Love Of Gold:

The young author takes pleasure in bringing her work into the light of the world for all to see and enjoy. It is also about self permission and spiritual as well as emotional evolution. This book is an invitation for you to find your own resourceful nature and power through curiosity and an attitude of play to live life as a work of art and adventurous game. It has bits and pieces of my journey weaved throughout with inspiration and activities for you to design a life you love. Like a sad puppy waiting to be loved, the inner child longs for more expression and so this was a gift of creation to her previously denied by the inner perfectionist not willing to take the risk of failure which of course is an illusion. To move past this insidious pattern I granted myself the space and permission to do less of what I thought I should do and more of what I wanted thus changing my life for the better. I am no longer the person who sat down to write her first book, a book about the freedom to be fully expressed. May it inspire the same transformation for you. The English Madrigal School Edmund H. Fellowes, 1920 The demon of gold Henrik Conscience, 1857 The End of Love Sabrina Strings, 2024-01-30 From Playboy to Jay Z, the racial origins of toxic masculinity and its impact on women, especially Black and insufficiently white women. More men than ever are refusing loving partnerships and commitment and instead seeking out situationships. When these men deign to articulate what they are looking for in a steady partner, they ll often rely on superficial norms of attractiveness rooted in whiteness and anti Blackness. Connecting the past to the present, sociologist Sabrina Strings argues that following the Civil Rights movement and the integration of women during the Second Wave Feminist movement, men aimed to hold on to their power by withholding love and commitment, a basic tenet of white supremacy and male domination that served to manipulate all women. From pornography to hip hop, women, especially Black and insufficiently white women, were presented as gold diggers, props for masturbation and side pieces. Using historical research, personal stories, and critical analysis, Strings argues that the result is fuccboism, the latest incarnation of toxic masculinity. This work shows that men are not innately toxic. Nor do they hate love, commitment, or sex. Instead, men across race have been working a new code to effectively deny loving partnerships to women who are not pliant, slim, and white as a new mode of male domination. Lorin Roche, meditation teacher and author of The Radiance Sutras. Many of us yearn to feel a greater sense of inner calm ease joy and purpose We have tried meditation and found it too difficult We judge ourselves for being no good at emptying our minds as if one ever could or compare ourselves with yogis who seem to have it all together We live in a steady state of not good enough It does not have to be this way In Good Morning I Love You Dr Shauna Shapiro brings alive the brain science behind why we feel the way we do about ourselves each other and the world and explains why we get stuck in thinking that doesn't serve us It turns out that we are hardwired to be self critical and negative And this negativity is constantly undermining our experience of life It is never too late to rewire your brain for positivity for calm clarity and joy writes Dr Shapiro I know this is possible because I experienced it Best of all you can begin wherever you are In short lively chapters laced with science wisdom and story Shapiro one of the leading scientists studying the effects of mindfulness on the brain shows us that acting with kindness and compassion toward ourselves is the key With her roadmap to guide you including her signature Good Morning I Love You practice in which you deliberately greet yourself each day with these simple words you can change your brain's circuitry and steady yourself in feelings of deep calm clarity and joy For good
