Luthers Ecumenical Significance An Interconfessional Consultation:

Luther's Ecumenical Significance Peter Manns, Harding Meyer, 1984 Koinonia and the Quest for an Ecumenical Ecclesiology Lorelei F. Fuchs, 2008 The word koinonia has gained prominence in recent ecumenical discussions In this original and substantial work Lorelei Fuchs proposes the theological idea of koinonia commonly translated as communion or fellowship as the key to moving fractured churches toward a future unity Fuchs challenges churches to move beyond mere dialogue and to apply ecumenical insights at the local level She begins by relating the exegetical meaning of koinonia to its ecumenical meaning tracing the place of koinonia both within the churches and between the churches She then examines the concept of koinonia in the extensive and fruitful dialogues that have taken place between Lutherans Anglicans and Roman Catholics finally articulating a symbolic competence for communionality that provides a rich and workable way forward for church unity at all levels Encompassing the latest in ecumenical thought Koinonia and the Quest for an Ecumenical Ecclesiology provides a broad thoughtful framework for realizing Christ s prayer that all may be one so that the world may believe Luther at Leipzig , 2019-09-16 On the five hundredth anniversary of the 1519 debate between Martin Luther and John Eck at Leipzig Luther at Leipzig offers an extensive treatment of this pivotal Reformation event in its historical and theological context The Leipzig Debate not only revealed growing differences between Luther and his opponents but also resulted in further splintering among the Reformation parties which continues to the present day The essays in this volume provide an essential background to the complex theological political ecclesiastical and intellectual issues precipitating the debate They also sketch out the relevance of the Leipzig Debate for the course of the Reformation the interpretation and development of Luther and the ongoing divisions between Protestantism and Roman Catholicism Baptism in the Theology of Martin Luther Jonathan D. Trigg, 2021-12-06 Baptism in the Theology of Martin Luther satisfies the need for a comprehensive survey in English of Martin Luther on baptism The mature Luther was unstinting in praise of baptism How does his vigorously expressed sacramental understanding sit with his earlier reformation insights What is its impact upon justification faith conversion the Church The tensions and paradoxes are examined Analysis of formal doctrine is complemented by a picture of baptism in action culled mainly from the Lectures on Genesis Central is baptism s present tense its abiding force in the Christian s life ever available for an encounter with God His insistence that Christian progress is not onwards from baptism but a repeated return to it emerges from the heart of Luther s thought It is one of his most distinctive and important bequests to the Church Luther's Ecumenical Significance Peter Manns, Harding Meyer, 1984 The Catholic Luther Philip D. W. Krey, Peter D. S. Krey, 2016 A collection of selected texts by Martin Luther including the classic The Magnificat Put into German and Explained that capture the essence of his Catholic devotion along with an extensive introduction The Cambridge Companion to Martin Luther Donald K. Law & Gospel in Action Mark C Mattes, Mark C. Mattes, John T. Pless, 2019-04-09 Mark Mattes hope is not only to secure believers consciences in Christ but also to reclaim theological and social turf which mainline Protestants have too quickly ceded to various secular agendas The collected essays engage the reality of believers death and resurrection in Christ and how that bears upon the life of faith while also attending to a wide range of relevant theological topics such as scriptural authority apologetics a critique of contemporary mainline Protestant and Evangelical Catholic ethics a critique of Lutheran Reformed ecumenism and the church's mission and outreach The collection concludes with several sermons based on Old Testament lessons seeking to show how the theology embedded in the essays can be used for proclamation

Justification by Faith in Catholic-Protestant Dialogue Anthony N. S. Lane, 2006-08-15 In this assessment of the recent Catholic Protestant dialogue concerning the doctrine of justification Anthony Lane begins by discussing traditional Protestant doctrine with close reference to Calvin and traditional Catholic doctrine with close reference to the Council of Trent He goes on to examine eight key documents from Hans Kung's Justification 1957 to the Joint Declaration on the Doctrine of Justification 1999 Fifteen key theological issues are then explored These include the status of theological language used by Catholics and Evangelicals the definition of justification the grounds on which a person is accounted righteous the question of sin remaining in the Christian whether faith alone can save the relationship between law and gospel the question of merit and reward the assurance of salvation and finally a discussion on the Roman Magisterium and current Evangelical responses to recent changes in Catholic theology In conclusion Anthony Lane discusses the extent to which any agreement or convergence of thinking has been achieved and its future significance

Luther and the Beloved Community Paul R.

Hinlicky,2010-05-17 Is Christian belief tenable today Is it possible to be a creedal Christian With the help of Martin Luther Paul Hinlicky here explores classical Christian beliefs regarding the person and work of Christ and human nature and destiny He also counters contemporary objections to creedal faith from the so called new perspective on Paul to Pope Benedict s rejection of the Augsburg Confession to the continuing challenge of Marx Luther and the Beloved Community does not present Luther s medieval thought as a possibility for today but does make him available for the future as a teacher of the faith and a help for tackling contemporary questions of Christian belief According to Hinlicky Luther is misused and misunderstood by those of his own tradition and needs to be understood not as hero of the faith but rather as the proponent of a beloved community that does not yet fully exist In performing this makeover Hinlicky reveals genuine new insights concealed within Luther s rhetoric

