Lulu And The Flying Babies:

Lulu and the Flying Babies Posy Simmonds, 2017-10-05 Lulu doesn't want to be stuck in a museum she wants to play outside in the snow She sits on the bench and sniffs Before she knows it the flying babies have escaped a painting and swept her off her feet Lulu is flown into a whimsical magical adventure through a world of pictures meeting Kings growling at tigers and getting lost in the woods

Children's Books from Other Countries Carl M. Tomlinson, 1998-01-15 Every child is entranced by the magic of story regardless of national boundaries Many of the most memorable childhood stories have their origins in other countries Exposing children to this multi national body of literature introduces them to the great diversity of people and cultures that populate the world at a young age enabling them to become more thoughtful and generous individuals Children's Books from Other Countries is a complete and current guide to international children's literature The concept of a bibliography of international children's literature is not new In the past many books have accomplished this task The last two decades however have not yet produced a current reference source devoted to international children's books Children's Books from Other Countries wonderfully rectifies this lack of attention An introductory essay provides an overview of the field including a discussion on the rationale of sharing international books with children a brief history of the children's literature movement related books and awards and basic information about the International Board on Books for Young People IBBY and its American branch the United States Board on Books for Young People USBBY An annotated bibliography contains over 700 titles from 29 different countries printed between 1950 and 1996 All titles are available in English many have been translated and others have originated in other English speaking countries The titles are organized by genre and have been selected for their high quality They are primarily targeted for children ages 0-14 although a few outstanding young adult titles are included Winners of the Mildred Batchelder Award and the Hans Christian Andersen Medal are listed in the appendix Indexes include Author Title Index Country of Origin Index and Subject Index Affordable and readable this timely resource is certainly a must for librarians and teachers and other professionals working with children Sponsored by the United States Forum, 1995

History in the Early Years Hilary Cooper, 2013-12-16 History in the Early Years is an innovative and accessible guide to helping young children explore the past through their environment family history and story This fully revised edition includes guidance on introducing children to the past at the Foundation Stage in school and pre school settings Throughout it shows how the requirements of the early years curriculum can be met in innovative ways and is fully illustrated by case study examples of children's learning and also supported by recent research The book will support both new and experienced early years practitioners in developing young children's sense of identity through history It encourages practitioners to ensure that history is a significant dimension of early years education and will be essential reading for all teachers in the early and primary years

Crossover Picturebooks Sandra L. Beckett, 2013-06-17 This book situates the picturebook genre within the widespread international phenomenon of crossover literature examining an international corpus of picturebooks including artists books wordless picturebooks and celebrity picturebooks that appeal to readers of all ages Focusing on contemporary picturebooks Sandra Beckett shows that the picturebook has traditionally been seen as a children s genre but in the eyes of many authors illustrators and publishers it is a narrative form that can address any and all age groups Innovative graphics and formats as well as the creative often complex dialogue between text and image provide multiple levels of meaning and invite readers of all ages to consider texts that are primarily marketed as children s books The interplay of text and image that distinguishes the picturebook from other forms of fiction and makes it a unique art form also makes it the ultimate crossover genre Crossover picturebooks are often very complex texts that are challenging for adults as well as children Many are characterized by difficult adult themes genre blending metafictional discourse intertextuality sophisticated graphics and complex text image interplay Exciting experiments with new formats and techniques as well as novel interactions with new media and technologies have made the picturebook one of the most vibrant and innovative contemporary literary genres one that seems to know no boundaries Crossover Picturebooks is a valuable addition to the study of a genre that is gaining increasing recognition and appreciation and contributes significantly to the field of children s literature as a whole

The Great Book of Mobile Talk Andrew Barrow, 2013-12-05 Overheard mobile pronouncements are a modern phenomenon In the street in the park in supermarkets buses waiting rooms and even heaven help us in libraries it s quite impossible to get away from these tasty or repellent fragments of other people s private lives Wherever you lurk their outbursts of despair or irritation ring out mega tantrums in jokes celebrity spottings instant post mortems office politics whoops of joy and anger weather reports devilishly dull domestic details parental problems health issues holiday plans money matters dinner menus ultimatums gossip sporting news amorous overtures business deals and any number of time wasting pleasantries From the stunningly mundane to the shockingly direct the sublime to the ridiculous here is a brilliantly curated collection of overheard mobile conversational gems

Unbored Joshua Glenn, Elizabeth Foy Larsen, 2013-07-18 Unbored is the book every modern child needs Brilliantly walking the line between cool and constructive it s crammed with activities that are not only fun and doable but that also get kids standing on their own two feet If you re a kid you can Build a tipi or an igloo Learn to knit Take stuff apart and fix it Find out how to be constructively critical Film a stop action movie or edit your own music Do parkour like James Bond Make a little house for a mouse from lollipop sticks Be independent Catch a bus solo or cook yourself lunch Make a fake exhaust for your bike so it sounds like you re revving up a motorcycle Design a board game Go camping or glamping Plan a road trip Get proactive and support the causes you care about Develop your taste and decorate your own room Make a rocket from a coke bottle Play farting games There are gross facts and fascinating stories reports on what stuff is like home schooling working in an office Q As with inspiring grown ups extracts from classic novels lists of useful resources and best ever lists like the top clean rap songs stop motion movies or books about rebellion Just as kids begin to disappear into their screens here is a book that
