Dynamics of Law and Legal Discourse Heather Conway, John Stannard, 2016-12-15 In his seminal work Emotional Intelligence Daniel Goleman suggests that the common view of human intelligence is far too narrow and that emotions play a much greater role in thought decision making and individual success than is commonly acknowledged The importance of emotion to human experience cannot be denied yet the relationship between law and emotion is one that has largely been ignored until recent years However the last two decades have seen a rapidly expanding interest among scholars of all disciplines into the way in which law and the emotions interact including the law's response to emotion and the extent to which emotions pervade the practice of the law In The Emotional Dynamics of Law and Legal Discourse a group of leading scholars from both sides of the Atlantic explore these issues across key areas of private law public law criminal justice and dispute resolution illustrating how emotion infuses all areas of legal thought The collection argues for a more positive view of the role of emotion in the context of legal discourse and demonstrates ways in which the law could in the words of Goleman become more emotionally intelligent

No Time for Tears Judy Heath, Bernie Siegel, 2015-05-01 Facing the loss of a loved one in a death avoidant culture can be excruciating Grievers may be expected to put on a brave face to move on quickly and to seek medication if they are still grief stricken after an acceptable amount of time Psycho therapist Judy Heath draws on extensive experience as a grief specialist in private practice to help those struggling with the anguish of loss Addressing the myths and misinformation about mourning that still abound today Heath gently coaches readers to understand that coping with loss is a natural process that our society tends to avoid and hurry people through often leading to unresolved lasting grief No Time for Tears offers practical advice for both short and long term recovery including how to manage rarely discussed physical and emotional changes feelings of going crazy and inability to focus feeling out of sync with the world exhausted and chilled and crushingly lonely This updated second edition includes new information about medication and discusses various types of loss including that of a parent child spouse friend or pet Helpful not only to griever but also to those who care about counsel or employ them No Time for Tears is an essential resource for grief management and recovery

The Infinite Thread (EasyRead Edition) , From Child to Elder Alan Pope,2006 From Child to Elder explores the personal growth that can arise when a middle aged adult loses his or her last living parent Based on an empirical phenomenological study this book details the complex ways in which the adult orphan s ongoing relationship to the deceased parents combined with the unique meanings of the loss leads to a deepening of individual autonomy and spiritual awakening Confrontation with mortality and fundamental aloneness promotes among other things an increased sense of existential responsibility toward self and others as the adult orphan psychologically assumes its new role as an elder These and many other themes are structured into an integrated whole and amplified through developmental existential and Jungian perspectives The result is a compelling portrait of the processes by which the death of one s parents can accelerate psychospiritual development

Trauma and Dreams Deirdre Barrett,2001-10-30 Finally this volume concludes with a look at the potential traumas of normal life such as divorce bereavement and life threatening illness and the role of dreams in working through normal grief and loss

Nobody's Child Diane Lutovich,2016-12-05 When Diane Sher Lutovich set out to attain closure of her mother s death she simultaneously discovered how other women address their losses Nobody's Child How Older Women Say Good bye to Their Mothers in poetry and prose tells the big and little stories of women who having come of age during the feminist revolution lived very different lives than their mothers The author addresses the guilt a daughter feels when confronted by her mother's life choices the loss of family history and a belated recognition of her mother's legacy The voices are heard within these pages giving occasion for the reader to learn about the multiplicity of feelings including remorse fear frustration compassion and deep admiration that many daughters experience at their mother's passing

Death and Dying John F. Szabo, 2009-11-02 While it can be traced to the 1700s the term thanatology has gained traction in recent decades to refer to the study of death Because of the breadth of the published material and the challenges of discovery in large bibliographic databases and catalogs finding and identifying monographic material on death dying grief and bereavement can be extremely challenging Although there have been several bibliographical resources published on thanatology those titles were incomplete limited in scope or leaned heavily toward one area of the field In Death and Dying An Annotated Bibliography of the Thanatological Literature John F Szabo provides more than 2 200 citations of monographs on the science and study of death and dying Among the areas this volume addresses are the psychological philosophical and attitudinal aspects coping and dealing with the burdens of caregiving and working in the helping professions instructional and educational topics for practitioners primarily health care providers cultural differences in bereavement rituals and grief mourning and loss In addition notable titles on or relating to death and dying in popular culture death themes in literature methods of death or specific ethical policy or public issues are also included when they contribute important information to subject areas on which the book focuses This book will be helpful to students researchers academics caregivers health care professionals psychologists social workers and anyone with an interest in death dying bereavement or the care of the terminally ill
