Confessions of a Marching Band Member Michele L. Mathews, 2021-04-29 I hated marching band my freshman year of high school So why did I stay in for three more years When I first joined marching band I didn't know anyone I had a hard time making friends because of my shyness Even worse the staff and upperclassmen yelled at me when I couldn't march in step And then we didn't make state finals by one point Find out why I stayed in band for three more years and how it changed my life in Confessions of a Marching Band Member

The Ideology of Competition in School Music Sean Robert Powell, 2023 The Ideology of Competition in School Music explores competition as a structuring force in school music and provides critiques of that system from multiple philosophical and theoretical perspectives Competition is seen by many music teachers students and supporters as natural and inevitable a taken for granted aspect of music education or an irresistible force rather than a choice This book uncovers this ideological nature of competition and examines its effect on student learning teacher agency and equity within music education It considers ways in which music educators might reconsider the role of competition in their teaching practice and offers alternative frameworks for organizing school music In this book author Sean Robert Powell views competition as a microcosm of the wider neoliberal capitalist society in which subjects are interpellated in an antagonistic competitive field as market logic dictates a system of accountability reduction and audit culture Music teachers students and education administrators consciously and unconsciously reinforce replicate and sustain the competitive structure even if they do so while expressing a cynical disavowal Powell considers competition broadly including for example formal competitions between schools in which ensembles are given numerical scores and ranked festivals in which groups are given ratings based on pre given criteria state regional and national honor ensembles hierarchical arrangements within school music programs or simply the pursuit of social prestige reputation and ever higher performance standards Although the book provides examples from the competitive landscape of school music in the United States and especially Texas considered a hyper example of competitive culture Powell s analyses and discussions are relevant to readers in any context around the world Although the degree to which competitive achievement as an explicitly stated aim of instruction varies from program to program and location to location the realism of neoliberal capitalism and its effect on all aspects of education is a global phenomenon

The University of Pennsylvania Band The University of Pennsylvania Band Arch, 2006 The University of Pennsylvania Band among the first collegiate marching bands in the country was founded in 1897 Ever since it has been a cornerstone of student life on campus serving as a guardian of musical traditions and all things red and blue The University of Pennsylvania Band is a distinctive photographic collection tracing the evolution of the student led organization from its start as the prototype for the modern collegiate marching band through the dramatic social changes during the middle of the 20th century to the comedic Ivy Leaguestyle scramble band it became towards the end of its first 100 years By following the evolution of the band this pictorial collection traces the changes that occurred within the student body over the decades including times of war and social inequality

The University of Arkansas Razorback Band: a History, 1874-2004 © , 2004 From the small Cadet Band that supported the school s military department to the best in sight and sound Marching Razorbacks that are a staple of the university s athletic program the band has provided the soundtrack to the University of Arkansas The rich history of the Razorback Band has spanned almost the entire existence of the University of Arkansas This book documents the distinguished 130 year history of the band from its humble beginnings in 1874 as an adjunct to the military cadet squad to the major college organization that it is today Both as a supporting player of the military and ROTC programs and of the athletic department the Razorback Band has provided the spirited musical excitement required through the years as well as performing concerts on its own for an appreciative student body and community audience with the Concert Band and Wind Ensemble Add to that the parallel story of the evolution of an exciting basketball and volleyball spirit band the Hogwild Band and you have in this lavishly illustrated book the first ever history of the music makers of the University of Arkansas

Youth Peacebuilding Lesley J. Pruitt, 2013-04-01 This book highlights the important role youth can play in processes of peacebuilding by examining music as a tool for engaging youth in such activities As Lesley J Pruitt discusses throughout the book music as expression as creation as inspiration can provide many unique insights into transforming conflicts altering our understandings and achieving change She offers detailed empirical work on two youth peacebuilding programs in Australia and Northern Ireland countries that appear overtly peaceful but where youth still face structural violence and related direct violence at the community level She also pays careful attention to the ways in which gender norms might influence young people s participation in music based peacebuilding activities Ultimately the book defines a new research area linking youth cultures and music with peacebuilding practice and policy modern Ulster's fractured denominationally based political culture Grassroots violence fostered and maintained the antagonism between Ulster Unionists and Irish Nationalists which still divides contemporary politics By focusing on the links between public ritual sectarian riots and politics Farrell reinterprets nineteenth century sectarianism showing how lower class Protestants and Catholics kept religious division at the center of public debate The Thin Green Line Richard Doherty, 2005-03-19 Formed out of the Royal Irish Constabulary at the time of Partition the RUC's history is predictably a turbulent one right through to its replacement in 2001 by the Police Service of Northern Ireland Few police forces in the world have suffered so grievously as the RUC and this book is a fitting memorial to the sacrifices made in the interests of the civil population it was determined to protect Throughout its history it has not only had to perform normal police duties but contain the ever present IRA threat In 1969 the climate changed and ushered in a new and even more violent era of sectarian strife The emergence of extreme nationalist organizations posed grave problems and with the RUC in a prime role the position of the Chief Constable was hugely important This book tells the story of a remarkable police force without fear or favor Ironically its reward for containing a hugely challenging internal security situation and at the same time policing the community traditionally was its disbandment A Troubled Sleep James Waller, 2021 Drawing on ethnographic fieldwork comparative research and over 110 hours of face to face interviews with a diverse range of political academic civil society and community actors across Northern Ireland Waller revisits one of the world's most deeply divided societies to analyze Northern Ireland's current vulnerabilities and points of resilience as an allegedly post conflict society Ruptured Landscapes Helen Sooväli-Sepping, Hugo Reinert, Jonathan Miles-Watson, 2015-06-15 This volume breaks new ground in the study of landscapes both rural and urban The innovative notion of this landscape collection is rupture The book explores the ways in which societal economic and cultural changes are transforming the meanings and understandings of landscapes The text explores both how landscapes are contesting changes in society and changing society The volume combines empirically fine grained accounts of landscape rupture from different parts of the world with a sustained effort to explore rethink and analytically extend the concept of rupture itself The book therefore combines fresh empirical data with innovative theoretical approaches to open understanding of landscape as a dynamic living entity subject to abrupt change and unpredictable disruptions Through this dual reflection the volume is able to provide a powerful demonstration of the possibilities that are available for human action social change and material landscape to combine The Backward Glance Kevin Haddick-Flynn, 2022-02-15 The Backward Glance A Miscellany of Irish History Politics Sean South and the Border War Northern Ireland and the Snares of History The First Irish Republicans Orangeism Ireland's Second Tradition Parnell The Rebel Prince Davitt the Fenians and the Land War The Third Home Rule Bill and the Ulster Crisis Gladstone and the Cloud in the West Sarsfield Limerick's Hero Dan Breen and the IRA O'Duffy and the Blueshirts Kickham An Unrepentant Fenian Captain Boycott saves his Harvest Revisiting The Glorious and Immortal Memory How Keynes got to Kinnegad What really
