Military Preparations Of The Arab Community In Palestine 1945 1948:

Military Preparations of the Arab Community in Palestine, 1945-1948 Haim Levenberg, 1993 This book analyzes the reasons why the Arab military were defeated in the fighting which began on 29th November 1947 after the UN's resolution for the Partition of Palestine asking whether it was a failure on the battlefield or one of Arab War in Palestine, 1948 David Tal, 2004-06-24 Arab involvement in the Jewish Palestine conflict had started during the late 1930s but it was only in the wake of the UN Partition Resolution of 29 November 1947 that active military intervention was considered The Arab League tried to form a unified army that would prevent the implementation of the Partition Resolution but failed In Egypt the government and the army opposed the idea of dispatching an expeditionary force to Palestine but the pressure of public opinion and King Farouq's insistence carried the day The order was given and in May 1948 Egyptian forces crossed the international border with Palestine The author analyses the reasons for the decisive victory enjoyed by Israel over a larger opponent and the successes and failures that were sealed in the Egyptian Israeli General Armistice Agreement signed in Rhodes in March 1948 Palestine 1948, 2nd Edition Yoav Gelber, 2006-01-26 Since the 1970s the Latin Based on new or newly interpreted Israeli British and Arab documents this book attempts to integrate present controversies concerning the development of the Jewish Palestinian war from December 1947 to mid May 1948 and the consecutive Israeli Arab war It follows the organization of both sides at the beginning of the war and the shaping of their respective war policies Further it describes the creation of the invading coalition and its disintegration in the wake of the Arab armies military failure The book stresses mainly the processes that led Palestinian society to its collapse and mass flight and the Israeli reactions and policies that turned this temporary escape into a long lasting refugee problem Emphasizing the different historical and cultural perspectives of the adversaries and the context of the war's development it criticises the approach of the Israeli New Historians who tend to isolate the refugee problem from the broader issues of the war and treat it separately Includes a glossary of Arab Israeli wartime operations Arab Christians in British Mandate Palestine Noah Haiduc-Dale, 2013-03-18 Recent conflict in the Middle East has caused some observers to ask if Muslims and Christians can ever coexist History suggests that relations between those two groups are not predetermined but are the product of particular social and political circumstances This book examines Muslim Christian relations during an earlier period of political and social upheaval and explores the process of establishing new forms of national and religious identification Palestine's Arab Christian minority actively engaged with the Palestinian nationalist movement throughout the period of British rule 1917 1948 Relations between Muslim and Christian Arabs were sometimes strained yet in Palestine as in other parts of the world communalism became a specific response to political circumstances While Arab Christians first adopted an Arab nationalist identity a series of outside pressures including British policies the rise of a religious conflict between Jews and Muslims and an increase in Islamic identification among some Arabs led Christians to adhere to more politicized religious groupings by the 1940s Yet despite that shift Christians remained fully nationalist insisting that they could be both Arab and Christian Arab-Zionist Perspectives on the Early Struggle for Justice in Palestine Labeeb Ahmed

Bsoul,2025-06-20 This book offers an in depth exploration of the early history of Palestine providing a rigorous analysis of pivotal events and underlying dynamics The study begins with examining the emergence of Zionist movements and their proposals the period of Ottoman governance in the Levant and the influence of Western imperialism concluding with the critical era surrounding the Second World War specifically from 1939 to 1948 The following four chapters adopt a chronological and analytical approach to address topics of lasting significance These chapters critically examine the development of ideological currents originating from early Zionist initiatives the progression of Jewish settlement projects in Palestine from 1891 to 1917 and their contemporary relevance Furthermore they investigate the international political responses to the Palestine issue during the First and Second World Wars with particular emphasis on the interactions between the Zionist movement and Western imperialism In the final section the book scrutinizes the foundational principles of the Zionist movement and the challenges encountered by the Arab population during the interwar period offering valuable insights into the complex socio political realities of the time The Military Preparations of the Arab Community in Palestine, 1945-1948 Haim Levenberg,1989 Israel: the First Hundred Years Efraim Karsh,2013-11-26

The end of the British mandate in Palestine heralded the birth of the new state of Israel It also marked the end of one of the most tumultuous and momentous chapters in Israeli history But the new state born into a hostile environment and struggling with the manifold demands of sovereignty would have to face many post Independence challenges to its existence not least in the form of armed conflict and confrontation with its Arab neighbours This volume examines the conflicts that from the 1948 until the 1967 Six Day War came to define the Israeli struggle for existence Britain and Jordan Tancred

