Head, 2003-01-01 Hunger disease poverty environmental insecurity illegitimate governance civil war and international conflict are only a few of the causes of today's global turmoil and gross human suffering Written in honour of Ivan Head foreign affairs advisor to former Prime Minister Pierre Trudeau past president of Canada's International Development Research Centre and professor emeritus of International law at the University of British Columbia this collection of distinguished essays addresses the imperative to enhance human dignity and protect human life by humanizing our global order and improving international relations goals Professor Head strove for throughout his career The authors argue that the search for possible solutions to these challenges which has so far tended to proceed without due recognition of the needs demands and solutions that emanate from the geo political South must in future be conducted with alternate visions that take these factors into account Each essay seeks to reassess and reimagine a specific topic that relates in some significant way to our current global circumstance in ways that advance the book's thematic With essays grappling with such issues as Multilateral Environmental Agreements the Use of Force the Prevention of Civil War through Minority Protection Common Heritage of Humankind and the Civil Dimensions of Strategy the volume deals with a range of diverse topics that are as crucial as they are topical US Intervention Policy and Army Innovation Richard Lock-Pullan, 2004-08-02 US

Intervention Policy and Army Innovation examines how the US Army rebuilt itself after the Vietnam War and how this has affected US intervention policy from the victory of the Gulf War to the failure of Somalia the Bosnian and Kosovo interventions and the use of force post 9 11 Richard Lock Pullan analyzes the changes in US military intervention strategy by examining two separate issues the nature of the US Army as it rebuilt itself after the Vietnam War and the attempts by the US to establish criteria for future military interventions He first argues that US strategy traditionally relied upon national mobilization to co ordinate political aims and military means he subsequently analyzes how this changed to a formula of establishing militarily achievable political objectives prior to the use of force Drawing on a vast body of material and on strategic culture and military innovation literature Lock Pullan demonstrates that the strategic lessons were a product of the rebuilding of the Army s identity as it became a professional all volunteer force and that the Army s new doctrine developed a new way of war for the nation embodied in the AirLand Battle doctrine which changed the approach to strategy This book finally gives a practical analysis of how the interventions in Panama and the Gulf War vindicated this approach and brought a revived confidence in the use of force while more recent campaigns in Somalia Kosovo and Bosnia exposed its weaknesses and the limiting nature of the Army s thinking The legacy of the Army s innovation is examined in the new strategic environment post 9 11 with the operations in Afghanistan and Iraq

Dividing the State Paul Groarke, 2018-01-18 The events of recent history affirm the urgent need for a satisfactory definition of the conditions under which a minority within a state has the legal right to secede Although the concept of sovereignty has been progressively weakened it still presents the major theoretical difficulty in this area There is currently no source of international law that would give a legal body like a court the authority to recognize the division of an oppressive or illegitimate state into separate legal entities This book accordingly argues for a global system of justice based on a domestic model of compulsory law It considers some of the technical procedural and evidentiary issues that would arise in instituting such a regime and develops the conceptual framework essential for the provision of legal remedies for gross violations of our fundamental human rights Arizona Journal of International and Comparative Law ,2012 TLLS, the Times Literary Supplement ,1996 Independence in the Prosecution of Offenses in the Canadian Forces James W. O'Reilly, Patrick Healy, Commission of Inquiry into the Deployment of Canadian Forces to Somalia, 1997 Considers issues of independence and integrity with respect to policing and prosecution in the military setting It concludes that significant adjustments must be made in structures and practices to ensure that the Canadian public has a high standard of confidence in military justice Recommendation are made with an emphasis on the need for independence at all stages of investigations and prosecution Page 4 of cover PAIS International in Print Gwen Sloan, 1997-04
