Lost Lunar Baedeker Poems Of Mina Loy:

The Lost Lunar Baedeker Mina Loy, 1996 There was a time when it was common to couple Mina Loy's name with that of W C Williams or Marianne Moore her advanced contemporaries considered her a literary and artistic genius a descendant of Sappho by way of Emily Dickinson But the public was scandalized by her work and some critics openly scorned it Not only were her Futurist inspired techniques unlike anything most readers had encountered before but her subjects procreation parturition prostitution suicide addiction retardation were considered shocking even by some modernists Mina Loy vanished from the literary scene just as dramatically as she arrived on it and for most of the century her bold experiments have remained a well kept secret But in recent years Loy's work has been discovered by a new generation of poets and critics and has begun to surface in revisionist anthologies What has been needed is a reliable text of the essential Loy poems To assemble The Lost Lunar Baedeker Roger Conover has rescued Loy's poems and prose works from the Dada magazines and other ephemeral publications where they first appeared All of Loy's notorious Futurist and feminist satires are included as are many poems from her Paris and New York periods the complete cycle of Love Songs and several previously unknown texts Detailed notes accompany the text BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved

The Lost Lunar Baedeker Mina Loy, 1997-04-08 Mina Loy's technique and subjects prostitution menstruation destitution and suicide shock even some modernists and she vanished from the poetry scene as dramatically as she had appeared on it Roger Conover has rescued the key texts from the pages of forgotten publications and has included all of the futurist and feminist satires poems from Loy's Paris and New York periods and the complete cycle of Love Songs as well as previously unknown texts and detailed notes

The Lost Lunar Baedeker Mina Loy, Roger L. Conover, 1997 Posthumously launched as the electric age Blake Mina Loy's futurist techniques were unlike anything British critics had seen before her subjects sex parturition prostitution suicide addiction retardation were considered shocking even by some modernists

Poetic Salvage Tara Prescott, 2016-12-19 Mina Loy poet artist exile and luminary was a prominent and admired figure in the art and literary circles of Paris Florence and New York in the early years of the twentieth century But over time she gradually receded from public consciousness and her poetry went out of print As part of the movement to introduce the work of this cryptic poet to modern audiences Poetic Salvage Reading Mina Loy provides new and detailed explications of Loy's most redolent poems This book helps readers gain a better understanding of the body of Loy's work as a whole by offering compelling close readings that uncover the source materials that inspired Loy's poetry including modern artwork Baedeker travel guides and even long forgotten cultural venues Helpfully keyed to the contents of Loy's Lost Lunar Baedeker edited by Roger Conover this book is an essential aid for new readers and scholars alike Mina Loy forged a legacy worthy of serious consideration through a practice best understood as salvage work of reclaiming what has been so long obscured Poetic Salvage Reading Mina Loy dives deep to bring hidden treasures to the surface

Reading Machines in the Modernist Transatlantic Eric B White, 2020-06-18 Reading Machines in the Modernist Transatlantic provides a new account of aesthetic and technological innovation from the Machine Age to the Information Age

Reading Machines in the Modernist Transatlantic White Eric White, 2020-06-18 A revisionist account of technology's role in the aesthetics spaces and politics of transatlantic avant gardes Explores a range of key avant garde formations in the modernist transatlantic period from the Italian futurists and English Vorticists to the Dada surrealist and post Harlem Renaissance African American experimentalists Explores writers and artists inventions as well as their texts and involves them directly in the messy transductions of technology in culture Draws on previously unknown photos manuscripts and other evidence that reveals the untold story of Bob and Rose Brown's reading machine a cross disciplinary metaformational and transnational project that proposed to transform the everyday act of reading Reading Machines in the Modernist Transatlantic provides a new account of aesthetic and technological innovation from the Machine Age to the Information Age Drawing on a wealth of archival discoveries it argues that modernist avant gardes used technology not only as a means of analysing culture but as a way of feeding back into it As well as uncovering a new invention by Mina Loy the untold story of Bob Brown s reading machine and the radical technicities of African American experimentalists including Gwendolyn Bennett and Ralph Ellison the book places avant gardes at the centre of innovation across a variety of fields From dazzle camouflage to microfilm and from rail networks to broadcast systems White explores how vanguardists harnessed socio technics to provoke social change

Transformations of Trauma in Women's Writing Laura

Alexander,2023-01-10 This volume examines the ways in which trauma alters women s identities While some of the chapters look deeply at individual experiences many of the contributions look to national traumas and the consequences of political abuses including colonial subjugation and genocide for women The book shows that language has a transformative power to change us to give us a great capacity for inner and outer dialogues and for healing and self love As shown here women have historically employed autobiography and memoir to free themselves and others rather than seeing the limit of form they reinvent the parameters to offer a new relationship with language

Pockets of Change Jane Stadler,Peta Mitchell,Adam Atkinson,Tricia Hopton,2011-04-29

The twelve essays collected in Pockets of Change locate adaptation within a framework of two overlapping if not simultaneous creative processes on the one hand adaptation is to be understood as an acknowledged transposition of an existing source that is the process of adapting from on the other hand adaption is also a process of purposeful shifting and evolving of creative practices in response to external factors including but not limited to other creative works in other words the process of adapting to This book explores adaptation then as an active practice of repetition and as a reactive process of development or evolution The essays also extend beyond the production transformation and interpretation of texts to interrogate the values and practices at work in cultural transition and transformation during periods of social and historical change Collectively the papers theorize adaptation by taking on three tasks first to examine the conditions under which the two processes of adaptation operate second to give an account of the space and moment in which the processes unfold the pockets of the title and finally to examine what emerges from pockets of adaptation While adapting from and adapting to are both processes that appear to preclude innovation in the way that they acknowledge and depend on external sources Pockets of Change demonstrates that adaptation is productive It not only references prior texts attitudes practices and media but it also invites us to re visit the past and to re think the present in new ways potentially giving narrative space to muted or occluded voices This book therefore brings together an innovative and varied range of approaches to interpretations and uses of adaptation challenging the assumption that an adaptation is simply either a re make or the act of turning one medium into another Adaptation then names not only the means by which texts are transformed but also the space in which that transformation takes place T

Dynamic Form Cara L. Lewis, 2020-07-15 Dynamic Form traces how intermedial experiments shape modernist texts from 1900 to 1950 Considering literature alongside painting sculpture photography and film Cara Lewis examines how these arts inflect narrative movement contribute to plot events and configure poetry and memoir As forms and formal theories cross from one artistic realm to another and back again modernism shows its obsession with form and even at times becomes a formalism itself but as Lewis writes that form is far more dynamic than we have given it credit for Form fulfills such various functions that we cannot characterize it as a mere container for content or matter nor can we consign it to ignominy opposite historicism or political commitment As a structure or scheme that enables action form in modernism can be plastic protean or even fragile and works by Henry James Virginia Woolf Mina Loy Evelyn Waugh and Gertrude Stein demonstrate the range of form s operations Revising three major formal paradigms spatial form pure form and formlessness and recasting the history of modernist form this book proposes an understanding of form as a verbal category as a kind of doing Dynamic Form thus opens new possibilities for conversation between modernist studies and formalist studies and simultaneously promotes a capacious rethinking of the convergence between literary modernism and creative work in other media
