, Encyclopedia of Religion and Nature Bron Taylor, Jeffrey Kaplan, 2005-01-01 No Marketing Blurb From the First Rising Sun Charla Jean Morris, 2011-08-10 While in medical school which I did not have the privilege of completing once a week we had a small group discussion class called Focus On Problems Each group had a leader a member of the medical school staff or someone closely associated with the school usually an MD or Ph D Our group leader was Dean of the Medical School H David Wilson MD One class period focused on working with patients of different ethnic backgrounds Dr Wilson asked me what were some of the traditions of my tribe in regard to medicine that would be helpful for a doctor to know My reply was that I had been raised like a white that I had grown up learning about various herbal and natural remedies but that I knew nothing about the specific medical traditions ceremonial or secular of my people I had always longed to know of the traditions of my people before that but circumstances of my family history had not allowed it That question in the Focus On Problems class caused that longing to intensify into a sharp pang of longing that would not be satisfied until many years later While in the first two years of medical school as a nontraditional student I was in an environment that encouraged the development of the knowledge of Native American traditions We had Native American speakers that came and elaborated on Native American traditions One area that was lacking was tribal histories but what academics label prehistory I commented to her that when white man came they did all they could to destroy our social and religious fabric so the old traditions were not passed down to most of the remaining members of the tribes Now we know nothing of our old history There is nothing left The white side of my family history is easy to know but not my Cherokee and Choctaw side She replied by saying that yes many of our peoples have lost their old traditions and it is sad Liquid Light of Sex Barbara Hand Clow, 2001-09-01 A nationally known astrologer explores the connection between spiritual emergencies at age 30 40 and 50 and key astrological passages of Saturn Uranus and Chiron Provides techniques for directing the kundalini energy released during planetary passages for optimal personal and psychic development Includes charts for birth years starting in 1930 so that readers can determine the timing of their planetary passages By Barbara Hand Clow author of the bestselling Pleiadian Agenda 60 000 copies sold Kundalini the energy of eros that lies at the base of the spine can be overwhelming once activated Times of activation coincide with the key astrological passages of Saturn Uranus and Chiron in one s birth chart and are often experienced as periods of spiritual emergency confusion and imbalance In Liquid Light of Sex Barbara Hand Clow opens up new dimensions for understanding what occurs during these key life passages which most of us experience three times in our lives In the author s words we form at age 30 we transform at age 40 and we transmute at age 50 Focusing on the transformation at age 40 the time of imbalance and spiritual confusion often referred to as the midlife crisis she explores how kundalini energy the liquid light of sex can be creatively channeled by unblocking the chakras Offering effective methods for achieving physical emotional and spiritual growth during this important life passage Liquid Light of Sex presents a roadmap for using celestial cycles to navigate positively and productively in times of great life change Prophecy in the New Millennium Suzanne Newcombe, Sarah Harvey, 2016-04-15 Secular and spiritual prophets of doom abound in the information rich twenty first century as they have for millennia But there has yet to be worldwide floods meteor impact global computer failure obvious alien contact or direct intervention from God to end the world as we know it Considering the frequency with which prophecy apparently fails why do prophecies continue to be made and what social functions do they serve This volume gives a concise but comprehensive overview of the rich diversity of prophecy its role in major world religions as well as in new religions and alternative spiritualities its social dynamics and its impact on individuals lives Academic analyses are complimented with contextualized primary source testimonies of those who live and have lived within a prophetic framework The book argues that the key to understanding the more dramatic apocalyptic and millenarian aspects of prophecy is in appreciating prophecy s more mundane manifestations and its role in providing meaning and motivation in everyday life

Anxiety traces the sources of American culture's obsession with predicting and preparing for the apocalypse. Author Anthony Aveni explores why Americans take millennial claims seriously where and how end of the world predictions emerge how they develop within a broader historical framework and what we can learn from doomsday predictions of the past. The book begins with the Millerites the nineteenth century religious sect of Pastor William Miller who used biblical calculations to predict October 22 1844 as the date for the Second Advent of Christ. Aveni also examines several other religious and philosophical movements that have centered on apocalyptic themes: Christian millennialism the New Age movement and the Age of Aquarius and various other nineteenth and early twentieth century religious sects concluding with a focus on the Maya mystery of 2012 and the contemporary prophets who connected the end of the world as we know it with the overturning of the Maya calendar. Apocalyptic Anxiety places these seemingly never ending stories of the world's end in the context of American history. This fascinating exploration of the deep historical and cultural roots of America's voracious appetite for apocalypse will appeal to students of American history and the histories of religion and science as well as lay readers interested in American culture and doomsday prophecies.
