Military Statecraft and the Rise of Shaping in World Politics Kyle J. Wolfley, 2021-06-29 Winner of the Andrew F Krepinevich Writing Award A 2022 Choice Reviews Outstanding Academic Title Selected for the Irregular Warfare Initiative s Inaugural Reading List 2022 In today s complex international environment how do the United States China and Russia manage the return of great power competition as well as the persistent threat of violent non state actors This book explores shaping the use of military power to construct a more favorable environment by influencing the characteristics of other militaries altering the relationships between them or managing the behavior of allies As opposed to traditional strategies of warfighting or coercion shaping relies less on threats demonstrations and uses of violence and more on attraction persuasion and legitimacy Because shaping relies more on soft power than on hard power this approach contradicts the conventional wisdom of the purpose militaries serve Kyle J Wolfley explores the emergence of shaping in classical strategy and its increased frequency following the end of the Cold War when threats and allies became more ambiguous He illustrates the four logics of shaping attraction socialization delegation and assurance through five case studies of recent major military exercise programs led by the United States China India the United Kingdom and Russia Moreover the author reveals through sentiment analysis and statistics of over one thousand multinational exercises from 1980 to 2016 how major powers reacted to a complex international environment by expanding the number and scope of shaping exercises Illuminating an understudied but surprisingly common tool of military statecraft this book offers a fresh understanding of military power in today's competitive international system

Power Politics in Africa Olusola Ogunnubi, Samuel Oyewole, 2020-11-09 This collection of essays examines the subject of power politics in Africa paying special attention to the interests of African regional powers as well as their capabilities and strategies in the international arena It provides a theoretical bridge between concerns for militarised national interest perpetual distrust and insecurity struggles for power and hegemony in power politics and the spirit of pan African solidarity brotherhood consensus cooperation and integration It is on these bases that this volume offers rich empirical insight into leading regional powers in Africa with special attention given to Nigeria and South Africa It serves to contribute African perspectives to the field of International Relations particularly regarding power politics which is important in terms of Africanising the narratives of a subject matter that is largely considered as Eurocentric in African and other non Western societies The Military and Politics in Africa George Klay Kieh, Pita Ogaba Agbese, 2004 Unlike other publications on the military and politics in Africa which focus on one or two aspects of the involvement of the military in African politics this text provides a comprehensive evaluation of the various aspects of military intervention Such a collection provides useful insights into the military's role in African politics from initial intervention to the performance of military regimes as well as to disengagement reengagement consolidation and finally the offering of ways to control the problem of intervention

Humour and Politics in Africa Daniel Hammett, Laura S. Martin, Izuu Nwankwo, Izuu Nwankwo E., 2023-03-27 This book examines the relationship between humour and politics in Africa Expanding US Military Command in Africa Tshepo Gwatiwa, Justin van der Merwe, 2020-12-23 This book discusses the systematic expansion of the United States Africa Command AFRICOM across the continent of Africa This book posits that AFRICOM expansion in Africa is part of a broader system of accumulation based on a government business media GBM complex Applying the concept at both structural and descriptive levels the GBM complex is a function of the synergy between the state's quest for power businesses need for expansion and the informational and hegemonic functions of media actors The United States GBM complex in Africa is supported and in some locations spearheaded by its military with dispossessing effects on local actors Drawing from African case studies analytical accounts and empirical case studies this book explores AFRICOM's role within this broader strategy

The volume maps both the methods and the scope of this expansion as well as local resistance to this process and comprises perspectives from the five regions of Africa key sub regional organizations and voices from Africa s regional hegemons This book will be of much interest to students of security studies strategic studies African politics and International Relations
