Love Marriage:

Gospel Love, Marriage and Divorce Randall Lamb, 2020-03-05 The centrality of God in all things is not a novel concept to Christianity at least not in theory For centuries it would appear that the Church has somehow allowed herself to remove the God centered gospel definition from marriage and has subsequently fashioned a culturally subjective definition of love marriage and divorce that has left God in many respects far from the center This book however will pay less attention to our own domestic legacies of love marriage and divorce It is more so about the church covenants conditions true fidelity perseverance God centered joy authenticity fraud legalism and apostasy It is a journey into the kingdom of God wherein the visible and invisible church along with love marriage and divorce all seem to collide with the gospel of glory and grace

LOVE, MARRIAGE, and THE BABY CARRIAGE David R. L. Stevens, 2011-01-14 The Modern Family in Japan Chizuko Ueno, 2009 This award winning book brings together Chizuko Ueno's groundbreaking essays on the rise and fall of the modern family in Japan Combining historical sociological anthropological and journalistic methodologies Ueno who is arguably the foremost feminist theoretician in Japan delineates in vivid detail how the family has been changing in form and function in the last hundred years In each chapter Ueno introduces the reader to a different facet of modern Japanese family life ranging from children who fantasize about being orphans to the elderly who confront pre senescence The central focus is on the housewife her history her ever changing responsibilities her ways of surviving mid life crisis This is an indispensable book for students and scholars seeking to understand modern Japan International Handbook of Love Claude-Hélène Mayer, Elisabeth Vanderheiden, 2021-05-04 This handbook is the winner of the William B Gudykunst Award for Outstanding Book in 2023 given by the International Academy of Intercultural Research This handbook includes state of the art research on love in classical modern and postmodern perspectives It expands on previous literature and explores topics around love from new cultural intercultural and transcultural approaches and across disciplines It provides insights into various love concepts like romantic love agape and eros in their cultural embeddedness and their changes and developments in specific cultural contexts It also includes discussions on postmodern aspects with regard to love and love relationships such as digitalisation globalisation and the fourth industrial revolution The handbook covers a vast range of topics in relation to love aging health special needs sexual preferences spiritual practice subcultures family and other relationships and so on The chapters look at love not only in terms of the universal concept and in private intimate relationships but apply a broad concept of love which can also for example be referred to in postmodern workplaces This volume is of interest to a wide readership including researchers practitioners and students of the social sciences humanities and behavioural sciences In the 1970s through the 90s I was told that globalization was homogenizing cultures into a worldwide monoculture This volume as risky and profound as the many adventures of love across our multiplying cultures are proves otherwise The authors revolutionary and courageous work will challenge our sensibilities and expand the boundaries of what we understand what love is But that's what love does It communicates what it offers what can be and pleads for what must be I know you'll enjoy this wonderful book as much as I do Jeffrey Ady Associate Professor retired Public Administration Program University of Hawaii at Manoa Founding Fellow International Academy for Intercultural Research The International Handbook of Love is far more than a traditional compendium It is a breath taking attempt to synthesize our anthropological and sociological knowledge on love It illuminates topics as diverse as Chinese love one night stands teen romance or love of leaders and many more This is a definitive reference in the field of love studies Eva Illouz author of The End of Love A sociology of Negative relationships Oxford University Press This is not a volume to be read in a single sitting though I almost did due to a protracted hospital stay nor is it romantic or inspirational reading though in some cases I had hoped for more narrative examples and case studies Rather it is a highly diverse scholarly effort a massive resource collection of research papers on love in a variety of contexts personal and professional settings and cultures The work is well referenced providing a large number of resources for deeper exploration We owe our thanks to the authors and editors of this handbook for work well done though that word in the title should not lead readers to suspect that enlightening as it is this book is a vade mecum or practical tour guide that provides ready solutions to the vicissitudes and challenges of our love lives Reviewed by Dr George F Simons on amazon com Please see Claude H l ne Mayer's interview related to the handbook in LeanHealth Talks published by Bernadette Bruckner <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=yVNXA9sWuWo> Please see Claude H l ne Mayer's interview related to the handbook published in Iran News Daily <https://newspaper.irandaily.ir/nid/6941/pid/6/type/0>

Arranging Marriage Marian Aguiar, 2018-01-02 The first critical analysis of contemporary arranged marriage among South Asians in a global context Arranged marriage is an institution of global fascination an object of curiosity revulsion outrage and even envy Marian Aguiar provides the first sustained analysis of arranged marriage as a transnational cultural phenomenon revealing how its meaning has been continuously reinvented within the South Asian diaspora of Britain the United States and Canada Aguiar identifies and analyzes representations of arranged marriage in an interdisciplinary set of texts from literary fiction and Bollywood films to digital and print media to contemporary law and policy on forced marriage Aguiar interprets depictions of South Asian arranged marriage to show we are in a moment of conjugal globalization identifying how narratives about arranged marriage bear upon questions of consent agency state power and national belonging Aguiar argues that these discourses illuminate deep divisions in the processes of globalization constructed on a fault line between individualist and collectivist agency and in the process critiques neoliberal celebrations of culture as choice that attempt to bridge that separation Aguiar advocates situating arranged marriage discourses within their social and material contexts so as to see past reductive notions of culture and grasp the global forces mediating increasingly polarized visions of agency

