Ancient America presents new evidence of transoceanic visitors to America hundreds even thousands of years before Christopher Columbus was born Its 20 eminent contributors are experts in a variety of fields from botany biology and prehistoric engineering to underwater archaeology archaeo astronomy and Bronze Age warfare In ancient times the sea was not an impassable barrier separating our ancestors from the outside world but a highway taking them to every corner of it Never before and nowhere else has so much evidence proving the impact made on America by overseas visitors been assembled You will learn about A chain of stonewalls across southern Illinois that has stood for the last two millennia A profusion of plants flourishing throughout the United States and Canada that originated more than 20 centuries ago Underwater ruins recently found off the coast of Oregon Bronze Age oil wells in Pennsylvania And much much more The Lost History of Ancient America ends the debate between cultural diffusionists who have always known that our ancient ancestors did not consider the sea an impassable barrier and cultural isolationists who have been equally certain that humans lacked the know how and courage for global navigation until a little more than 500 years ago

Water and African American Memory Anissa J. Wardi,2025-03-25 While there is no lack of scholarship on the trans Atlantic voyage and the Middle Passage as tropes in African diasporic writing to date there has not been a comprehensive analysis of bodies of water in African American literature and culture In Water and African American Memory Anissa Wardi offers the first sustained treatise on watercourses in the African American expressive tradition Her holistic approach especially highlights the ways that water acts not only as a metaphorical site of trauma memory and healing but also as a material site Using the trans Atlantic voyage as a starting point and ending with a discussion of Hurricane Katrina this pioneering ecocritical study delves deeply into the environmental dimension of African American writing Beyond proposing a new theoretical map for conceptualizing the African Diaspora Wardi offers a series of engaging and original close readings of major literary filmic and blues texts including the works of Toni Morrison Ntozake Shange Julie Dash Henry Dumas and Kasi Lemmons

The First Mapping of America Alex Johnson,2017-08-23 The First Mapping of America tells the story of the General Survey At the heart of the story lie the remarkable maps and the men who made them the commanding and highly professional Samuel Holland Surveyor General in the North and the brilliant but mercurial William Gerard De Brahm Surveyor General in the South Battling both physical and political obstacles Holland and De Brahm sought to establish their place in the firmament of the British hierarchy Yet the reality in which they had to operate was largely controlled from afar by Crown administrators in London and the colonies and by wealthy speculators whose approval or opposition could make or break the best laid plans as they sought to use the Survey for their own ends

The Lost Colonies of Ancient America Frank Joseph,2013-10-21 Was America truly unknown to the outside world until Christopher Columbus discovered it in 1492 Could a people gifted enough to raise the Great Pyramid more than 4 000 years ago have lacked the skills necessary to build a ship capable of crossing the Atlantic Did the Phoenicians who circumnavigated the African continent in 600 bc never consider sailing farther Were the Vikings the most fearless warriors and seafarers of all time terrified at the prospect of a transoceanic voyage If so how are we to account for an Egyptian temple accidentally unearthed by Tennessee Valley Authority workers in 1935 What is a beautifully crafted metal plate with the image of a Phoenician woman doing in the Utah desert And who can explain the discovery of Viking houses and wharves excavated outside of Boston These enigmas are but a tiny fraction of the abundant physical proof for Old World visitors to our continent hundreds and thousands of years ago In addition Sumerians Minoans Romans Celts ancient Hebrews Indonesians Africans Chinese Japanese Welsh Irish and the Knights Templar all made their indelible if neglected mark on our land
