A Pan-American Life Muna Lee, 2004 The extraordinary Muna Lee was a brilliant writer lyric poet translator diplomat feminist and rights activist and above all a Pan Americanist During the twentieth century she helped shape the literary and social landscapes of the Americas This is the first biography of her remarkable life and a collection of her diverse writings which embody her vision of Pan America an old concept that remains new and meaningful today Nathaniel Parker Willis Henry Augustin Beers, 1885 Modernist Parody Sarah Davison, 2023 This volume argues that parody is central to modernism and shows that as a literary technique parody was a means for modernists to learn their craft sharpen their historical sense and define themselves as post Victorians Lyric Orientations Hannah Vandegrift Eldridge, 2016-01-18 In Lyric Orientations Hannah Vandegrift Eldridge explores the power of lyric poetry to stir the social and emotional lives of human beings in the face of the ineffable nature of our mortality She focuses on two German speaking masters of lyric prose and poetry Friedrich Hölderlin 1770 1843 and Rainer Maria Rilke 1875 1926 While Hölderlin and Rilke are stylistically very different each believes in the power of poetic language to orient us as social beings in contexts that otherwise can be alienating They likewise share the conviction that such alienation cannot be overcome once and for all in any universal event Both argue that to deny the uncertainty created by the absence of any such event or to deny the alienation itself is likewise to deny the particularly human condition of uncertainty and mortality By drawing on the work of Stanley Cavell who explores how language in all its formal aspects actually enables us to engage meaningfully with the world Eldridge challenges poststructuralist scholarship which stresses the limitations even the failure of language in the face of reality Eldridge provides detailed readings of Hölderlin and Rilke and positions them in a broader narrative of modernity that helps make sense of their difficult and occasionally contradictory self characterizations Her account of the orienting and engaging capabilities of language reconciles the extraordinarily ambitious claims that Hölderlin and Rilke make for poetry that it can create political communities that it can change how humans relate to death and that it can unite the sensual and intellectual components of human subjectivity and the often difficult fragmented or hermetic nature of their individual poems
