifs but all animals were assigned a place in the universe according to the Chinese concept of nature From the very early yin yang cosmology to later developments of Daoist and Confucian philosophies and ethics Chinese animals gained new meanings related to their historical contexts This book explores these new findings using the colorful animal images and their rich and evolving symbolic meanings to gain insight into unique aspects of Chinese art as well as Chinese culture and history Exhibition Schedule Cincinnati Museum of Art October 2009 February 2010 Women of Chinese Modern Art Doris Sung, 2023-12-31 Winner of the SECAC Award for Excellence in Scholarly Research and Publication Bringing to light the largely overlooked female participation in domestic and international art worlds this book offers the first comprehensive study of how women embroiderers traditionalist calligraphers and painters including Shen Shou Wu Xingfen Jin Taotao and members of Chinese Women s Society of Calligraphy and Painting shaped the terrain of the modern art world and gender positioning during China s important moments of social cultural transformation from empire to republic Drawing on a wealth of previously unexhibited artworks rare artist s monographs women s journals personal narratives diaries and catalogs of international expositions Doris Sung not only affirms women s significant roles as guardian and innovator of traditionalist art forms for a modern nation but she also reveals their contribution to cultural diplomacy and revaluation of Chinese artistic heritage on the international stage in the early twentieth century Chinese Intellectuals Between State and Market Merle Goldman, Edward Gu, 2005-08-03 This edited volume describes the intellectual world that developed in China in the last decade of the twentieth century How as China s economy changed from a centrally planned to a market one and as China opened up to the outside world and was influenced by the outside world Chinese intellectual activity became more wide ranging more independent more professionalized and more commercially oriented than ever before The future impact of this activity on Chinese civil society is discussed in the last chapter The Future History of Contemporary Chinese Art Peggy Wang, 2021-01-26 A revelatory reclaiming of five iconic Chinese artists and their place in art history During the 1980s and 1990s a group of Chinese artists Zhang Xiaogang Wang Guangyi Sui Jianguo Zhang Peili and Lin Tianmiao ascended to new heights of international renown Even as their fame increased they came to be circumscribed by simplistic Western interpretations of their artworks as social and political critiques a perspective that privileged stories of dissidence over deep engagement with the art itself Through in depth case studies of these five artists Peggy Wang offers a corrective to previous appraisals demonstrating how their works address fundamental questions about the forms meanings and possibilities of art By the end of the 1980s Chinese artists were scrutinizing earlier waves of Western influence and turning instead to their own heritage and culture to forge their own future histories As the national trauma of the 1989 Tiananmen Square massacre converged with the mounting expansion of the global art world these artists turned to art as a profoundly generative site for grappling with their place in the world Wang demonstrates how they consciously and energetically sought to make their own ideas about art and art history visible in contemporary art Wang's argument is informed by extensive primary research including close examination of the artworks analysis of Chinese language documents and archives and deeply personal interviews with the artists Their words uncover layers of meaning previously obscured by the popular and often recycled assessments that many of these works have received until now Beyond Wang's reinterpretation of these individual artists she contributes to an urgent conversation on the future direction of art history how do we map engagements between art from different parts of the world that are embedded within different art histories What does it mean for histories of contemporary art and art history more generally to be inclusive The new understandings offered in this book can and should be engaged when considering current hierarchies in histories of Chinese art the global art world and the intersections between them

Visual Culture Wars at the Borders of Contemporary China Paul Gladston, Beccy Kennedy-Schtyk, Ming Turner, 2022-01-01 This edited collection brings together essays that share in a critical attention to visual culture as a means of representing contributing to and or intervening with discursive struggles and territorial conflicts currently taking place at and across the outward facing and internal borders of the People's Republic of China Elucidated by the essays collected here for the first time is a constellation of what might be described as visual culture wars comprising resistances on numerous fronts not only to the growing power and expansiveness of the Chinese state but also the residues of a once pervasively suppressive Western colonialism imperialism The present volume addresses visual culture related to struggles and conflicts at the borders of Hong Kong the South China Sea and Taiwan as well within the PRC with regard the so called Great Firewall of China and differences in discursive outlook between China and the West on the significances of art technology gender and sexuality In doing so it provides a vital index of twenty first century China's diversely conflicted status as a contemporary nation state and arguably nascent empire

