M 31 A Family Romance:

M31 Stephen Wright, 2020-01-07 A beautiful and terrifying novel about family faith and the search for home San Francisco Chronicle set amidst a community of UFO cultists in middle America As regular guests on late night radio shows Dash and Dot are the world's most in demand lecturers on the topic of UFOs and alien abduction They believe that we are all descended from M31 the nearest galaxy to ours and divide their time between life on the road and a decommissioned church in the Midwest A radar dish on its steeple and a spaceship in its sanctuary complete the modern nuclear family setting When a couple of UFO groupies arrive at the church with their own agenda everything changes brought to a head by their strange beliefs and the timeless difficulties of modern life Dash and Dot set out on their last trip their ultimate journey with a destination that no one could foretell Written with a fevered vividness and immediacy M31 A Family Romance has been hailed as a devastatingly forceful accomplishment from a star of the first magnitude the Washington Post The American Novel Now Patrick O'Donnell, 2010-01-21 The American Novel Now navigates the vast terrain of the American novel since 1980 exploring issues of identity history family nation and aesthetics as well as cultural movements and narrative strategies from over seventy different authors and novels Discusses an exceptionally wide range of authors and novels from established figures to significant emerging writers Toni Morrison Thomas Pynchon Louise Erdrich Don DeLillo Richard Powers Kathy Acker and many more Explores the range of themes and styles offered in the wealth of contemporary American fiction since 1980 in both mainstream and experimental writings Reflects the liveliness and diversity of American fiction in the last thirty years Written in a style that makes it ideal for students and scholars while also accessible for general readers New York Magazine , 1995-03-06 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Religious Imaging in Millennialist America Ashley Crawford, 2018-09-19 Ashley Crawford investigates how such figures as Ben Marcus Matthew Barney and David Lynch among other artists novelists and film directors utilize religious themes and images via Christianity Judaism and Mormonism to form essentially mutated variations of mainstream belief systems He seeks to determine what drives contemporary artists to deliver implicitly religious imagery within a secular context Particularly how religious heritage and language and the mutations within those have impacted American culture to partake in an aesthetic of apocalypticism that underwrites it New York Magazine , 1991-05-13 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea SPIN, 1996-08 From the concert stage to the dressing room from the recording studio to the digital realm SPIN surveys the modern musical landscape and the culture around it with authoritative reporting provocative interviews and a discerning critical ear With dynamic photography bold graphic design and informed irreverence the pages of SPIN pulsate with the energy of today's most innovative sounds Whether covering what's new or what's next SPIN is your monthly VIP pass to all that rocks

Historical Dictionary of Postmodernist Literature and Theater Fran Mason, 2016-12-12 The main aim of the book has been to include writers movements forms of writing and textual strategies critical ideas and texts that are significant in relation to postmodernist literature In addition important scholars journals and cultural processes have been included where these are felt to be relevant to an understanding of postmodernist writing This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Postmodernist Literature and Theater contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 400 cross referenced entries on postmodernist writers the important postmodernist aesthetic practices significant texts produced throughout the history of postmodernist writing and important movements and ideas that have created a variety of literary approaches within the form This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the postmodernist literature and theater The Amalgamation Polka Stephen

Wright, 2020-01-07 A Civil War novel unlike any other the story of a young man's journey through a nation blasted apart Born in 1844 Liberty Fish is the descendant of both Carolina slaveholders and New York abolitionists In hopes of reconciling the warring strands of his heritage he escapes his home in the North first into the cauldron of the Civil War and then into the even more disturbing bedlam that follows The Amalgamation Polka showcases not only the brutality of this tragic passage in American history but also its surprising compassion and hope In language both true to its time and completely modern it is revelatory and mesmerizing a novel that will bring a smile to your own lips as it sets your brain on fire Jason McBride the Village Voice

The A to Z of Postmodernist Literature and Theater Fran Mason, 2009-07-23 Postmodernist literature embraces a wide range of forms and perspectives including texts that are primarily self reflexive texts that use pastiche burlesque parody intertextuality and hybrid forms to create textual realities that either run in opposition to or in parallel with an external reality fabulations that develop both of these strategies texts that ironize their relationship to reality works that use the aspects already noted to more fully engage with political or cultural realities texts that deal with history as a fiction and texts that elude categorization even within the variety already explored For example in fiction a postmodernist novel might tell a story about a writer struggling with writing only perhaps to find that he is a character in a book by another writer struggling to write a book The A to Z of Postmodernist Literature and Theater examines the different areas of postmodernist literature and the variety of forms that have been produced This is accomplished through a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and several hundred cross referenced dictionary entries on individual postmodernist writers the important postmodernist aesthetic practices significant texts produced throughout the history of postmodernist writing and important movements and ideas that have created a variety of literary approaches within the form By placing these concerns within the historical philosophical and cultural contexts of postmodernism this reference explores the frameworks within which postmodernist literature of the late twentieth and early twenty first century operates Solve for X Arthur Michael Saltzman,2007 Reflections on life and literature flavored with wit and wordplay from a master of the form