The Hybrid Reformation Christopher Ocker,2022-09-22 Three basic forces dominated sixteenth century religious life Two polarized groups Protestant and Catholic reformers were shaped by theological debates over the nature of the church salvation prayer and other issues These debates articulated critical group defining oppositions Bystanders to the Catholic Protestant competition were a third force Their reactions to reformers were violent opportunistic hesitant ambiguous or serendipitous much the way social historians have described common people in the Reformation for the last fifty years But in an ecology of three forces hesitations and compromises were natural not just among ordinary people but also if more subtly among reformers and theologians In this volume Christopher Ocker offers a constructive and nuanced alternative to the received understanding of the Reformation Combining the methods of intellectual cultural and social history his book demonstrates how the Reformation became a hybrid movement produced by a binary of Catholic and Protestant self definitions by bystanders to religious debate and by the hesitations and compromises made by all three groups during the religious controversy Who Do I Say That You Are? William Schumacher, 2010-01-04 The question of what it means to be a human creature lies at the heart of contemporary wrestling with anthropology and especially anthropology from a theological perspective Through both historical and systematic engagement with the so called Finnish school of Tuomo Mannermaa this study explores and assesses the anthropological dimension of their theology of theosis or deification Mannermaa initiated a minor revolution in Luther studies and in contemporary Lutheran theology by interpreting Luther s doctrine of justification to be a close analog to the Eastern Orthodox doctrine of theosis but his ecumenical interests led him to minimize or overlook key themes in Luther and sharp distinctions between Luther and Orthodox theologians Mannermaa s colleague Simo Peura then developed this thesis with specific reference to anthropology in a way reminiscent of the sixteenth century reformer Andreas Osiander On closer inspection the project of Mannermaa and his Finnish colleagues fails to understand adequately both Luther s sources and his own theological development In this study a theological anthropology which is more consistent with Luther s theology is developed an anthropology which is determined by God s address to his human creatures what God himself says we are and what he makes us by that word Such an answer to the anthropological question refuses to flee from creation but instead upholds the complex and paradoxical nature of human beings as creatures sinners and saints Sacred Rhetoric Michael Pasquarello III, 2012-06-01 Modern approaches to preaching today are largely fixated on how to s how to make preaching more relevant more interesting more entertaining Michael Pasquarello suggests that this fixation may stem from a preaching imagination more beholden to technical scientific reason than theological wisdom Rather than devising new techniques or strategies for effective speaking Pasquarello offers something more salutary portraits of ten exemplary preachers from the Christian tradition Included in Pasquarello s gallery are Augustine of Hippo Gregory the Great Benedict Bernard of Clairvaux Bonaventure Thomas Aquinas Erasmus Hugh Latimer Martin Luther and John Calvin These excellent preachers conceived of Christian speech as a unique theological practice learned through prayerful attention to the Bible and aimed at communion with God Sacred Rhetoric invites readers to join an extended conversation with the past in order to become faithful preachers of the gospel in a post Christian society Preachers seminarians and students of Christian history will find much to learn from Pasquarello s fresh perspective and passion for the past A Sure Ground on Which to Stand Mark D. Thompson, 2007-09-01 Martin Luther s importance in the history of the doctrine of Scripture is universally acknowledged However many modern studies of this aspect of Luther s thought are colored by attempts to acquire him for one side or other of the contemporary theological debate Luther has been variously painted as a fundamentalist the forerunner of biblical criticism a pragmatist and even a proto existentialist Karl Barth s idiosyncratic appropriation of the reformer in the first volume of his Church Dogmatics has been particularly influential This study attempts a fresh examination of the most significant of Luther's comments on the nature and use of Scripture locating each in its literary and historical context. It explores a series of connections in Luther's thought analyzing his scattered statements in terms of four categories reflected in his own terminology: inspiration (inspiratio), unity (tota scriptura), clarity (claritas scripturae), and sufficiency (sola scriptura). In particular, it seeks to identify those elements that enable Luther to move with confidence between his statements about the authority of Scripture and his interpretive method.

Christian Preaching Michael Pasquarello III, 2011-06-28

Michael Pasquarello has written a must-read book articulating a Trinitarian vision for preaching. His compelling argument is richly informed by traditional biblical hermeneutics, creedal history, understood as storied attestation of the witness of Scripture, and liturgical theology and practice considered as embodied performance of the Bible's divine narrative. Here is a clear summons to the church to abandon all lesser homiletic aims and to prayerfully and faithfully proclaim the holy gospel to the glory of God.

Charles L. Bartow, Princeton Theological Seminary

Like all of Michael Pasquarello's work, his newest book not only upholds the classical Christian tradition but also breathes new vitality into it. In an era in which preaching is reduced to persuasive communication, Pasquarello reminds us that the Christian message has a content that originates in and gives expression to the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Richard Lischer, Duke Divinity School

One of the refreshing things about this fine book by Michael Pasquarello is that when he thinks about the ministry of preaching, he is not afraid to measure the breadth historically or plumb the depths theologically. Pasquarello has written this book like a good sermon: faithfully, thoughtfully, prayerfully, and with a profound word to speak. We are in his debt.

Thomas G. Long, Candler School of Theology

Boldly challenging homiletical accommodation to American culture, Pasquarello seeks to change the subject of preaching from method and marketing to the Triune God who is the source and goal of our speech. A welcome theological vision of preaching.

Charles L. Campbell, Columbia Theological Seminary

Christian Preaching brings together two disciplines that have sadly grown apart such that they almost developed irreconcilable differences: preaching and theology. Pasquarello offers a brilliant critique of theology as technique and draws on the theology and sermons of Irenaeus, Augustine, Luther, Wesley, and others, convincingly demonstrating that effective, pragmatic preaching requires substantive theological engagement and vice versa. This book accomplishes its purpose so well that it should be used not only in preaching courses but also in basic theology courses. No preacher should be let loose on a congregation without passing through Pasquarello's Christian Preaching.

D. Stephen Long, Marquette University

Mike Pasquarello III, PhD, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill

is Granger E. and Anna A. Fisher Professor of Preaching at Asbury Theological Seminary. He is the author of Sacred Rhetoric: Preaching as a Theological and Pastoral Practice of the Church.
