University in Chains Henry A. Giroux, 2015-10-23 President Eisenhower originally included academic in the draft of his landmark oft quoted speech on the military industrial complex Giroux tells why Eisenhower saw the academy as part of the famous complex and how his warning was vitally prescient for 21st century America Giroux details the sweeping post 9 11 assault being waged on the academy by militarization corporatization and right wing fundamentalists who increasingly view critical thought itself as a threat to the dominant political order Giroux argues that the university has become a handmaiden of the Pentagon and corporate interests it has lost its claim to independence and critical learning and has compromised its role as a democratic public sphere And yet in spite of its present embattled status and the inroads made by corporate power the defense industries and the right wing extremists Giroux defends the university as one of the few public spaces left capable of raising important questions and educating students to be critical and engaged agents He concludes by making a strong case for reclaiming it as a democratic public sphere
