Los Rios Profundos:

Deep Rivers José María Arguedas, 2002-03-28 Fiction In English translation Jos Mara Arguedas is one of the few Latin American authors who loved and described his natural surroundings and he ranks among the greatest writers of any time and place He saw the beauty of the Peruvian landscape as well as the grimness of social conditions in the Andes through the eyes of the Indians who are a part of it Ernesto the narrator of Deep Rivers is a child with origins in two worlds The son of a wandering country lawyer he is brought up by Indian servants until he enters a Catholic boarding school at age 14 In this urban Spanish environment he is a misfit and a loner The conflict of the Indian and the Spanish cultures is acted out within him as it was in the life of Arguedas For the boy Ernesto salvation is his world of dreams and memories While Arguedas poetry was published in Quechua he invented a language for his novels in which he used native syntax with Spanish vocabulary This makes translation into other languages extremely difficult and Frances Horning Barraclough has done a masterful job winning the 1978 Translation Center Award from Columbia University

The Inner Life of Mestizo Nationalism Estelle Tarica, 2008 The only recent English language work on Spanish American indigenismo from a literary perspective Estelle Tarica's work shows how modern Mexican and Andean discourses about the relationship between Indians and non Indians create a unique literary aesthetic that is instrumental in defining the experience of mestizo nationalism Engaging with narratives by Jess Lara Jos Mara Arguedas and Rosario Castellanos among other thinkers Tarica explores the rhetorical and ideological aspects of interethnic affinity and connection In her examination she demonstrates that these connections posed a challenge to existing racial hierarchies in Spanish America by celebrating a new kind of national self at the same time that they contributed to new forms of subjection and discrimination Going beyond debates about the relative merits of indigenismo and mestizaje Tarica puts forward a new perspective on indigenista literature and modern mestizo identities by revealing how these ideologies are symptomatic of the dilemmas of national subject formation The Inner Life of Mestizo Nationalism offers insight into the contemporary resurgence and importance of indigenista discourses in Latin America Estelle Tarica is associate professor of Latin American literature and culture at the University of California Berkeley

Creating the Hybrid Intellectual Anne Lambright, 2007 A contribution to the study of Peruvian anthropologist and creative writer Jose Maria Arguedas It asserts that it is through reading the role and trajectory of the feminine in Arguedian narrative that we can best understand the author's national vision

Voices from the Fuente Viva Amy Nauss Millay, 2005 Many twentieth century Spanish American writers sought to give voice to their countries native inhabitants Drawing upon anthropology and literary theory this book explores the representation of orality by major Spanish American anthropologist writers Lydia Cabrera Jose Maria Arguedas and Miguel Barnet These writers played a quintessential role of the Spanish American writer from colonial times to the present they inscribed the mythical world of a vanishing Other by creating a poetic effect of orality in their ethnographies and narratives This book argues that supposed differences between oral and written culture are rhetorical devices in the elaboration of literature specifically modern fiction in Spanish America Fictionalization of the oral requires adherence to the theory of a great divide between orality and literacy Because the texts considered here are predicated on the ideality of speech a contradiction underlies their shared desire to salvage oral tradition This book explores how anthropologist writers have addressed this compelling dilemma in their anthropological and narrative writings at Tufts University Mixing Race, Mixing Culture Monika Kaup, Debra Rosenthal, 2002-08-15 Over the last five centuries the story of the Americas has been a story of the mixing of races and cultures Not surprisingly the issue of miscegenation with its attendant fears and hopes has been a pervasive theme in New World literature as writers from Canada to Argentina confront the legacy of cultural hybridization and fusion This book takes up the challenge of transforming American literary and cultural studies into a comparative discipline by examining the dynamics of racial and cultural mixture and its opposite tendency racial and cultural disjunction in the literatures of the Americas Editors Kaup and Rosenthal have brought together a distinguished set of scholars who compare the treatment of racial and cultural mixtures in literature from North America the Caribbean and Latin America From various angles they remap the Americas as a multicultural and multiracial hemisphere with a common history of colonialism slavery racism and racial and cultural hybridity Los ríos profundos (edición conmemorativa de RAE y ASALE) José María Arguedas, 2023-03-23 Una novela fundamental de la literatura en castellano del siglo XX Un autor a la altura de Rulfo y alabado por autores como Gabriel García Márquez Nueva edición conmemorativa de la Real Academia Española y la Asociación de Academias de la Lengua Española Publicada en 1958 y considerada la novela más importante de Arguedas en Los ríos profundos se trata por primera vez en la literatura latinoamericana la figura del indio y sus problemas desde una perspectiva cercana y realista Narra el paso a la edad adulta de un chico de catorce años que descubre las injusticias presentes en el mundo y elige su camino El relato recorre la geografía del sur de Perú en un viaje itinerante que le lleva a él y a su padre en busca de una vida nueva En Abancay ingresa en un internado donde pasa a formar parte de un microcosmos que refleja cómo es la sociedad peruana y cuáles son las normas que imperan su crueldad y su violencia Fuera del colegio los conflictos sociales forzarán su toma de conciencia La crítica ha dicho Desde la primera vez que leí Los ríos profundos he conservado la impresión que dejan esos colores que iluminan la historia con una luz de incendio Minúsculos detalles que crepitan aquí y allá en la superficie de la novela crean un sistema circulatorio de tensiones y vivencias que enriquecen su belleza con un incontenible flujo de vida Mario Vargas Llosa Los ríos profundos evoca y sublima una realidad que Arguedas conoció mejor que nadie y conoció mejor que nadie en literatura siempre ha significado conocer como niño los indios los mestizos no como estampas de propaganda o como caricaturas políticas sino como entrañables entidades individuales Una novela que deja en la memoria una página de nostalgia no puede ser sino una novela de las de verdad Sergio Ramírez Todo es verdadero en Los ríos profundos La sencillez y la potencia de sus frases las descripciones de sus personajes y de sus paisajes el manejo de los diálogos las confesiones del

