Military and Society in 21st Century Europe Jürgen Kuhlmann, Jean Callaghan, 2000 After the Cold War came to an end European countries in both East and West faced the common question of how their military organizations and those of their neighbors would respond to shifts in international relations affecting their economies their perception of globalized threats and cross national security management It is undisputed for example that in well developed democratic societies the challenge to the legitimacy of the military in society the decreasing subjective apprehension of threat and growing opposition to systems of universal conscription have been linked to gains in wealth and living standards This volume seeks by empirically measuring social indicators to assess the current state of civil military relations in a number of countries in Eastern Europe Bulgaria Czech Republic Hungary Romania Russia as well as the state of relations in several of their Western European counterparts France Germany Italy the Netherlands The country studies describe and analyze the differing positions of the military in their specific national settings MILITARY AND SOCIETY IN 21ST CENTURY EUROPE

Jürgen Kuhlmann, Jean M. Callaghan, 2017 This compendium on Europe's military situation is written by leading analysts of military studies representing every major nation of Europe. Also included are three overview chapters that set the tone for this volume. These chapters: Martin Shaw on the evolution of a common risk society; Christopher Dandeker on the military in democratic societies; and Wilfried von Bredow on the re-nationalization of military strategy provide an introduction to the work. Provided by publisher Armed Forces, Soldiers and Civil-Military Relations Gerhard Kümmel, Giuseppe Caforio, Christopher Dandeker, 2009-02-01 It is an honor for us to introduce this collection of essays which is dedicated to an old friend and colleague who is no longer with us. It is an honor but also a pleasure because we feel like continuing a dialogue with Jürgen, one that has never broken down over the years revisiting and recalling the different places and occasions where we met, discussed, collaborated and had fun. We, that is Giuseppe Caforio, Christopher Dandeker and Gerhard Kümmel, who have been friends and/or colleagues of and research collaborators with Jürgen and who represent three prominent institutions and organizations with which Jürgen worked, felt that this book is something we owe to Jürgen and we are grateful that many people who at different times and at different places had contact with Jürgen and his work were willing to contribute a chapter to this anthology. Most of Jürgen's studies, professional work and research activities took place at the Bundeswehr Institute of Social Sciences (SOWI). Jürgen, born in 1938, had joined the Bundeswehr in 1957 and had already worked at the SOWI's predecessor institution, the Scientific Institute for Education in the Armed Forces, from 1971 onwards after having finished his university studies. Since this institute was renamed SOWI in 1974, Jürgen belonged to the first generation of researchers that worked at the SOWI. Soldiers and Societies in Postcommunist Europe A. Forster, T.