Painting Nature for the Nation Rosina Buckland, 2012-12-10 In Painting Nature for the Nation Taki Katei and the Challenges to Sinophile Culture in Meiji Japan Rosina Buckland offers an account of the career of the painter Taki Katei 1830-1901 Drawing on a large body of previously unpublished paintings collaborative works and book illustrations by this highly successful yet neglected figure Buckland traces how Katei transformed his art and practice based in modes derived from China in order to fulfil the needs of the modern nation state at large scale exhibitions and at the imperial court She provides a rare examination of the vibrant world of Chinese inspired culture during the 1880s and the hostility which it faced in the following decade

Shanghai Mundane Lei Ping, 2025-09-18 This book offers a new critical intervention into the studies of the paradox of Chinese socialism Centering on the unremovable Shanghai bourgeoisie and middle class the book brilliantly discovers Chinese society's persistent aspiration to bourgeois lifestyle and remarkable resistance to socialist ideology from the Mao era to the Xi era Shanghai Mundane offers a new critical intervention into the studies of the paradox of Chinese socialism Through the lens of contested state society relations the book challenges conventional China Studies by repositioning Shanghai as the key to decode the protracted ideological warfare between socialism and capitalism Based on significant archival ethnographic and theoretical evidence unearthed from the distinct cases of Shanghai bourgeoisie and middle class Lei Ping discovers the city s persistent aspiration to bourgeois lifestyle and remarkable resistance to socialist ideology throughout the entire history of the People s Republic of China Ping argues that despite the socialist remolding of capitalist industry and commerce the post 1949 Chinese state failed to eradicate bourgeois heritage in the domain of everyday life in the Mao era which ironically contributed to its controversial policy reversals in the post Mao era from Deng to Xi What lies at the heart of the major intellectual conundrum namely the survival and revival of bourgeois sentiments is what Ping calls the unremovable Shanghai mundane This captivating and provocative account sheds new light on understanding the larger questions as to the crisis ridden practices of Chinese socialism and the raison d tre of the Chinese Communist Party in the twenty first century UNESCO Art Collection Selected works UNESCO,2021-11-19 Future

The Contemporary Construction of the Chinese Form of Marxist Literary Criticism Yamin Hu,2023-08-05 This open access book is the first comprehensive and systematic study of Chinese Marxist literary criticism as an independent theoretical form It discusses and describes the theoretical features of the Chinese form of Marxist literary criticism by refining and re interpreting the iconic key concepts of people nation politics praxis along with the relationships between literature technology and capital Literary criticism and value judgment has also been discussed at length with insightful and valuable views being provided This book is a brilliant introduction to the topic and ideal academic material for global readers to grasp the essence of Chinese Marxist literary critical thought On the Margins of Realism Ting Luo,2025-03-31 Realism has been endowed with a certain orthodox status as the aesthetic counterpart of China s modernization and studies of Chinese film history have largely accepted a master narrative of realism as the guiding aesthetic of mainland Chinese cinema This book argues however that alternative aesthetics to realism have always existed in Chinese cinema throughout its history from the early silent era to the new century The alternative aesthetics are closely linked to the indigenous Chinese ontology of cinema namely shadowplay yingxi The author presents an alternative account through a close examination of four distinct visual narrative and stylistic devices or themes that recur in different periods of Chinese film history the dream representation the doubling of characters the device of self reflexivity and the allegorical construction of space By considering specific films and scenes as problematic sites where history politics and aesthetics collide this book also seeks to elucidate the relationship between cinema and the multifaceted experiences of Chinese modernity with respect to subjectivity ideology identity and nationality This book will be of interest to scholars and students of Chinese cinemas realism and modernism The Nation ,1870
