Losing The Sacred Ritual Modernity And Liturgical Reform:

Losing the Sacred Ritual and Liturgy David Torevell, 2004-11-11 This book argues that the liturgical reforms initiated by the second Vatican Council may have seriously undermined contemporary Roman Catholic worship Drawing on important work by Durkheim Bauman Foucault Turner Duffy Flanagan and Pickstock David Torevell focuses on the most crucial element of Catholic worship the experience of the sacred and examines how it has been eroded since pre modern times largely due to the marginalisation of ritual expression and its consequences A devastating critique of the loss of the sacred in worship this striking interdisciplinary study is a call for revitalisation of Roman Catholic liturgy through a reform of the reform and the reclamation of the importance of the body in ritual expression Losing the Sacred David Torevell, 2000 This book argues that the liturgical reforms initiated by the second Vatican Council may have seriously undermined contemporary Roman Catholic worship Drawing on important work by Durkheim Bauman Foucault Turner Duffy Flanagan and Pickstock David Torevell focuses on the most crucial element of Catholic worship the experience of the sacred and examines how it has been eroded since pre modern times largely due to the marginalisation of ritual expression and its consequences A devastating critique of the loss of the sacred in worship this striking interdisciplinary study is a call for revitalisation of Roman Catholic liturgy through a reform of the reform and the reclamation of the importance of the body in ritual expression Losing the Sacred David Torevell, 1998 Reforming the Liturgy John F. Baldovin, 2016-03-24 2009 Catholic Press Association Award Winner Perhaps no liturgical scholar of our time is better able than John Baldovin to write with clarity and accuracy about the meaning of the church's liturgy and the history of its development in the last half century In this summary volume on the reform of the liturgy since the Second Vatican Council Baldovin pinpoints and assesses both sympathetically and critically the objections to changes in the liturgy since the council focusing on philosophical historical critical and theological questions After addressing each criticism in turn in a final chapter he assesses the critique of post Vatican II liturgy as a whole affirming what is accurate and necessary rejecting what is backward looking and proposing a set of principles to guide future development No one who studies or participates in liturgical action in the twenty first century can afford to overlook this book John F Baldovin SJ is professor of historical and liturgical theology at Boston College School of Theology and Ministry His most recent books include Bread of Life Cup of Salvation and The Urban Character of Christian Worship The Trauma of Monastic Reform Alison I. Beach, 2017-11-02 This book opens a window on the lived experience of monastic reform in the twelfth century Drawing on a variety of textual and material sources from the south German monastery of Petershausen it begins with the local process of reform and moves out into intertwined regional social political and ecclesiastical landscapes Beach reveals how the shock of reform initiated decades of anxiety at Petershausen and raised doubts about the community's communal identity its shifting internal contours and boundaries and its place within the broader spiritual and social landscapes of Constance and Swabia The Trauma of Monastic Reform goes beyond reading monastic narratives of reform as retrospective expressions of support for the deeds and ideals of a past generation of reformers to explore the real human impact that the process could have both on the individuals who comprised the target community and on those who lived for generations in its aftermath

Simut, 2010-02-18 This book presents the main teachings of Edward Schillebeeckx widely considered one of the most important Catholic thinkers of the twentieth century Schillebeeckx is known for his radical departure from traditional theology which he saw as no longer relevant to the modern world Because today's world has been shaped by a process of secularization heavily based on reason and progress in science technology economics urbanism etc modern people seek relevant answers to their deep existential questions that can be explained rationally In his quest to foster relevant and meaningful answers for today's world Schillebeeckx changed the traditional metaphysical content of Christian theology into explanations that radically reinterpret traditional Christian doctrines Primarily the supernatural essence of Christianity is given up as irrelevant and is replaced by a natural perspective on the world In Schillebeeckx's thoroughly historical and truly immanent theology God is man's terrestrial future Christ the symbol of universal human values and the Church is identified with the world as those communities which share these universal human values Schillebeeckx is convinced that these explanations emptied of metaphysical content can help today's people understand their existence in a new relevant and meaningful way
