Military Assistance In Recent Wars The Dominance Of The Superpowers:

Military Assistance William H. Mott IV, 1999-10-30 This work provides a theoretical and historical examination of the relationship between provision of military assistance and success in achieving donor aims Eight case studies which include the American Revolution the Napoleonic Wars and the Vietnam War are examined to assess four prominent features of the donor recipient relationship the convergence of donor and recipient aims donor control commitment of donor military forces and coherence of donor policies and strategies As an essential part of the expanding body of multidisciplinary international scholarship this book links history and theory to policy and narrows the gap between economics political science and military strategy Each chapter refines the relevant features of the observed donor recipient relationships into a pattern for comparison with other episodes The final chapter collects the observations compares them and develops a set of uniformities that suggest a prototypical successful donor recipient relationship suitable for direct application as a policy paradigm or for theoretical investigation Mott suggests that both donor and recipient governments can use military assistance as a deliberate instrument of national policy and military strategy to achieve national aims

Military Assistance in Recent Wars Stephanie G. Neuman, 1986 Udgifter Afh ngighed styrke og indflydelse Parameters , 1987 Warfare and the Third World R. Harkavy, S. Neuman, 2016-04-30 This book is designed to help the reader better understand the conduct of war by focusing on the how not the why of warfare It examines a number of crucial dimensions of contemporary armed conflict such as the strategies operations tactics doctrines and weapons of conventional and low intensity war military geography the cultural underpinnings of strategies and tactics arms resupply security assistance and foreign intervention

Arms and Warfare Michael Brzoska, Frederic S. Pearson, 1994 Arms and Warfare considers the impact of arms shipments on a conflict once it has begun Using case studies the authors pinpoint the timing of arms transfers and then assess the influence of these deliveries

Air University Library Index to Military Periodicals , 1987 Military Industry and Regional Defense Policy Timothy D. Hoyt, 2017-07-05 Military Industry and Regional Defense Policy re examines military industrialization in the developing world focusing on policy making in producer states and the impact of security perceptions on such policy making Timothy D Hoyt reassesses the role of regional state sub systems in international relations and recent historical studies of international technology and arms transfers Looking at Israel Iraq and India the three most powerful regional powers in the Cold War era he presents an expert analysis of the three sided phenomena of the regional hegemony the regional competitor and the small over achiever This new book breaks away from existing literature on military industries in the developing world which has focused on their economic and development costs and benefits These past studies have used primitive methodologies that focus on the production of complete weapons systems a misleading gauge in a world of growing international defense cooperation They have also ignored empirical evidence of the impact of local military industrial production on Cold War regional conflict and of the defence planning and concerns that drove development of indigenous military industries in key regional powers This new text delivers an incisive new perspective     The Handbook on the Political Economy of War Christopher J. Coyne,Rachel L. Mathers,2011-01-01 The Handbook on the Political Economy of War highlights and explores important research questions and discusses the core elements of the political economy of war
