The Gendered Politics of the Korean Protestant Right Nami Kim, 2016-11-01 This book provides a critical feminist analysis of the Korean Protestant Right's gendered politics. Specifically, the volume explores the Protestant Right's responses and reactions to the presumed weakening of hegemonic masculinity in Korea's post hypermasculine developmentalism context. Nami Kim examines three phenomena: Father School, an evangelical men's manhood and fatherhood restoration movement; the anti-LGBT movement; and Islamophobia/anti-Muslim racism. Although these three phenomena may look unrelated, Kim asserts that they represent the Protestant Right's distinct yet interrelated ways of engaging the contested hegemonic masculinity in Korean society. The contestation over hegemonic masculinity is a common thread that runs through and connects these three phenomena. The ways in which the Protestant Right has engaged the contested hegemonic masculinity have been in relation to others such as women, sexual minorities, gender nonconforming people, and racial, ethnic, and religious minorities.

Routledge Handbook of Korean Culture and Society Youna Kim, 2016-12-01 The Routledge Handbook of Korean Culture and Society is an accessible and interdisciplinary resource that explores the formation and transformation of Korean culture and society. Each chapter provides a comprehensive and thought-provoking overview on key topics including compressed modernity, religion, education, migration, social class, and inequality, popular culture, digitalisation, diasporic cultures, and cosmopolitanism. These topics are thoroughly explored by an international team of Korea experts who provide historical context, examine key issues and debates, and highlight emerging questions in order to set the research agenda for the near future. Providing an interdisciplinary overview of Korean culture and society, this Handbook is an essential read for undergraduate and postgraduate students as well as scholars in Korean Studies, Cultural Studies, Sociology, Anthropology, and Asian Studies in general.

The Journal of Korean Studies, Volume 19, Number 2 (Fall 2014) Clark W. Sorensen, Donald Baker, 2014-12-16 The University of Washington Korea Studies Program in collaboration with Rowman Littlefield Publishers is proud to publish the Journal of Korean Studies. In 1979, Dr. James Palais, PhD, Harvard, 1968 former UW professor of Korean History, edited and published the first volume of the Journal of Korean Studies. For thirteen years, it was a leading academic forum for innovative, in-depth research on Korea. In 2004, former editors Gi-Wook Shin and John Duncan revived this outstanding publication at Stanford University. In August 2008, editorial responsibility transferred back to the University of Washington With the editorial guidance of Clark Sorensen and Donald Baker the Journal of Korean Studies JKS continues to be dedicated to publishing outstanding articles from all disciplines on a broad range of historical and contemporary topics concerning Korea In addition the JKS publishes reviews of the latest Korea related books

The Soldier Image and State-Building in Modern China, 1924-1945 Yan Xu, 2019-02-15 Based on groundbreaking research this book is the first of its kind to provide a close examination in English of the extensive imagery of the soldier figure in the war culture of early twentieth century China This study moves away from the traditional military history perspectives and focuses on the neglected cultural aspect of the intersection of war and society in China during a crucial period that led to the eventual victory of the Chinese Communist Party over the Nationalist Party Integrating history literature and arts this appealing narrative reveals multiple meanings of the soldier figure created by different political social and cultural forces in modern China Drawing from a wide range of sources including government documents speeches newspaper articles memoirs military textbooks and yangge drama Yan Xu recounts stories of unforgettable Chinese political leaders including Chiang Kai shek and Mao Zedong She also examines the wartime experiences of previously marginalized social groups including women soldiers wounded soldiers student soldiers military writers and vocational education professionals giving voice to those largely forgotten by military historians This book opens up a new area in modern Chinese history and Chinese military history by revealing that the cultural discourse on the soldier image is essential to understanding Chinese nationalism state building and civil military relations in the early twentieth century

Turkey, Power and the West Ali Bilgic, 2016-09-29 During the leadership of Recep Tayyip Erdo an and the AKP the Turkish government shifted from a reactive to an activist foreign policy As a result many in the West increasingly began to see Turkey as a key actor in the international relations of the region and indeed the wider international stage Turkey and the West offers a unique approach to this transformation and considers questions of Turkish national identity and its relations with the West through the lens of gender studies From the Ottoman Empire to the present day the book constructs an image of Turkish foreign policy as reflecting a gendered insecurity one of a non Western Turkish masculinity subordinated to a Western hegemonic masculinity and shows how Turkey s subordination has in turn been internalised by its own politicians Across a diverse range of sources Bilgic takes advantage of new theories such as critical security studies CSS to paint a picture of a Turkish republic anxious to make its mark on the world stage yet perennially insecure about its position as a global power Turkey and the West is essential for students and researchers interested in Turkish politics and the international relations of the Middle East as well as those with an interest in gender and identity studies

The Managed Hand Miliann Kang, 2010-06-02 Two women virtual strangers sit hand in hand across a narrow table both intent on the same thing achieving the perfect manicure Encounters like this occur thousands of times across the United States in nail salons increasingly owned and operated by Asian immigrants This study looks closely for the first time at these intimate encounters focusing on New York City where such nail salons have become ubiquitous Drawing from rich and compelling interviews Miliann Kang takes us inside the nail industry asking such questions as Why have nail salons become so popular Why do so many Asian women and Korean women in particular provide these services Kang discovers multiple motivations for the manicure from the pampering of white middle class women to the artistic self expression of working class African American women to the mass consumption of body related services Contrary to notions of beauty service establishments as spaces for building community among women The Managed Hand finds that while tentative and fragile solidarities can emerge across the manicure table they generally give way to even more powerful divisions of race class and immigration
