the British military forces greatly expanded and involved in two major international conflicts the War of the Austrian Succession and the Seven Years War The latter was truly a global war subsuming the French and Indian wars fought in the Americas as well as conflicts in India and elsewhere By 1760 despite achieving little in Europe Great Britain had been able to expel the French from both Canada and India After a brief overview of the British forces prior to the period the author examines each component He covers not only the regular cavalry and infantry the Guards line Highland and light regiments but also the artillery and Royal Engineers Corps of Invalids the Fencibles naval infantry the auxiliary corps created to face the Jacobite Rising of 1745 and the allied contingents from Germany and the Netherlands that fought for Great Britain during the period 1745 1760 There are chapters devoted to the colonial forces deployed in the Thirteen Colonies of North America with full details on the American militia and provincial military units as well as forces deployed in the Caribbean and the military contingents of the East India Company The book is illustrated throughout with excellent color illustrations from The Cloathing Book commissioned in 1742 by the Duke of Cumberland and from the oil paintings of David Morier preserved in the Royal Collections Military Uniforms of the British Empire Overseas ,1937 Empire's Noble Son Daryl

The British Tariff for ... Edwin Beedell,1850 The British Army of the Rhine Michael Foley,2017-09-09 Lord Methuen and the British Army Stephen M. Miller,2012-11-12 This study analyzes the readiness of the British military establishment for war in 1899 and its performance in the South African War 1899 1902 It focuses on the career of Field Marshal Paul Sanford 3rd Baron Methuen whose traditional military training used so effectively in Queen Victoria s small wars was put to the test by the modern challenges of the South African War A subsidiary aim of this work is to correct and refine the historical consensus that Methuen s campaign in the South African War was plagued by practical errors and poor judgement The South African War was a crucial transitional episode in the history of the British army Unlike Great Britain s other expeditions it required the concentrated resources of the entire empire It was a modern war in the sense that it employed the technology the weaponry the communications and the transportation of the second industrial revolution

Soldiers of Uncertain Rank David Lambert,2024-10-31 The West India Regiments were an anomalous presence in the British Army Raised in the late eighteenth century Caribbean in an act of military desperation their rank and file were overwhelmingly men of African descent initially enslaved As such the regiments held a unique but ambiguous place in the British Army and British Empire until their disbandment in 1927 Soldiers of Uncertain Rank brings together the approaches of cultural imperial and military history in new and illuminating ways to show how the image of these regiments really mattered This image shaped perceptions in the Caribbean societies in which they were raised and impacted on how they were deployed there and in Africa By examining the visual and textual representation of these soldiers this book uncovers a complex under explored and illuminating figure that sat at the intersection of nineteenth century debates about slavery and freedom racial difference Britishness savagery and civilisation military service and heroism

Trowels in the Trenches Christopher P. Barton,2021-02-23 Presenting examples from the fields of critical race studies cultural resource management digital archaeology environmental studies and heritage studies Trowels in the Trenches demonstrates the many different ways archaeology can be used to contest social injustice This volume shows that activism in archaeology does not need to involve radical or explicitly political actions but can be practiced in subtler forms as a means of studying the past informing the present and creating a better future In case studies that range from the Upper Paleolithic period to the modern era and span the globe contributors show how contemporary economic environmental political and social issues are manifestations of past injustices These essays find legacies of marginalization in art toys houses and other components of the material world As they illuminate inequalities and forgotten histories these case studies exemplify how even methods such as 3D modeling and database management can be activist when they are used to preserve artifacts and heritage sites and to safeguard knowledge over generations While the archaeologists in this volume focus on different topics and time periods and use many different practices in their research they all seek to expand their work beyond the networks and perspectives of modern capitalism in which the discipline developed These studies support the argument that at its core archaeology is an interdisciplinary research endeavor armed with a broad methodological and theoretical arsenal that should be used to benefit all members of society Contributors Christopher P Barton Stephen A Brighton Tiffany Cain Stacey L Camp Kasey Diserens Morgan Yamoussa Fane Daouda Keita Nathan Klembara Ora V Marek Martinez Christopher N Matthews Bernard K Means Vinod Nautiyal Kyle Somerville Moussa dit Martin Tessougue Kerry F Thompson Joe Watkins Andrew J Webster Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature,1913
