Black Women, Black Love Dianne M Stewart,2020-10-06 A powerful persuasive and devastatingly haunting examination of America s racist centuries long oppression of Black love Carol Anderson bestselling author of White Rage According to the 2010 US census more than seventy percent of Black women in America are unmarried Black Women Black Love reveals how four centuries of laws policies and customs have created that crisis Dianne M Stewart begins in the colonial era when slave owners denied Blacks the right to marry divided families and in many cases raped enslaved women and girls Later during Reconstruction and the ensuing decades violence split up couples again as millions embarked on the Great Migration north where the welfare system mandated that women remain single in order to receive government support And no institution has forbidden Black love as effectively as the prison industrial complex which removes Black men en masse from the pool of marriageable partners Prodigiously researched and deeply felt Black Women Black Love reveals how white supremacy has systematically broken the heart of Black America and it proposes strategies for dismantling the structural forces that have plagued Black love and marriage for centuries

Black/White Writing Pauline Fletcher,1993 The volume closes with an essay by Gerald Monsman that takes the reader back to an earlier South Africa examining Olive Schreiner s writing in the broader context of other stories from an imperialist past Two poems by Dennis Brutus open the volume They speak eloquently of human suffering and the desire for peace

Love Me Black Or Love Me White Agnes Arany,2009-04 Twenty three year old Anna is mesmerized when she meets thirty one year old Edmund a medical student attending a university in Budapest Hungary While Anna sees nothing wrong with her relationship with Edmund her parents and others are critical of her dating a black man from Kenya In this lead story in a collection of seven Love Me Black or Love Me White describes the hypocrisy of the communist regime as well as the world seeing only skin color instead of human beings The stories in Love Me Black or Love Me White are charged with contemporary interest human dignity in an indifferent world as seen through the eyes of author Agnes Arany Based on real events each story takes place in a different country Violations originated from Arany s experiences as an interpreter in the Soviet Union and witnessing the roots of Communism Wives are Best When Thrashed The Old Hindu and Palm Branch and Typhoon arose from her personal observations while traveling abroad A keen observer of the reality around her Arany harbors sympathy for the world s downtrodden and explores these issues in this collection Love Me Black or Love Me White describes the world as she sees it and demonstrates that life itself is the best storyteller

Frantz Fanon's 'Black Skin, White Masks' Max Silverman,2017-10-03 First published in 1952 Frantz Fanon s Black Skin White Masks is one of the most important anti colonial works of the post war period It is both a profound critique of the conscious and unconscious ways in which colonialism brutalises the colonised and a passionate cry from deep within a black body alienated by the colonial system and in search of liberation from it This volume is the first collection of essays specifically devoted to Fanon's text. It offers a wide range of interpretations of the text by leading scholars in a number of disciplines. Chapters deal with Fanon's Martinican heritage, Fanon and Creolism, ideas of race and racism, and new humanism. Fanon and Sartre's representations of Blacks and Jews and the psychoanalysis of race, gender, and violence. Contributors offer new ways of reading the text and the volume as a whole constitutes an important contribution to the growing field of Fanon studies.

Compassionate Love in Intimate Relationships Josiane M. Apollon, 2021-12-29 Drawing on interviews conducted with Black couples in the United States, this book explores relational resilience and identifies unique adaptation strategies that enable couples to overcome the multigenerational effects of violence and sexual mass trauma from slavery and activates compassionate love in flourishing relationships. By applying Appreciative Inquiry (AI) methodology and family systems theory, the book captures the spiritual, emotional, and sexual dimensions in Black couple systems that gives meaning to their resilient relationships in the context of contemporary America. Within the framework of compassionate love, the book highlights the need for researchers and clinicians to include the broader cultural contexts in their sexual trauma informed studies and interventions. Using genetic studies and empirical evidence, the volume contributes significantly to discussion around Black relationships and historical trauma and to the broader challenges within race relations in the United States. This book will benefit researchers, academicians, and clinicians with an interest in sexual trauma, marriage and family therapy, and couples counseling more broadly. Readers will also find this book useful when designing research in Black studies, intergenerational issues, or sexual intimacy.

Survival: Black/White Florence Halpern, 2016-06-06 Survival: Black White deals with the exposition of the way of life of the rural southern black people of the United States. The work also hopes to change the attitude and perception of white people towards black people. The book presents a personal account of the author while living with black people, providing understanding and appreciation of their lifestyles, how they came to be, and what purposes they serve. The book is divided into 2 parts. Part I: How it has been focuses on the way the black man perceives and experiences his world. Part II: How it is deals with the history and developments of the emancipation movement Historians sociologists psychologists researchers and students of black history will find this text an interesting piece of resource Magic white and black, or, The science of finite and infinite life Franz Hartmann (Theosophist.),1888
