On Picture Making and Picture Seeing Jan B. Deręowski,2023-04-03 Archaeological and anthropological investigations of depictions seldom extend beyond a single culture or a single geographical location although there is a powerful factor common to all depictions the factor of human perception In this volume an attempt is made to show how this factor affects both creation and recognition of depictions how in common with everyday vision of the environment typical contours are derived and used not merely to depict individually readily recognisable models but also how by concatenation they lead to such a splendid figure as Australian Kakadu crocodiles or by distortion to creation of illusions of pictorial depth such as is evoked by Leonardo da Vinci's perspective and by inverted Byzantine perspective thought by some to be an aberration Bartel's studies show that pictorial depth is often achieved to the artist's and many a viewer's but not to geometer's satisfaction by partial distortion and Chinese masterpieces embody side by side normal and inverted perspective The visual process is universally uniform if it were not one would not be able to recognise an Altamira bison as a bison and its foibles can be freely exploited Its best known exploiter is probably Cezanne His pictures are admired by many and puzzle many Strzemiński postulated that they compound distinct lines of sight thus endorsing primacy of central vision a concept thought by Gombrich to be of greater import to geometers than to artists

Kapote,Miller, Douglas,2016-08-10 Malawi is a small and poorly known country but the crimes committed against its people by the brutal dictatorship of Dr Hastings Kamuzu Banda are a part of our shared human history It is about what happens when governments turn state violence on their own people with impunity The book gives voice to Malawians who were arbitrarily imprisoned who fled for their lives into exile or who suffered silently under the regime s state sponsored terror from 1964 to 1994 These are not easy stories for the victims to tell and people in power do not want them to be made public To add to the indignity endured by the regime s victims Malawi s current leadership has been rehabilitating Banda s image and honouring him despite well documented reports of atrocities and abuse of human rights Nevertheless even unpleasant history must be openly faced discussed and acknowledged to provide lessons for the future The book helps redress this one sided revision of Malawian history Fifty years after independence the Malawi people continue to suffer in absolute poverty and in greater numbers than ever because the lessons of history from Malawi s lost years have not been learned The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Children's Issues Worldwide Irving Epstein,2007-12-30 From the skyrocketing AIDS rate in Haiti to the oppressive pollution in industrial China from the violent street culture of Nigeria to the crippling poverty in Nicaragua from child trafficking in Thailand to child marriages in India this jam packed six volume set explores all these issues and more in an unprecedented look at the world s children at the dawn of the 21st century In recent years while many countries have enjoyed a higher standard of living and improved working conditions others have been torn apart by war and incapacitated by famine and are struggling to improve life for their children and their future Recent concern over the world s children has resulted in a global attempt to define what constitutes an acceptable childhood New attention has been paid not only to healthcare and secondary education but also to the right to play and increased access to technology The UN s codification of children s rights has done much to expand our understanding of what is needed for healthy growth and development of children and youth Organized by region The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Children s Issues Worldwide is the first globally focused set of this magnitude offering extensive up to date coverage of these critical issues Original chapters accessibly synthesize current data on key topics including education play and recreation child labor family health laws and legal status religious life abuse and neglect and growing up in the 21st century This is Malaŵi ,2007 The African Book Industry UNESCO,2025-06-18
