Stirring the Pot Laura Sloan Patterson, 2014-01-10 The term domesticity may bring to mind cooking cleaning and tranquil evenings at home. During the last few decades however American domesticity has become ever more politicized as third wave feminists conservative critics and others debate the very meaning of home and family. Despite this new wave of debate the home particularly the kitchen is comfortable territory for the consolidation of issues of gender space marketplace community and technology in twentieth century literature. This work looks closely at a wide variety of southern domestic literature focusing particularly on the role of the family kitchen as a driving force in the narratives of Ellen Glasgow Eudora Welty Lee Smith and Toni Morrison. Topics include the overtones of isolation and the almost claustrophobic third person narration of Glasgow's Virginia and Life and Gabriella the communal kitchen and its role in defining the sexual discourse of Welty's Delta Wedding the unification of national railway lines and its consequences for the traditional Appalachian kitchen in Smith's Oral History and Fair and Tender Ladies and the lasting effects of slavery on the haunted domesticity of the African American kitchen in Morrison's Jazz Paradise and Love Old Home Love Candis Meredith, Andy Meredith, 2017-03-07 Get to know the couple and the houses behind Old Home Love Andy and Candis Meredith believe there's nothing that can't be fixed Their passion for saving and renovating old homes which caught the attention of HGTV sparked the creation of their new reality series Old Home Love Their stunning debut book features never before seen images of more than 15 homes including their own renovated by the couple themselves do it yourself renovation tips and guidance and their family's story Old Home Love will inspire readers to discover the history and beauty behind their own homes regardless of location or style Andy and Candis Meredith take dilapidated houses from the 1800s and restore them to their original beauty for future homeowners to cherish for years to come They live in Payson Utah with their six little boys and baby girl in tow The Child and the Book: a Manual of Method, for Sunday School Teachers and Other Religious Instructors. ...