Transitioning to Adulthood in Asia: School, Work, and Family Life Wei-Jun Jean Yeung, Cheryl Alipio, Frank F. Furstenberg, Jr., 2013-03-07 In the past decade or so scholars in the United States have identified the emergence of a new distinct stage of life as adolescence has become protracted and most young people of recent generations take longer to achieve economic and psychological autonomy than they did a half century ago This new life stage in between adolescence and adulthood when young people are in a semiautonomous state has come to be known as early adulthood Main characteristics of this new life stage include a later entry into the work force a longer period of time living in the natal home and a delayed age at marriage and childbearing These trends not only have profound implications for young adults well being and intergenerational relationships but also challenge social institutions such as family schools labor markets and many youth serving institutions

Marriage and Sacrament Michael G. Lawler,1993 At a time in human history when women and men are more concerned about interpersonal relationships and when there is an extensive questioning of the specific relationship between a woman and a man in marriage Marriage and Sacrament offers an understanding of how to live out the Christ meaning and Church meaning of that relationship so that by living martially and sacramentally couples can reveal to the world and to the Church the deeper meaning of all human love The book examines the relationship among love marriage and sacrament it examines the meanings of the sacrament of marriage its biblical basis its history and what happens when it comes to an end it examines sexual love indissoluble love fruitful love and ecumenical love in relationship to both marriage and sacrament Marriage and Sacrament is an indispensable resource for pastoral ministers and ministry students as well as all who contemplate or are now partners in marriage

Keywords for Today The Keywords Project,Colin MacCabe,Holly Yanacek,2018-09-03 Keywords for Today takes us deep into the history of the language in order to better understand our contemporary world From nature to cultural appropriation and from market to terror the most important words in political and cultural debate have complicated and complex histories This book sketches these histories in ways that illuminate the political bent and values of our current society Written by The Keywords Project an independent group of scholars who have spent more than a decade on this work Keywords for Today updates and extends Raymond Williams s classic work Keywords A Vocabulary of Culture and Society It updates some 40 of Williams s original entries and adds 86 new entries ranging from access to youth The book is both a history of English documenting important semantic change in the language and a handbook of current political and ideological debate Whether it is demonstrating the only recently acquired religious meaning of fundamentalism or the complicated linguistic history of queer Keywords for Today will intrigue and enlighten

Strangers in the Family Guo-Quan Seng,2023-11-15 In Strangers in the Family Guo Quan Seng provides a gendered history of settler Chinese community formation in Indonesia during the Dutch colonial period 1816 1942 At the heart of this story lies the creolization of patrilineal Confucian marital and familial norms to the colonial legal moral and sexual conditions of urban Java Departing from male centered narratives of Overseas Chinese communities Strangers in the Family tells the history of community formation from the perspective of women who were subordinate to and alienated from full Chinese selfhood From native concubines and mothers creole Chinese daughters and wives and matriarchs to the first generation of colonial educated feminists Seng showcases women s moral agency as they negotiated manipulated and debated men in positions of authority over their rights in marriage formation and dissolution In dialogue with critical studies of colonial Eurasian intimacies this book explores Asian centered inter ethnic patterns of intimate encounters It shows how contestations over women s place in marriage and in society were formative of a Chinese racial identity in colonial Indonesia

Mainstream Culture Refocused Xueping Zhong,2019-01-31 Serialized television drama dianshiju perhaps the most popular and influential cultural form in China over the past three decades offers a wide and penetrating look at the tensions and contradictions of the post revolutionary and pro market period Zhong Xueping s timely new work draws attention to the multiple cultural and historical legacies that coexist and challenge each other within this dominant form of story telling Although scholars tend to focus their attention on elite cultural trends and avant garde movements in literature and film Zhong argues for recognizing the complexity of dianshiju s melodramatic mode and its various subgenres in effect refocusing mainstream Chinese culture Mainstream Culture Refocused opens with an examination of television as a narrative motif in three contemporary Chinese art house films Zhong then turns her attention to dianshiju s most important subgenres Emperor dramas highlight the link between popular culture s obsession with emperors and modern Chinese intellectuals preoccupation with issues of history and tradition and how they relate to modernity In her exploration of the anti corruption subgenre Zhong considers three representative dramas exploring their diverse plots and emphases Youth dramas rich array of representations reveal the numerous social economic cultural and ideological issues surrounding the notion of youth and its changing meanings The chapter on the family marriage subgenre analyzes the ways in which women s emotions are represented in relation to their desire for happiness Song lyrics from music composed for television dramas are considered as popular poetics Their sentiments range between nostalgia and uncertainty mirroring the social contradictions of the reform era The Epilogue returns to the relationship between intellectuals and the production of mainstream cultural meaning in the context of China s post revolutionary social economic and cultural transformation Provocative and insightful Mainstream Culture Refocused will appeal to scholars and students in studies of modern China generally and of contemporary Chinese media and popular culture specifically Critical Globalization Studies Richard P.

