Major, 2016 Maine was once a national leader in the temperance movement to outlaw alcohol In the last 30 years however the Pine Tree State has been equally influential in the craft beer movement Since 1986 when David and Karen Geary opened New England's first microbrewery more than 50 breweries have opened in Maine The state not only ranks among the top 10 for breweries per capita it also boasts two of the 50 largest craft breweries in the country The personalities and visions of the brewers are as diverse as the beers they create Some have opened their breweries in the hulking mill complexes of Lewiston and Biddeford or the former factories of Portland Others have brewed at the scenic mountain resorts of Sugarloaf and Sunday River or on the quaint historic wharves of Belfast and Kennebunk and even on distant Monhegan Island Farmstead breweries have sprung up from Skowhegan to Lyman while the state's industrial parks are no less fertile

Carried Away Rachel Bowlby, 2002-09-17 Asserting that a history of shopping was until recently a history of women Rachel Bowlby trains her eye on the evolution of the modern shopper She uses a compelling blend of history literary analysis and cultural criticism to explore the rise of department stores and supermarkets of the United States France and Great Britain Bowlby recalls the fascinating early days of these institutions In the mid nineteenth century when department stores first developed their fabulous new buildings brought middle class women into town where they could indulge in what was then a new activity a day's shopping The stores offered luxury flattering women into believing that they belonged in a beautiful environment It is here Bowlby argues that the idea of the modern woman's passion for fashion and shopping took hold Developed in the twentieth century supermarkets took an opposite tack they offered functionality standardization and cheapness However Bowlby claims despite their differences the two institutions belong together as emblematic of their respective eras social developments the department store with the growth of cities the supermarket with the proliferation of suburbs With their dazzling lights and displays both supermarkets and department stores were thought to produce in females an enhanced or trance like state of mind For readers who regard shopping as a spectator or participatory sport and for those who wish to understand our culture and the psychology of women or those who simply enjoy a witty literate romp through the aisles Carried Away is the perfect purchase