Alonso Cueto Gender, Desire, and Whiteness in Los Ríos Profundos, by J.M. Arguedas Gregory Murphy, 1998 Journeys of Formation Yolanda A. Doub, 2010 Ideal for students of modern Latin American literature Journeys of Formation The Spanish American Bildungsroman offers a lucid introduction to the Bildungsroman as a genre before revealing how the journey motif works as both a plot forming device and as a means of characterization in several of the most canonical Spanish American Bildungsromane In the process the author demonstrates the overlooked importance of the travel motif in this genre Although present in the vast majority of Bildungsromane if the journey is discussed at all by critics it tends to be in superficial terms The author contends that no discussion of the Spanish American novel of formation would be complete without an exploration of travel Yolanda A Doub articulates the role of travel as a catalyst in the formation process of young male and female protagonists by examining in detail six representative novels from three different countries and time periods from Argentina Ricardo Güiraldes's Don Segundo Sombra 1926 and Roberto Arlt's El juguete rabioso 1926 from Peru José María Arguedas's Los ríos profundos 1958 and Julio Ramón Ribeyro's Crónica de San Gabriel 1960 and from Mexico Rosario Castellanos's Balance 1957 and Elena Poniatowska's La flor de lis 1988 Synthèse sur "Los ríos profundos" [de] José María Arguedas Jean-Marie Lassus, 2004-10-08 Ernesto est le fils d'un avocat pauvre qui erre de ville en ville dans les vallées du sud du Pérou en quête d'un lieu où s'établir Au cours de leurs pérégrinations l'adolescent noue une relation intime avec le Pérou profond jusqu'au jour où son père le confie aux religieux du collège d'Abancay Il découvrira dans cette ville de province touffante un univers régi par le mal, l'injustice et la violence auquel il opposera sa propre vision du monde héritée de son contact avec les Indiens et de sa connaissance de leur culture et de leur langue

Imagining Modernity in the Andes Priscilla Archibald, 2011-01-06 Imagining Modernity in the Andes deals with the intersection of projects of modernity and cultural representation in the Andes The Peruvian novelist and anthropologist José María Arguedas occupies a privileged place in a study that charts the social cultural and intellectual transformations that took place in the Andes throughout the twentieth and early twenty first centuries In its examination of political and literary indigenistas of the 1920s applied anthropology in the 1950s the novelistic response to emigration and urbanization the theory of transculturation in the era of transnationalism and the appearance of new visual technologies in a cultural context long defined by the oral textual divide Imagining Modernity in the Andes conducts the type of interdisciplinary approach which a full appreciation for the heterodoxies of Andean cultural production makes indispensable The Twentieth-Century Spanish American Novel Raymond Leslie Williams, 2009-07-21 A Choice Magazine Outstanding Academic Book Spanish American novels of the Boom period 1962-1967 attracted a world readership to Latin American literature but Latin American writers had already been engaging in the modernist experiments of their North American and European counterparts since the turn of the twentieth century Indeed the desire to be modern is a constant preoccupation in twentieth century Spanish American literature and thus a very useful lens through which to view the century's novels. In this pathfinding study Raymond L. Williams offers the first complete analytical and critical overview of the Spanish American novel throughout the entire twentieth century. Using the desire to be modern as his organizing principle, he divides the century's novels into five periods and discusses the differing forms that the modern took in each era. For each period Williams begins with a broad overview of many novels, literary contexts, and some cultural debates, followed by new readings of both canonical and significant non-canonical novels. A special feature of this book is its emphasis on women writers and other previously ignored and/or marginalized authors, including experimental and gay writers. Williams also clarifies the legacy of the Boom, the Postboom, and the Postmodern as he introduces new writers and new novelistic trends of the 1990s. Mining Memory Mary Beth Tierney-Tello, 2017-01-23