Social Status of Women in Developing Countries Man Singh Das,Vijay Kumar Gupta,1995 The book focuses on the past traditional roles of women and also identifies direction of change rate of change and the causes of change in women s status

It has also been pointed out that these recent developments in the status of women may become the future sociology of changing sex roles in the developing countries and may recast marriage and family in new and different molds The International Journal of Indian Psychology, Volume 1, Issue 4, No. 1 IJIP.In,2014-07-25 The International Journal of Indian Psychology ISSN 2348 5396 is an academic journal that examines the intersection of psychology home sciences and education IJIP is published quarterly and is available in electronic versions Our expedited review process allows for a thorough analysis by expert peer reviewers within a time line that is much more favorable than many other academic publications

Risky Marriage Melissa Browning,2013-10-29 Given that women and girls carry the heaviest burdens of the African HIV pandemic their lived experiences should be the starting point for any pedagogy of prevention In light of this claim Risky Marriage HIV and Intimate Relationships in Tanzania uses qualitative fieldwork with HIV positive women living in Mwanza Tanzania to ask why marriage is an HIV risk factor By beginning with women s experience as a hermeneutical lens this book seeks to establish a creative space where African women can imagine new alternatives to HIV prevention that would promote human flourishing and abundant life in African communities The aim of this book is to listen faithfully to the lived experiences of HIV positive women and ask how their experiences can help us re imagine Christian conceptions of marriage sexual ethics and health in an HIV positive world By drawing on the unwritten texts of women s lives this study proposes alternative pedagogies for faith based prevention methods and contributes to the wider interdisciplinary and theo ethical discourse on HIV prevention and women s health At the same time it makes local impact of equal importance as women in East African communities are invited to think creatively about ways to end the HIV pandemic For more information and comments from the author watch a trailer for the book here <http://vimeo.com/semafilms/riskymarriage>

Making the Right Choice Asha L. Abeyasekera,2021-03-12 Making the Right Choice unravels the entangled relationship between marriage morality and the desire for modernity as it plays out in the context of middle class status concerns and aspirations for upward social mobility within the Sinhala Buddhist community in urban Sri Lanka By focusing on individual life histories spanning three generations the book illuminates how narratives about a gendered self and narratives about modernity are mutually constituted and intrinsically tied to notions of agency The book uncovers how becoming modern in urban Sri Lanka rather than causing inter generational conflict is a collective aspiration realized through the efforts of bringing up educated and independent women capable of making right choices The consequence of this collective investment is a feminist conundrum agency does not denote the right to choose but the duty to make the right choice hence agency is experienced not as a sense of freedom but rather as a burden of responsibility

The God Within Speaks Hazel Sinanan,2013-09 The God Within Speaks is intended to inspire others to take inward steps through intent desire and action to allow their higher selves to work and live through them in order to facilitate higher consciousness which will open them up to the flow of the Mighty Source As the author unites her mind with that of her higher self allows her higher self to think with and through her and surrenders to the insights of her higher mind wisdom flows The result is inspired thinking that manifests in wisdom teachings aimed at opening up the minds of the readers to contemplate new perspectives and act as a catalyst for truth seeking

Suicide in Sri Lanka Tom Widger, 2015-05-15 Why people kill themselves remains an enduring and unanswered question With a focus on Sri Lanka a country that for several decades has reported epidemic levels of suicidal behaviour this book develops a unique perspective linking the causes and meanings of suicidal practices to social processes across moments lifetimes and history Extending anthropological approaches to practice learning and agency anthropologist Tom Widger draws from long term fieldwork in a Sinhala Buddhist community to develop an ethnographic theory of suicide that foregrounds local knowledge and sets out a charter for prevention The book highlights the motives of children and adults becoming suicidal and how certain gender age class relationships and violence are prone to give rise to suicidal responses By linking these experiences to emotional states it develops an ethnopsychiatric model of suicide rooted in social practice Widger then goes on to examine how suicides are resolved at village and national levels tracing the roots of interventions to the politics of colonial and post colonial social welfare and health regimes Exploring local accounts of suicide as both evidence for the suicide epidemic and as an ethos of suicidality shaping subjective worlds Suicide in Sri Lanka shows how anthropological analysis can offer theoretical as well as policy insights With the inclusion of straightforward summaries and implications for prevention at the end of each chapter this book has relevance for specialists and non specialists alike It represents an important new contribution to South Asian Studies Social Anthropology and Medical Anthropology as well as to cross cultural Suicidology

Family Upheaval Mikkel Rytter, 2013-06-01 Pakistani migrant families in Denmark find themselves in a specific ethno national post 9 11 environment where Muslim immigrants are subjected to processes of non recognition exclusion and securitization This ethnographic study explores how why and at what costs notions of relatedness identity and belonging are being renegotiated within local families and transnational kinship networks Each entry point concerns the destructive productive constitution of family life where neglected responsibilities obligations and trust lead not only to broken relationships but also and inevitably to the innovative creation of new ones By connecting the micro politics of the migrant family with the macro politics of the nation state and global conjunctures in general the book argues that securitization and suspicion launched in the name of integration escalate internal community dynamics and processes of family upheaval in unpredicted ways