Bradshaw,2012-03-30 In the wake of the establishment of the State of Israel in 1948 it has often been alleged King Abdullah I of Jordan and the Zionist movements colluded to partition Mandate Palestine between them while Great Britain the retreating imperial power gave them tacit approval to do so Here Tancred Bradshaw challenges these allegations looking at the complex and often strained relations between the emerging states of Jordan Israel and the at first hegemonic and then crumbling British Empire Using a wide range of primary sources which have previously been largely ignored Britain and Jordan offers an essential re examination of the relationships which were to shape the Middle East as it is today It thus contains vital analysis for anyone involved in the study of the Middle East its politics and history as well as the demise of Britain s empire in the region Arab Responses to Fascism and Nazism Israel Gershoni,2014-07-15

The first book to present an analysis of Arab response to fascism and Nazism from the perspectives of both individual countries and the Arab world at large this collection problematizes and ultimately deconstructs the established narratives that assume most Arabs supported fascism and Nazism leading up to and during World War II Using new source materials taken largely from Arab memoirs archives and print media the articles reexamine Egyptian Syrian Lebanese Palestinian and Iraqi responses in the 1930s and throughout the war While acknowledging the individuals forces and organizations that did support and collaborate with Nazi Germany and fascist Italy Arab Responses to Fascism and Nazism focuses on the many other Arab voices that identified with Britain and France and with the Allied cause during the war The authors argue that many groups within Arab societies elites and non elites governing forces and civilians rejected Nazism and fascism as totalitarian racist and most important as new more oppressive forms of European imperialism The essays in this volume argue that in contrast to prevailing beliefs that Arabs were de facto supporters of Italy and Germany since the enemy of my enemy is my friend mainstream Arab forces and currents opposed the Axis powers and supported the Allies during the war They played a significant role in the battles for control over the Middle East

The Palestinian Military Hillel Frisch,2010-10-04

This book analyzes Palestinian attempts to create an organized military force from the period of the Mandate up to the present day Beginning with a comparative overview of the relationship between insurgent movements and the quest to build up a standard military the book looks first at how the 1936 revolt galvanized the Palestinian leadership to attempt to create a military It then goes on to examines other major topics such as the 1948 failure to create an organized armed force

Palestinian participation in other Arab armed forces the creation of the PLA attempts to develop a security apparatus after Oslo and finally the question of security reform and peace making The book concludes by identifying the lessons from the Palestinian experience that can be applied in promoting healthy civil military relations within political entities located in major conflict zones

Mandated Landscape Roza El-Eini,2004-11-23

In this ground breaking authoritative study a highly documented and incisive analysis is made of the galvanising changes wrought to the people and landscape of British Mandated Palestine 1929 1948 Using a comprehensive and interdisciplinary approach the book s award winning author examines how the British imposed their rule dominated by the clashing dualities of their Mandate obligations towards the Arabs and the Jews and their own interests The rulers Empire wide conceptions of the White man s burden and preconceptions of the Holy Land were potent forces of change influencing their policies Lucidly written Mandated Landscape is also a rich source of information supported by numerous maps tables and illustrations and has 66 appendices a considerable bibliography and extensive index With a theoretical and historical backdrop the ramifications of British rule are highlighted in their impact on town planning agriculture forestry land the partition plans and a case study presenting discussions on such issues as development ecological shock law and the controversial division of village lands as the British operated in a politically turbulent climate often within their own administration This book is a major contribution to research on British Palestine and will interest those in Middle East history geography development and colonial postcolonial studies

Making Israel

Benny Morris,2010-04-23 Benny Morris is the founding father of the New Historians a group of Israeli scholars who have challenged long established perceptions about the origins of the Israeli Palestinian conflict Their research rigorously documented crimes and atrocities committed by the Israeli armed forces including rape torture and ethnic cleansing With Making Israel Morris brings together the first collection of translated articles on the New History by leading Zionist and revisionist Israeli historians providing Americans with a firsthand view of this important debate and enabling a better understanding of how the New Historians have influenced Israelis awareness of their own past The study of Israeli history society politics and economics over the past two decades has been marked by a fierce and sometimes highly personal debate between traditionalists scholars who generally interpreted Israeli history and society within the Zionist ethos and revisionists scholars who challenged conventional Zionist narratives of Israeli history and society Making Israel brings together traditionalists and revisionists who openly and directly lay out their key insights about Israel s origins It also introduces multidisciplinary perspectives on Israel by historians and sociologists each bringing into the debate its own jargon its own epistemology and methodology and its own array of substantive issues This is essential reading for anybody who wants to understand the different interpretations of Israeli society and perhaps the central debate among students of modern Israel Zeev Maoz Professor of Political Science at the University of California Davis and Distinguished Fellow at the Interdisciplinary Center Herzliya Israel s new historians have done a great service to their country and to all who care about the Arab Israeli conflict By challenging myths reexamining evidence and asking truly important questions about the past they help to confront the present with honesty and realism This book provides a sampling of the best of what these courageous voices have to offer William B Quandt University of Virginia Benny Morris is Professor of Middle East history at Ben Gurion University in Beersheba Israel and is the author of Righteous Victims A History of the Zionist Arab Conflict 1881 1999

