La Jetée Chris Darke, 2019-07-25 Chris Marker's La Jetée is 28 minutes long and almost entirely made up of black and white still images Since its release in 1964 the film which Marker described as a photo novel has haunted generations of viewers and inspired writers artists and film makers Its spiralling narrative of post nuclear war time travel narrative has influenced many other films including the Terminator series and Terry Gilliam's Hollywood remake Twelve Monkeys 1995 But as Marker rarely gave interviews little is really known about the origins of La Jetée or the ideas behind it In this groundbreaking study Chris Darke draws on rare archival material including previously unpublished correspondence and production documents to examine the making of the film He explores how Marker's only fiction film was influenced both by his early work as a writer and by Alfred Hitchcock's Vertigo 1958 and considers how La Jetée's imagery can be seen to echo throughout Marker's extraordinarily diverse oeuvre

Space and Time in African Cinema and Cine-scapes Kenneth W. Harrow, 2022-06-28 This book is the first of its kind to bring basic notions of contemporary physics to bear on African cine scapes In this book renowned African cinema scholar Kenneth W Harrow presents unique new ways to think about space and time in film with a specific focus on African and African diasporic cinema Through a series of case studies he explores how cinema creates and represents time and space and more specifically how a cinema centered in African landscapes and figures accomplishes this He reflects on the issues and problems posed by scientists when faced with the basic questions of what space and time are and their solutions or conclusions giving both film studies and African studies scholars access to new ways to formulate their thinking about African cine scapes Working beyond the limits of a framework based in a postcolonial and cultural understanding of time and space Harrow demonstrates how a scientific understanding of time and space can open up new approaches to African cinema and cinema in general A unique interdisciplinary book that encourages brand new ways to approach cinematic texts and specifically African cine scapes
