Lost In A Harem:

Lost in a Harem Loew's Incorporated, 1944 Screenplay of the Abbott and Costello film The Exhibitor, 1944 Some issues include separately paged sections Better management Physical theatre extra profits Review Servisection The Annotated Abbott and Costello Matthew Coniam, Nick Santa Maria, 2023-01-11 Abbott and Costello were the most popular comedians of the 1940s with burlesque inspired routines that enthralled audiences on both radio and television Oddly their films have not received the same level of attention from critics and writers as those of other comedy teams This book is a scene by scene film by film guide to their movies making a compelling case for their inclusion at the very top of comic artists Featuring new research and some surprising revelations the book introduces newcomers to the delights of this uproarious team and provides confirmed fans with the ultimate companion to their work Also included is a foreword by John Landis the celebrated director and Abbott and Costello devotee Abbott and Costello on the Home Front Scott Allen Nollen, 2009-06-08 As two of the most popular entertainers of the mid century film industry comic greats Bud Abbott and Lou Costello offered an essential balm to the American public following the sorrows of the Great Depression and during the trauma of World War II This is the first book to focus in detail on the immensely popular wartime films of Abbott and Costello discussing the production content and reception of 18 films within the context of wartime events on the home front and abroad The films covered include the service comedies Buck Privates In the Navy and Keep Em Flying more mainstream comic relief films such as Pardon My Sarong and Who Done It and post war experiments such as Little Giant and The Time of Their Lives More than 120 stills and lobby cards from the author's personal collection illustrate the text including many showing outtakes or deleted scenes Best Years Charles Affron, Mirella Jona Affron, 2009-08-14 Americans flocked to the movies in 1945 and 1946 the center point of the three decade heyday of the studio system's sound era Why Best Years is a panoramic study shining light on this critical juncture in American history and the history of American cinema the end of World War II 1945 and a year of unprecedented success in Hollywood's Golden Age 1946 This unique time the last year of war and the first full year of peace provides a rich blend of cinema genres and types from the battlefield to the home front the peace film to the woman's film psychological drama and the period's provocative new style film noir Best Years focuses on films that were famous infamous forgotten and unforgettable Big budget A films road shows and familiar series share the spotlight From Bergman and Grant in Notorious to Abbott and Costello in Lost in a Harem Charles Affron and Mirella Jona Affron examine why the bond between screen and viewer was perhaps never tighter Paying special attention to the movie going public in key cities Atlanta New York Boston Honolulu and Chicago this ambitious work takes us on a cinematic journey to recapture a magical time "Material Cultures, 1740?920 " Alla Myzelev, 2017-07-05 Interweaving notions of identity and subjectivity spatial contexts materiality and meaning this collection makes a significant contribution to debates around the status and interpretation of visual and material culture Material Cultures 1740 1920 has four primary theoretical and historiographic lines of inquiry The first is how concepts of otherness and difference inform imbricate and impose themselves on identity and the modes of acquisition as well as the objects themselves The second concern explores the intricacies of how objects and their subjects negotiate and represent spatial narratives The third thread attempts to unravel the ideological underpinnings of collections of individuals which inevitably and invariably rub up against the social the institutional and the political Finally at the heart of Material Cultures 1740 1920 is an intervention moving beyond the disciplinary ethos of material culture to argue more firmly for the aesthetic visual and semiotic potency inseparable from any understanding of material objects integral to the lives of their collecting subjects The collection argues that objects are semiotic conduits or signs of meanings pleasures and desires that are deeply subjective more often than not they reveal racial gendered and sexual identities As the volume demonstrates through its various case studies material and visual cultures are not as separate as our current disciplinary ethos would lead us to believe
