The Bride in the Cultural Imagination Jo Parnell, 2020-11-13 This essay collection examines the cultural and personal world of girls and women at a time when their lives, their person, their realities and their status are about to change forever. Together the chapters cleverly create an in-depth study of the subject and look at several cultural forms to offer a different approach to the popularly held views of the bride. The critical essays in this edited collection are thematically driven and include global perspectives of the portrayals of the bride in the films, stage productions and pop culture narratives from Nigeria, Kenya, Uganda, Tanzania, Spain, Ancient Greece and Ancient Rome, Tajikistan, India, Egypt and the South Eastern Indian Ocean Islands. This multinational approach provides insight into the intricacies, customs, practices and life styles surrounding the bride in various Eastern and Western cultures.

Women Political Prisoners after the Spanish Civil War Ruth Fisher, 2020-11-24 At the end of the Spanish Civil War, the Nationalist government instigated mass repression against anyone suspected of loyalty to the defeated Republican side. Around 200,000 people were imprisoned for political crimes in the weeks and months following 1st April 1939, including thousands of women who were charged with offences ranging from directing the home front to supporting their loved ones engaged in combat. Many women wrote and published texts about their experiences seeking to make their voices heard and to counteract the dehumanising master narrative of the right-wing victors that had criminalised their existence. The memoirs of Communist women such as Tomasa Cuevas and Juana Díaz have heavily influenced our understanding of life in prison for women under franquismo while texts by non-Communist women have largely been ignored. This monograph offers a comparative study of the life writing of female political prisoners in Spain focusing on six texts in particular: the two volumes of 'Cárcel de mujeres' by Tomasa Cuevas; 'Desde la noche y la niebla' by Juana Díaz; 'Rquieto por la libertad' by Ngeles García; 'Madrid Abajo las dictaduras' by Josefa García Segret; and 'Aquello sucedió' by Ngeles Malonda. All the texts share common themes such as describing the hunger and repression that all political prisoners suffered. However, the ideologically driven narratives of Communist women often foreground representations of resistance at the expense of exploring the emotional and intellectual struggle for survival that many women political prisoners faced in the aftermath of the Spanish Civil War. This study nuances our understanding of imprisoned women as individuals and as a collective, analysing how women political prisoners sought recognition and justice in the face of a vindictive dictatorship. It also explores the women's response to the spirit of convivencia during the transition to democracy which once again threatened to silence them.

Jordi Guixé,Coromines,2016-05-26 The public authorities have not successfully resolved the management of the traumatic memory of the wars dictatorships and massacres to which the European project was always intended to be a counterpoint The conflict of memories and the public discourses about the past are latent on ideological political and cultural levels However if in the past the conflict concerning memories tended to develop inside the borders of countries it has now leapt into the European arena This has also led to the confrontation and questioning of the great narratives established in the common memory especially with countries of the East joining the European Union Each community group or nation maintains common memories that do not always fit in or converge with a general overall account The origins of the UB Solidarity Foundation s European Observatory on Memories lie in these debates and through this book which includes the contributions of specialists in multiple disciplines and the speeches that were given at the first international symposium Memory and Power A

Deadly Embrace Sebastian Balfour,2002-05-23 Combining military political cultural social and oral history Sebastian Balfour narrates for the first time the development of a brutalised interventionist army that played a crucial role in the victory of the Francoists in the Spanish Civil War Spain s new colonial venture in Morocco in the early twentieth century turned into a bloody war against the tribes resisting the Spanish invasion of their lands After suffering a succession of heavy military disasters against some of the most accomplished guerrillas in the world the Spanish army turned to chemical warfare and dropped massive quantities of mustard gas on civilians Dr Balfour exposes this previously closely guarded secret using evidence from Spanish military archives and from survivors in Morocco He also narrates the daily life of soldiers in the war as well as the self images and tensions among the colonial officers After looking at the motives that drove Moroccans to resist or cooperate with Spain the author describes the contradictory pictures among Spaniards of Moroccan collaborators and foes Finally he examines the Spanish colonial army s response to the Second Republic of 1931 1936 and its brutal march through Spain in the Civil War QUOTES FROM PAUL PRESTON S READERS REPORT This is a book of very considerable significance the work of a first rate historian working at his peak This is the most complete and wide ranging account to date of the Spanish involvement in Morocco and of the consequences of that involvement inside Spain itself written with a compelling blend of elegance and immediacy this is a major work one of which any historian would be proud
