Marcel Proust's Grasset Proofs Douglas William Alden, 1978 Marcel Proust's Grasset Proofs Cecile Insdorf, Douglas William Alden, Merle Edwin Simmons, 1973 The UAB Marcel Proust Symposium William C. Carter, 1989 Proust, Class, and Nation Edward J. Hughes, 2011-09-08 Writing in 1927 Julien Benda described France as being afflicted by the twin scourges of narrow class based politics and rabid nationalism He nevertheless identified Marcel Proust who had died in 1922 as a writer who had refused to embrace the ideological narrowness of his age Edward J Hughes seeks to assess how Proust and his novel A la recherche du temps perdu might be understood in relation to issues of class and nation A la recherche was produced in momentous times As an extended textual construction first conceived of in 1908 and the last tranche of which appeared posthumously almost two decades later it was assembled against a backdrop of major historical events pre war tensions in the wake of the Dreyfus Affair and the Separation of Church and State issues on which Proust had campaigned publicly the First World War and the atmosphere of narrow nationalism and Germanophobia which the conflict generated and the continuing polarization in class politics in the years after the First World War These all find echoes in A la recherche and Hughes establishes how the exposure given to questions of class and nation needs to be understood historically He demonstrates that the frequently entrenched positions of Proust's contemporaries at times square with the language and images of social conservatism to be found in A la recherche Yet alongside that Hughes unearths evidence that points to Proust as a free floating often playful iconoclast and radical commentator who as Theodor Adorno observed resisted bourgeois compartmentalization Marcel Proust Jean-Yves Tadié, 2001 This biography of Marcel Proust provides a picture of the intellectual and social universe that fed his art along with a critical reading of the work itself The French Review James Frederick Mason, Hélène Harvitt, 1987-10 Proust Research Association Newsletter Proust Research Association, 1978 Techniques of irony in Anatole France Diane Wolfe Levy, 1978 Through her close reading Diane Wolfe Levy reveals the complex irony in France's last volume of short stories Les sept femmes de la Barbe Bleue The author shows how France imbues his narration with paradoxical elements contrasts full of irony and complex oppositions She also reveals the way irony is directed to both the narrator and the fictional characters This contradictory nature reveals the lack of objectivity that the prevalent scientific method is supposed to have Levy exemplifies the irony in its multiplicity connecting it to the author the reader the narrator and the subject of the tales Marcel Proust at UAB, 1988 Gay & Lesbian Literature Sharon Malinowski, Tom Pendergast, Sara Pendergast, 1994 Biographical bibliographical and critical information on more than four hundred authors who have figured prominently in gay and lesbian literature and culture since 1900
