A Home for Hannelore Theresa L. Potts,2016-09-13 She crept back down the stairs and turned to her left and saw a stone path which she began to follow that led to the back of the house There she saw a large enclosed back porch that had many tall windows and a door She thought to herself that Mama would love to sit out there in the afternoons and Rick could even sleep in his playpen in the enclosed area and how she would just love to play in this big backyard She turned her eyes to the wide long lawn that comprised the back of the property and she spied two very large maple trees in the very back of the yard the leaves of which were just beginning to turn red and mused that her father could put swings up on each of the trees Just as she was delighting herself with all the wonderful possibilities of living there she heard mans voice behind her softly ask Are you looking for someone little girl She whirled around suddenly afraid of both being on someones property without her mothers permission and meeting up with a stranger She began to stammer a reply but couldnt form her words very well I I I was I mean I was just looking

The Letters: Portrait of an Artist, Jim Houser Connie Houser,2007-10-05 The Letters

Portrait of an Artist Jim Houser is a book about Connie and Jim Houser's passion for art and each other as well as for living and family. It is a dialogue about their adventures in pursuing those loves and achieving recognition for their accomplishments. In 2008 the book garnered FIRST PLACE in the DIY California Book Fest and HONORABLE MENTIONS in A DOZEN BOOK FESTS including the New England Book Fest and the LONDON ENGLAND book fest. It is a readable visual delight. There is a profound degree of suchness or Zen quality in Jim Houser's paintings as well as a lyricism not unlike the clear concise resonance of Robert Frost's shorter verse. Those essentials are shown in the almost forty paintings photographed for The Letters Portrait of an Artist Jim Houser. The imagined and inventive device and use of letters or messages in The Letters Portrait of an Artist Jim Houser swiftly conveys the actual events in Jim and Connie Houser's lives. The creative partners are portrayed in a rapidly moving dialogue that involves the reader in artist's competitions, art gallery shows, foreign and domestic travel, family life, and an understanding of the profession of producing a fine work of art in modern times. The Letters Portrait of an Artist Jim Houser explains that a fine work of art is very different from the remainder of artistic endeavor. Fine art engages the viewer in a visual dialogue that distinguishes it and bonds the viewer in love or hate but never mediocrity. Not a run of the mill coffee table book, The Letters Portrait of an Artist Jim Houser is a charming and accurate account of the modern day artist's life while creating works of art and bringing them to the public's attention. The story encompasses the tragedies and the successes in the Houser's lives and their interaction with others. Written by the artist's wife, Connie Houser herself, an awarded artist and writer, it spans the artist's relationship thus far and offers insights into their creative work. The Letters Portrait of an Artist Jim Houser follows the artist's creative work accomplished during their hectic everyday existence. The same full lives of having a family, a home, and a job to pay bills necessary today to most people. Although the letters themselves are an imaginative artistic device to enliven the book, the events are true. Not satisfied to just get by, they made career choices that would eventually make them both candidates for inclusion in the prestigious Marquis Who's Who editions of art literature America and the World. Jim has been represented in those volumes for fifteen years, and Connie joined the ranks in 2004. Photographs of his paintings will also appear in the 2008-2009 Who's Who in American Art Artist's gallery. Their ability to continue to work under conditions that might discourage others is made clear in The Letters Portrait of an Artist Jim Houser. Jim's profession is painting, and Connie's is writing and painting. The rest of their work, although they contributed much, enjoyed it, and performed with excellence, was done to pay the bills. Jim was a 30-year college professor and full-time family man. Connie organized family matters, taught part-time while writing for various publications and magazines, plus painting. The carousing hours were the working hours for their creative efforts because silence reigned. Their many travel adventures in the states and abroad guaranteed they played hard with the same energy and enthusiasms. When Jim began winning countless awards for his painting, he was invited to show at numerous exhibitions and in New York City galleries. They added these events plus art show openings to their already hectic schedule. Through it all they managed a fulfilling family life while taking creative care of their parents and allowing them their desired home life

Leonard Bernstein and His Young People's Concerts Alicia Kopfstein-Penk, 2015-01-22 Leonard Bernstein touched millions of lives as composer conductor teacher and activist He frequently visited homes around the world through the medium of television particularly through his fifty three award winning Young People s Concerts 1958 1972 which at their height were seen by nearly ten million in over forty countries Originally designed for young viewers but equally attractive to eager adults Bernstein s brilliance as a teacher shined brightly in his televised presentations And yet despite the light touch of the maestro the innocence of his audience and the joyousness of each show s topic the turbulence of the times would peek through In this first in depth look at the series Alicia Kopfstein Penk s Leonard Bernstein and His Young People s Concerts illustrates how the cultural social political and musical upheavals of the long sixties impacted Bernstein s life and his Young People s Concerts Responding to trends in corporate sponsorship censorship and arts programming from the Golden Age of Television into the 1970s the Young People s Concerts would show the impact of and reflect the social and cultural politics of the Cold War Vietnam the Civil Rights and Women s Movements and the Counterculture Bernstein cheerfully bridged classical and popular tastes juxtaposing the Beatles with Mozart even as he offered personal televised pleas for peace and unity At the same time the concerts reflect Bernstein s troubled relationship as a professional musician with the dominance of atonality and his quest to nurture American music Anyone who enjoys the oeuvre of Leonard Bernstein has watched his Young People s Concerts or is passionate about the history of the long sixties will find in Leonard Bernstein and His Young People s Concerts a story of all three captured in this monumental study

Cries for Carteret Chad Hollamon, 2022-11-28 Being investigated by the federal government for drug and money crimes didn't deter Chad from continuing his criminal enterprise In fact it emboldened him as he dared the DEA and FBI to catch him Being arrested by those same federal agents didn't force Chad to slow his life down And being sentenced to forty years in prison didn't humble him Not one bit From a jail cell he continued selling narcotics and even smuggling drugs into one of the most secure federal penitentiaries For years Chad's life spiraled out of control as he witnessed drug overdoses nonsensical violence suicides and murders His life seemed destined for a negative outcome until one conversation with a mass murderer completely changed his outlook on life That singular conversation set off a chain of events that would ultimately lead Chad to a lifetime of atonement and redemption