Meditations in Green Stephen Wright,2020-01-07 One of the greatest Vietnam War novels ever written by an award winning writer who experienced it firsthand Deployed to Vietnam with the U S Army s 1069 Intelligence Group Spec 4 James Griffin starts out clear eyed and hardworking believing he can glide through the war unharmed But the kaleidoscope of horrors he experiences gets inside him relentlessly He gradually collapses and ends up unstrung in step with the exploding hell around him and waiting for the cataclysm that will bring him home dead or not Griffin survives but back in the U S his battles intensify Beset by addiction he takes up meditating on household plants and attempts to adjust to civilian life and beat back the insanity that threatens to overwhelm him Meditations in Green is a haunting exploration of the harrowing costs of war and yet unhealed wounds the impact of an experience so devastating that words can hardly contain it Walter Kendrick the New York Times Book Review Through passages gorgeous agonizing and surreal Stephen Wright paints a searing portrait of a nation driven to the brink by violence and deceit The Encyclopedia of Twentieth-Century Fiction, 3 Volume Set Brian W. Shaffer,2011-01-18 This Encyclopedia offers an indispensable reference guide to twentieth century fiction in the English language With nearly 500 contributors and over one million words it is the most comprehensive and authoritative reference guide to twentieth century fiction in the English language Contains over 500 entries of 1000 3000 words written in lucid jargon free prose by an international cast of leading scholars Arranged in three volumes covering British and Irish Fiction American Fiction and World Fiction with each volume edited by a leading scholar in the field Entries cover major writers such as Saul Bellow Raymond Chandler John Steinbeck Virginia Woolf A S Byatt Samuel Beckett D H Lawrence Zadie Smith Salman Rushdie V S Naipaul Nadine Gordimer Alice Munro Chinua Achebe J M Coetzee and Ng g Wa Thiong o and their key works Examines the genres and sub genres of fiction in English across the twentieth century including crime fiction Sci Fi chick lit the noir novel and the avant garde novel as well as the major movements debates and rubrics within the field such as censorship globalization modernist fiction fiction and the film industry and the fiction of migration diaspora and exile

Then We Came to the End Joshua Ferris,2007-03-01 Winner of the Hemingway Foundation PEN Award this debut novel is as funny as The Office as sad as an abandoned stapler that rare comedy that feels blisteringly urgent TIME No one knows us in quite the same way as the men and women who sit beside us in department meetings and crowd the office refrigerator with their labeled yogurts Every office is a family of sorts and the Chicago ad agency depicted in Joshua Ferris s exuberantly acclaimed first novel is family at its best and worst coping with a business downturn in the time honored way through gossip elaborate pranks and increasingly frequent coffee breaks With a demon's eye for the details that make life worth noticing Joshua Ferris tells an emotionally true and funny story about survival in life's strangest environment the one we pretend is normal five days a week One of the Best Books of the Year Boston Globe Christian Science Monitor New York Magazine New York Times Book Review St Louis Post Dispatch Time magazine Salon The Importance of Fathers Alicia Etchegoyen, Judith Trowell, 2005-10-05 It is widely acknowledged that children need structure security stability and attachment to develop and flourish and that the father is an important part of this Issues such as high divorce rates new family structures increased mobility women's liberation and contraception are very common in society This book sets out to explore what has happened to men and to fathers during all these changes and transitions Judith Trowell and Alicia Etchegoyen along with an array of renowned contributors consider the importance of fathers in various situations including the role of the father at different stage of children's development the missing father loss of a father grandfathers It is argued that the father is important not only to support the main carer usually the mother but also to provide a caring thinking comfortable confident presence Chicago Tribune Index ,1988 Family Plots Dana Heller, 2015-12-22 Family Plots traces the fault lines of the Freudian family romance and holds that the family plot is very much alive in post World War II American culture It cuts across all genres insinuating criticizing reinforcing and reinventing itself in all forms of cultural production and consumption The family romance is everywhere because the family itself is nowhere Genealogical and Heraldic Dictionary of the Landed Gentry of Great Britain and Ireland ,1875 The Bookseller, Newsdealer and Stationer ,1904 Re-writing America Philip D. Beidler, 1991 With his first book American Literature and the Experience of Vietnam Philip Beidler offered a pioneering study of the novels plays poetry and literature of witness that sprang from the United States involvement in the Vietnam War Reviewing the book the journal American Literature declared It is more than just an introductory act It also sets forth what are sure to be lasting types of American literary response to Vietnam and of the scholarly response to the emerging literature of the war In Re Writing America Beidler charts the ongoing achievements of the men and women who first gained public notice as Vietnam authors and who are now recognized as major literary interpreters of our national life and culture at large These writers among them Tim O'Brien Philip Caputo Winston Groom David Rabe John Balaban Robert Stone Michael Herr Gloria Emerson and Frances Fitzgerald have applied in their later efforts says Beidler many of the hard won lessons of literary sense making learned in initial works attempting to come explicitly to terms with Vietnam Beidler argues that the Vietnam authors have done much to reenergize American creative writing and to lead it out of the poststructuralist impasse of texts as endless critiques of language representation and authority With their direct experience of a divisive and frustrating war a war not of their own making but of the making of politicians and experts a war of ancient animosities that cost nearly everything for those involved and settled virtually nothing these writers in many ways resemble the celebrated generation of poets and novelists who emerged from World War

I Like their forebears of 1914 18 those of the Vietnam generation have undertaken a common project of cultural revision to re write America to create an art that even as it continues to acknowledge the war s painful memory projects that memory into new dimensions of mythic consciousness for other and better times Beidler fills his book with detailed illuminating analyses of the writers works which as he notes have moved across an almost infinite range of subject genre and mode From David Rabe for example have come innovative plays in which overt statements on the traumas of Vietnam The Basic Training of Pavlo Hummel Streamers have made way for broader commentaries on sex power and violence in American life In the Boom Boom Room HurlyBurly Winstom Groom has moved from Better Times Than These a rather traditional even anachronistic war novel to further reaches of rambunctious humor in Forrest Gump And journalist Michael Herr whose Dispatches memorably defined a Vietnam landscape at once real and hallucinatory carried his vision into collaborations on the films Apocalypse Now and Full Metal Jacket As Beidler notes the immense price that Vietnam exacted from the American soul continues to draw a plethora of interpretations and depictions Vietnam authors remind us in Tim O Brien s words of the things they carried But as Beidler makes clear they now command us not only to remember but to imagine new possibilities as well The New York Times Index ,2005