Palestinians in Jerusalem and Jaffa, 1948 Itamar Radai, 2015-12-14 Between November 1947 and May 1948 war between the Palestinian Arab community and the Jewish community encompassed Palestine with Jerusalem and Jaffa becoming focal points in the conflict due to their centrality size and symbolic importance Palestinians in Jerusalem and Jaffa 1948 examines Palestinian Arab society institutions and fighters in Jerusalem and Jaffa during the conflict It is one of the first books in English that deals with the Palestinian Arabs at this crucial and tragic moment in their history with extensive use of Arabic sources and an inquiry from the Palestinian vantage point It examines the causes of the social collapse of the Palestinian Arab communities in Jerusalem and Jaffa during the 1948 inter communal war and the impact of this collapse on the military defeat This book reveals that the most important internal factors to the Palestinian defeat were the social changes that took place in Arab society during the British Mandate namely internal migration from rural areas to the cities the shift from agriculture to wage labour and the rise of the urban middle class By looking beyond the well established external factors this study uncovers how modernity led to a breakdown within Palestinian Arab society widening social fissures without producing effective institutions and thus alienating social classes both from each other and from the leadership With careful examination of a range of sources and informed analysis of Palestinian social history Palestinians in Britain's Naval and Political Reaction to the Illegal Immigration of Jews to Palestine, 1945-1949 Freddy Liebreich, 2004-10-07 This book provides an important shift in the analysis of Britain's policy towards the illegal postwar Jewish immigration into Palestine. It charts the development of Britain's response to Zionist immigration from the initial sympathy as embodied in the Balfour Declaration through attempts at blockade, refoulement and finally disengagement. The book exposes differences in policy pursued by the great departments of state like the Foreign Colonial and War Offices and their legal advisors and those implemented by the Admiralty. The book argues that the eventual failure of Britain's immigration policy was inevitable in view of the hostility shown by many European nations and America towards Britain's ambition to retain her position in the Middle East.

The New Citizen Armies Stuart A. Cohen, 2010-01-21 This edited book constitutes the first detailed attempt at a comparative international analysis of the transformations that are currently affecting the composition of the Israel Defense Forces (IDF) and their place in Israeli society. Focusing primarily on deviations from the traditional norm of universal military service, the book compares the emergence of a new type of citizen army in Israel with the formats that have in recent decades become evident in other western democracies. In addition, these essays correct the conventional tendency to concentrate almost exclusively on the influences stimulating military institutional change in the West and thereby to overlook the equally important factors that retard its momentum. By contrast, this volume deliberately highlights the brakes as well as the accelerators in current processes, thereby presenting a far more faithful picture of their complexity. This book will be of much interest to students of Israeli politics, military studies, Middle Eastern politics, security studies and IR in general. Stuart Cohen is a senior research associate of the BESA Begin-Sadat Center for Strategic Studies and also teaches political studies at Bar Ilan University, Israel. His most recent book is Israel and its Army: From Cohesion to Confusion (Routledge, 2008).

The Sword And The Olive Martin Van Creveld, 2008-08-06 Combining razor sharp analysis with dramatic narrative, vivid portraits of soldiers and commanders with illuminating discussions of battle tactics and covert actions, The Sword and the Olive traces the history of the IDF from its beginnings in Palestine to today. The book also goes beyond chronology to wrestle with the political and ethical struggles that have shaped the IDF and the country it serves, struggles that are manifesting themselves in the recent tragic escalation of the Palestinian-Israeli conflict. Often revisionist in attitude, surprising in many of its conclusions, this book casts new light on the struggle for peace in the Middle East.

The Arab Nationalist Advisor Joseph A. Kéchichian, 2022-11-01 Shaykh Yusuf Yassin (1892-1962) marked the contemporary history of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia in his capacity as a favorite advisor who was the founder, monarch's confidential secretary, relentless envoy and chief foreign policy consultant.
