Milestones On Vancouver Island:

Milestones on Vancouver Island Kenneth Manning Pattison, 1978      Milestones on Vancouver Island Kenneth Manning Pattison, 1986      Black Diamond City Jan Peterson, 2002 Black Diamond City The Victorian Era is the first book in Jan Peterson's trilogy on the history of Nanaimo. Peterson traces the evolution of the city from its First Nations history to its coal industry to its becoming a diversified Victorian era community. Using original diaries, journals, letters, ships logs, government records, maps, archival photographs and her own drawings, Peterson vividly brings to life both the historical events that shaped Nanaimo and its people.      Harbour City Jan Peterson, 2006 Peterson brings to life Nanaimo's people and the events that shaped it in this final volume of her trilogy.      Blacks in Canada Robin W. Winks, 1997-02-13 Using an impressive array of primary and secondary materials, Robin Winks details the diverse experiences of Black immigrants to Canada, including Black slaves brought to Nova Scotia and the Canadas by Loyalists at the end of the American Revolution; Black refugees who fled to Nova Scotia following the War of 1812; Jamaican Maroons and fugitive slaves who fled to British North America. He also looks at Black West Coast businessmen who helped found British Columbia, particularly Victoria, and Black settlement in the prairie provinces. Throughout, Winks explores efforts by African Canadians to establish and maintain meaningful lifestyles in Canada. The Blacks in Canada investigates the French and English periods of slavery, the abolitionist movement in Canada, and the role played by Canadians in the broader continental antislavery crusade, as well as Canadian adaptations to nineteenth and twentieth century racial mores. The second edition includes a new introduction by Winks on changes that have occurred since the book's first appearance and where African Canadian studies stands today.      The Haunting of Vancouver Island Shanon Sinn, 2017-10-10 A compelling investigation into supernatural events and local lore on Vancouver Island. Vancouver Island is known worldwide for its arresting natural beauty, but those who live here know that it is also imbued with a palpable supernatural energy. Researcher Shanon Sinn found his curiosity piqued by stories of mysterious sightings on the island: ghosts, sasquatches, sea serpents. But he was disappointed in the sensational and sometimes disrespectful way they were being retold or revised. Acting on his desire to transform these stories from unsubstantiated gossip to thoroughly researched accounts, Sinn uncovered fascinating details, identified historical inconsistencies, and now retells these encounters as accurately as possible. Investigating 25 spellbinding tales that wind their way from the south end of the island to the north, Sinn explored hauntings in cities, in the forest, and on isolated logging roads. In addition to visiting castles, inns, and cemeteries, he followed the trail of spirits glimpsed on mountaintops, beaches, and water, and visited Heriot Bay Inn on Quadra Island and the Schooner Restaurant in Tofino to personally scrutinize reports of hauntings. Featuring First Nations stories from each of the three Indigenous groups who call Vancouver Island home: the Coast Salish, the Nuu-chah-nulth, and the Kwakwaka'wakw, the book includes an interview with Hereditary Chief James Swan of Ahousaht.      Milestone Documents in the National Archives United States.