Every major Peruvian author of the twentieth century has written a narrative focused on childhood or coming of age. Mining Memory argues that Peruvian narratives of the twentieth century re-imagine childhood not only to document personal pasts but also to focus on national identity as a dynamic and incomplete process. Mining Memory shows how 20th-century narratives and films re-imagine the self and the nation by representing child and adolescent protagonists and their evolution using the remembrance of childhood as part of a nation-making project. The book demonstrates how, in the context of Peruvian fictions focusing on childhood, become vehicles for the national reimagining and collective remembering central to much of Latin American literature. The figure of the child as emblem of both a collective memory and an always deferred utopian project holds special promise for twentieth-century Peruvian writers as they write from a national context rife with cultural, racial, and political conflict. The book intervenes in debates internal to Peruvian cultural studies as well as wider conversations in Latin American Studies and post-colonial studies. Mining Memory provides a new understanding to both the Latin American and Anglo-American traditions regarding the representations of national subjectivities through the voices of the child and adolescent. Such a representational strategy performs a very particular kind of hybridity and temporal balancing act, capable of addressing the very issues of cultural memory and fractured identities so relevant to multi-cultural, post-colonial cultural contexts. Spell of the Urubamba Daniel W. Gade, 2015-10-05

This work examines the valley of the Urubamba River in terms of vertical zonation, Incan impact on the environment, plant use, the history of exploration, and the notion of discovery. The idea of land reform and cultural contact with the European world. Winding its path northward from the Andean Highlands to the Amazon, the valley has served as the stage of pre-Columbian civilizations and focal point of Spanish conquest in Peru. Gade left behind not only a superb body of scholarly work but a network of colleagues and students who remain indebted to his example. This book should serve as an inspiration for all scholars who wish to pursue the Sauerian counter-enlightenment or post-development agendas of understanding and respecting particular places in all their historical and cultural complexity, including ambiguities and contradictions. The Geographical Review American Geographical Society

The Decline and Fall of the Lettered City Jean FRANCO, Jean Franco, 2009-06-30 The cultural Cold War in Latin America was waged as a war of values artistic freedom versus communitarianism Western values versus national cultures the autonomy of art versus a commitment to liberation struggles and at a time when the prestige of literature had never been higher The projects of the historic avant garde were revitalized by an anti capitalist ethos and envisaged as the opposite of the republican state The Decline and Fall of the Lettered City charts the conflicting universals of this period the clash between avant garde and political vanguard This was also a twilight of literature at the threshold of the great cultural revolution of the seventies and eighties a revolution to which the Cold War indirectly contributed In the eighties civil war and military rule together with the rapid development of mass culture and communication empires changed the political and cultural map A long awaited work by an eminent Latin Americanist widely read throughout the world this book will prove indispensable to anyone hoping to understand Latin American literature and society Jean Franco guides the reader across minefields of cultural debate and histories of highly polarized struggle Focusing on literary texts by Garc a Marquez Vargas Llosa Roa Bastos and Juan Carlos Onetti conducting us through this contested history with the authority of an eyewitness Franco gives us an engaging overview as involving as it is moving

Letter from America Gil Ndi-Shang,2020-01-06
Inspired by Alistair Cooke s masterpiece Letter from America 1934 2004 that depicted the transformation of British culture in the United States of America Ndi Shang s text redefines America focusing on the melting pot engendered by African indigenous European and Asian cultures in Latin America through the case of Peru the erstwhile epicentre of Spanish empire in Latin America It is a reflection on the triangular relationship between Africa Europe and America against the backdrop of slavery and neo colonialism which continue to define intimate experiences daily interactions personal trajectories and human relations in a globalized world Ndi Shang probes into the legacies of racial inequalities but also the possibilities of a new ethic of encounter amongst human beings cultures The text is based on an intricate interweaving of the humorous with the tragic the personal with the global the historical with the current and the real with the creative

Identity and Translation Trouble Ivana Hostová,2017-08-21 Besides providing a thorough overview of advances in the concept of identity in Translation Studies the book brings together a variety of approaches to identity as seen through the prism of translation Individual chapters are united by the topic and their predominantly cultural approach but they also supply dynamic impulses for the reader since their methodologies level of abstraction and subject matter differ The theoretical impulses brought together here include a call for the ecology of translational attention a proposal of transcultural and farcical translation and a rethinking of Bourdieu s habitus in terms of Franti ek Miko s experiential complex The book also offers first hand insights into such topics as post communist translation practices provides sociological insights into the role politics played during state socialism in the creation of fields of translated fiction and the way imported fiction was able to subvert the intentions of the state gives evidence of the struggles of small locales trying to be recognised through their literature and draws links between local theory and more widely known concepts
